

Couple Wed In Civil Rites On Monday

Alice M. Seitz and Charles H. Gilpin Jr. were married in a civil ceremony July 16 in the chambers of Justice of the Peace O. W. Grubb, at the county courthouse.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Seitz of Fossil. She was graduated from high school this spring.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gilpin, 455 St. Helena place. He attended Bend High school before entering the Navy two years ago. He is now stationed on the US Scimitar.

The bride wore a navy blue linen suit with a navy and white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

The bridegroom's parents and his sister, Mrs. George Chase, were present for the ceremony. After their marriage, the couple made a trip to Fossil to visit the bride's parents.

Gilpin left Thursday to return to his ship. His bride will remain in Bend for the present.

Second Mitchell Benefit Show Planned Tonight

Special to The Bulletin
REDMOND — A peppy troupe of young performers delighted the audience at Redmond Union high school Friday evening in a "Mitchell Relief Fund" benefit show.

The Oregon Journal Juniors, sponsored by the Redmond Chamber of Commerce, and the Journal, will appear again tonight at 8 p.m. in the high school. The show will feature different numbers from Friday night, including singing, dancing, juggling, tumbling and rovelties. Larry McClung is their director.

All proceeds from the shows, as well as from the dance tonight at Redmond clubhouse VFW hall, will go to Mitchell to aid in their flood recovery. The Journal Junior band will play for the dance which will follow the show at the high school.

Local service clubs are assisting with the two day program, providing evening meals for the troupe of around 40 performers, taking pledges from persons who cannot attend the shows, and in other ways helping the Chamber of Commerce. The youngsters were invited to use Redmond swimming pool this afternoon.

CAMERA TIPS

By Reid Bell

IN COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY . . . More than in black-and-white, it is important to a void extremes of subject contrast. Especially in outdoor shots. The extreme brilliance of direct sun often makes the brightness range between highlights and shadows so great your high-light areas might wash out entirely or your shadows might plug up and be extremely dark. Try to range your subject to a void any extreme contacts. You'll be more satisfied with your results. And for best results in your pictures bring us your films for skillful handling and printing. The best costs no more.

Brandis
THRIFT-WISE
DRUGS
S & H Green Stamps
1020 Wall Ph. 323

Community Living

ILA S. GRANT, Editor

8 The Bend Bulletin, Saturday, July 21, 1956

SCENE AT THE POOL—Toddlers enjoy the wading pool in Juniper Park these warm days, and many of the mothers relax on the adjacent lawn with sewing or reading. When this picture was taken, Mrs. Russell Dahl, 734 E. Forth street, was reassuring son Gary, who didn't like the splash from the water intake. Also in the picture, from left, are Laurie Reinhart, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Roger Reinhart, 810 Newport, and Michael Sprague, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprague, 433 E. Hawthorne. (Bend Bulletin Photo)

Materials For Arranging Is Easily Found

Information on the gathering and preparation of materials for dried arrangements was given at a meeting of the Mirror Pond garden club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elsie Dunn. A picnic dinner was served on the patio, and afterward Mrs. Dunn had charge of the program.

Roadside weeds, garden flowers, seed pods and other materials may be gathered at different stages of development, dried and used for interesting decorative arrangements, Mrs. Dunn said. The material is dried by tying in loose bunches and hanging, in a basement or other dark, cool place. Then it is packed in boxes and labeled, and is ready for use all through the fall and winter months, when fresh flowers may not be available.

The common dock is most attractive, and is available in different shades, by picking it at different times of the year. In drying, it retains its color at the time of picking. It is rose and light green in May, light brown in July and deep reddish brown in the fall.

Cat-tails gathered in the summer are small and golden or green, and in the fall they are large and brown. Pussy willows cut in the spring also keep well. Among the other popular materials are mullein, seed pods such as those of the oriental poppy, goldenrod, when it first starts to bloom, corn tassels and rhubarb seed pods.

Scotch thistle, commonly known as tumble weed, is at its most attractive stage in late summer or early fall, when it is still pink. It is decorative for Christmas arrangements both in its natural color, and sprayed. Some brush may be found in shades of both gray and green, and is compatible with a number of the other materials. Millweed pods are also treasured by many arrangers.

Twelve members of the club were present at the program meeting. Mrs. James Egan, a new-comer to Bend, was a guest.

Pastors Plan Pulpit Exchange

Rev. Dean Poindexter of the First Methodist church, Bend, and Rev. Noble Streeter of the Prineville Community church will change pulpits for the day on Sunday. Rev. Streeter will preach at the local Methodist church at both services, at 8:30 and 11 a.m. Dean Poindexter will occupy Rev. Streeter's pulpit in Prineville. Next week Rev. Poindexter will go to Tacoma, Wash. to attend the graduate school of ministerial training held each year at the College of Puget Sound. The announcement in The Bulletin yesterday that Rev. Poindexter would be in Tacoma this weekend was in error.

VISITOR AND HOSTESS—Mrs. Jane Cutler of Peoria, Ill., and children Billy Craig and Catherine, are guests at the suburban home of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Cutler and family. The visitor (left) and her hostess were photographed after an informal afternoon with friends. (Bend Bulletin Photo)

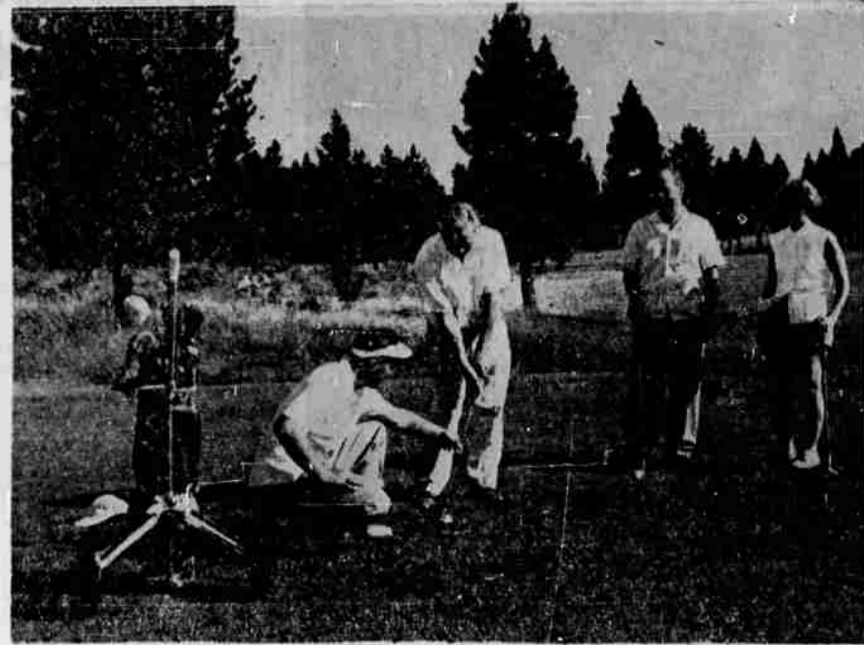

2 Give Reports, At Pine Forest

P. F. Riesel and Mrs. Rex Hanshaw gave reports at the meeting of Pine Forest Grange Tuesday night at the Grange hall. Riesel, the agriculture chairman, told about a new spray which has been found successful in the control of quack grass. Mrs. Hanshaw, the legislation chairman, spoke on civil defense plans which have been made in the county.

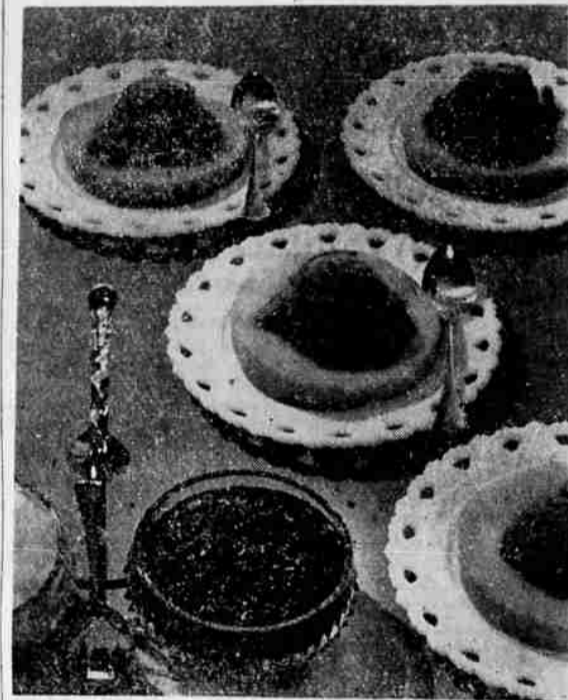

Julius Larsen of Oswego was a guest at the meeting. He will have charge of the Juvenile Grange camp adjacent to the Skyline recreation area next week.

Men of the Grange had charge of the lecturer's program. C. V. Rasmussen played old-time fiddle selections. Mrs. M. Ray Cooper showed color slides of wildflowers and gardens in the Bend area. The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Freida Pickett.

Sunshine Club of Pythian Sisters will meet Tuesday, July 24, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. H. A. Marshall, 512 Delaware avenue. Mrs. Minnie Lemke will be co-hostess. All Pythian sisters are invited to attend.

DAY IN THE SUN—The sturdy ones didn't mind the heat, and find that golfing is a good way to get a coppery tan. Even on a warm day, there are cooling breezes on Bend's tree-studded golf course. Here A. J. Glassow takes a lesson from the club professional, Einar Allen, as Dr. Charles E. Donley and Mrs. Allen look on. (Bend Bulletin Photo)

DELUXE AND DELIGHTFUL—This creamy-tart two-fruit dessert is pretty served on melon or honeydew rounds. Good all by its cool self, too!

Tart Cranberry-Pineapple Sherbet Festive Alone or as Meal Ending

A gala dessert serves many useful purposes. It can help wind up as really sumptuous repast with a flourish. It can lend a banquet touch to a simple meal. Or, at informal gatherings that call for a beverage and something sweet, it can play the leading role. For any of these occasions, consider Cranberry - Pineapple Sherbet, a most cool and attractive offering. It's a delectable mixture whose star ingredient is tart-sweet jellied cranberry sauce that brings a welcome tang to interest summer's sometimes finicky palates.

But, this is one dessert that can also stand alone at treat-times. Served simply by itself, or scooped on rounds of juicy melon, Cranberry-Pineapple Sherbet is an inviting call to refreshment.

Cranberry-Pineapple Sherbet
1 cup jellied cranberry sauce, crushed

½ cup crushed pineapple
2 cups buttermilk
Juice of 1 lemon
1 teaspoon almond extract
1 egg white
½ cup sugar
Mix cranberry sauce, pineapple, buttermilk, lemon juice and almond extract. Beat egg white to soft peaks; then beat in sugar. Add to first mixture. Pour into freezing tray. Stir once or twice during early freezing stages. Serves 8 to 10. If desired, serve on slices.

Stockings or No? Use Good Taste, Scrutinize Legs

Stockings or not in the summer? This is a question many women put off as long as possible as the weather turns warm.

It can't be settled categorically. Some mature women have very youthful skin. They tan with ease and the skin on their legs has remained firm. Certainly those women have no more need to wear stockings on casual occasions, if they wish to go without, than their daughters do.

Women who have conspicuous veins in their legs and women who wear elastic stockings for medical reasons know the answer before they ask. They hope only that someone will give them an excuse to do what they know they ought not to do.

Women whose skin remains palid throughout the summer and women who are severely under or overweight ought to decide about wearing stockings on the basis of whether the comfort is worth the price they will pay in attractiveness.

Some women who wear longer dresses and who have no circulation trouble may find that knee-length stockings that stay up by themselves give the benefits of comfort and looks. But, if one's skirt hangs up above the stocking line when one sits down, one ought not to wear them. Pregnant women should, in no case, wear stockings with elastic at the knees.

Women who don't feel the need of stockings should wear nylon foot-covers to protect the insides of the shoes and their feet.

Social Calendar Cotton Kerchief Gay Window Frill

Sunday
10 a.m. — Sons of Norway, picnic in lower meadows, Shevlin park.
12:30 p.m. — Pomona Grange picnic, upper meadows, Shevlin park.

1 p.m. — Daughters of the Nile, Shriners and families meet at home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Statters, 205 Franklin avenue, to leave for picnic at summer cottage of Dr. and Mrs. George Blinn, Haner Park.

Tuesday
2 p.m. — Sunshine club with Mrs. H. A. Marshall, 512 Delaware.

Here's a handkerchief trick—any smallish window can be outfitted with cafe or tier curtains made out of gay printed handkerchiefs. Get large cotton handkerchiefs—they come in 14 to 19 inch squares—and use two or three tiers with two, three, or four handkerchiefs to a tier, according to the size of the window. Put them up with rings or ornamental clips. These are designed to go on and off like clothespins—making it easy to take hankie curtains down for laundering.

A Tribute To . . . The Farmer

From the soil comes the sustenance of the world. From the hard working man who tills the soil come the fruits of Nature in bountiful array. God loves the Farmer, someone has said, because he is in such close communion with the good earth. He plows it. He plants it. He worries over it. And lo, then smiling fields are lush and abundant with tassels, tomatoes and all the things we eat. Fat cows and porkers give us milk and meat. And Mrs. Farmer has chickens and turkeys for the market. Without the Farmer there would be no life or living. Let's salute his sun up to sunset existence . . . and be grateful for his bounty!

Niswonger & Winslow
FUNERAL HOME
1111 at Irving Avenue Phone 118
WE SALUTE OUR TOWN!

1110 KC KBND 1000 Watts

YOUR VACATION STATION

Serving 40,000 Central Oregonians
. . . Plus 25,000 Tourist Guests

LATEST NEWS
.. NETWORK COMMENTARIES
.... SPECIAL AWARD SHOWS
..... TOPS IN SPORTS
..... LATEST RELEASES
Juts Dial 1110
NOW IN ITS 18th YEAR of BROADCASTING

for your 2 WEEKS WITH PLAY . . .

take TRAILWAYS

Now is the time to turn your vacation dreams into plans. See your Trailways Agent today for free nationwide vacation planning. All transportation, hotel rooms and sightseeing reserved for you in advance. It's the carefree way to spend your two weeks with play!

• GRAND CANYON • NEW YORK CITY • COLORADO • VIRGINIA
• SPACE AND ZION PARKS • WASHINGTON D.C.
• 1945 • FLORIDA

Now, your Trailways agent can route you through Scenic Crater Lake National Park on your trip to or from the Northwest. Complete Vacation accommodations available. Your agent will plan all details of your stay at Crater Lake Park at no cost to you.

TRAILWAYS the friendly line

Bond & Greenwood
Ph. 500