George Redden Is Recognized As Bend Gardener of the Year

Rev. George H. Redden, who traded his title of "pastor of the pines" for that of "pastor of the petunias," was named Gardener of the Year at the annual award luncheon of the Bend Garden club. This was held Friday in the Trailways banquet room.

Recognition of an outstanding gardener in the community was given by the club this year for the first time. A plaque was presented by the club president, Mrs. Grant Salisbury.

In accepting the tribute, Rev.

Redden told briefly about his public work as a traveling minister, visiting logging camps in the Central Oregon area. When he retired, he sought a hobby that would enable him to continue to give service and make new friends. He made a career of petunia culture.

Rev. Redden's colorful massed plantings and borders, at his home at 140 Xerxes avenue, on the east bank of the Deschutes near the North city limits, have attracted visitors from all parts of the United States, and several foreign countries.

Tips Given For Budget Dressing

Dressing on a young budget means you can't wallow around in mink, satin and diamonds.

It means that money from Dad or your own job has to be carefully allotted.

There's so much for clothes to wear on dates and so much for clothes to wear for at-home parties. And there's no big buying spree either way since the money must cover other expenses, too.

In most cases, separates provide the ideal answer. They can be worn more than one way on different occasions. A pretty skirt, worn with ruffled shirt on date night, can also go to the office with a tailored shirt.

ON HONOR ROLL.

Miss Congdon Wed in East To D. L. Overly

Donald L. Overly of Youngstown, Ohio, and Miss Verna L. Congdon, formerly of Bend, were married Saturday afternoon, December 29, in the chapel of the Motine Gospel temple.

The couple went to Virginia and Washington, D. C. for their wedding trip. They are now at home in Akron, Ohio. The bridegroom has resumed his studies at Kent State University in nearby Kent, where he is a junior.

Was Employed Here
The bride is the daughter of Mrs. George L. Zierlein of Bend. She was formerly employed here as secretary for Murray Brothers Construction company.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Overly of Youngstown. He completed two years of military duty with the U. S. Army, and spent 17 months in Germany.

Rev. Charles L. Hollis performed the ceremony, in a setting of candelabra and white gladioli. Mrs. Marie Turner was soloist and matron of honor. A. R. Overly Jr. was best man for his brother, Merle Turner and Glen Martin ushered.

Given By Father
The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a waltz-length gown detailed with lace bodice and a bouffant skirt of net over satin. A matching lace cap held her fingertip veil. She wore pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible with a white orchid and satin streamers. Mrs. Turner wore a ballerina frock of rose nylon lace, with a veiled headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Reception Held
A reception was held in the hospitality room of the church following the ceremony.

The bride's going-away costume was a pale blue two-piece knit dress, with navy blue accessories. She pinned on the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Coffees for Polio Planned by Club

Members of the Young Mothers Study club will hold a series of coffee hours for benefit of the March of Dimes. This was decided at the monthly meeting Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ross Rutherford was hostess at her home at 1513 Galveston avenue, with Mrs. Louis Langer and Mrs. Elmer Judy in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Harry Strobe was the guest speaker. She is manager of Erickson's Freezer Food Service. She gave tips on the use of home freezers, to provide more interesting and nourishing meals.

The engagement was appointed gift chairman, succeeding Mrs. Ralph Dymont, who resigned.

Mrs. Sam Blucher was a guest. Mrs. Don Wyatt, president, conducted the business meeting.

Public Invited To Benefit Tea

The Juniper Garden club will hold its annual March of Dimes benefit tea Wednesday, January 16, at the Farmstead, home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Conklin.

The public is invited to attend. It was announced by Mrs. Ralph Laird, club president.

Refreshments will be served between the hours of 1 and 5:30 p.m.

Six WSCS Circles To Hold Meetings

Circles of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service will have meetings next week.

The following will meet Monday January 14, at 8 p.m.: Circle 4 with Mrs. Phil Coyner, 4 Gilchrist avenue; circle 5 with Mrs. Virgil Hammer, 235 Jefferson place; circle 6 with Mrs. Ray Rhodes, 415 Heyburn street.

Meetings are scheduled for Wednesday, January 16, at 2 p.m. as follows: Circle 1 with Mrs. C. L. Rasmussen, Route 3, box 70; circle 2 with Mrs. T. D. Sexton, 1197 Wall street; circle 3 with Mrs. Marion Poor, 415 Newport avenue.

PEO BIRTHDAY CAKE—These two charter members of the AI chapter, PEO Sisterhood joined in cutting a birthday cake Thursday night, in observance of the 32nd anniversary of the institution of the local chapter. Mrs. Fred A. Lieuallen is seated, with Mrs. E. R. Ryan standing. (Bend Bulletin Photo)

TELLS NEWS—Miss Fay Hunter's engagement was announced at college.

Engagement Of Interest Here

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Hunter, former Bend residents now living in Salem, announce the engagement of their daughter, Faye, to Leonard Hovey. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hovey of Corvallis.

Both young people are juniors at Oregon State college. Miss Hunter graduated from Bend High school in 1933 and is a home economics major. Her fiancé is a graduate of Corvallis High school and is specializing in chemical engineering.

The engagement news was told at a party last week at Winston House, in Corvallis. The bride-elect is a resident there while attending school.

Date for the wedding has not been set.

If you have become aware of the appearance of tiny wrinkles, take particular care not to let your skin become dry. Use a good night cream faithfully. The application of adhesive plaster across the wrinkle, gently pulling the skin smooth first, sometimes helps.

An occasional massage with dry, domestic salt before shampooing stimulates the scalp and is a good dandruff remover.

PEO Chapter History Read By Mrs. Ryan

The 32nd anniversary of the organization in Bend of the PEO Sisterhood, AI chapter, was observed at a dinner meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Loggan, 657 Drake road. Mrs. Loggan and Mrs. Phil F. Brogan were hostesses.

Two charter members, Mrs. E. R. Ryan and Mrs. Fred A. Lieuallen, were present, and assisted in cutting a big birthday cake. Mrs. Ryan was program chairman, and presented a history of the chapter. Three other charter members still affiliated with the chapter were unable to attend.

Mrs. Elmer V. Ward is en route to Hawaii, with her husband. Mrs. Horace Richards is in LaGrande, visiting relatives, and Mrs. H. H. DeArmond is recuperating from a recent illness.

Other members of the chapter when it was instituted here 32 years ago were Mrs. E. E. Gray, Mrs. Lou Foss, Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mrs. J. D. Donovan and the late Mrs. Jennie Brown, Mrs. Anna Smith and Mrs. Ashley Forrest.

Patriotic Group Receives Charter

The auxiliary of World War I Veterans, barracks No. 153, was instituted in a ceremony Tuesday evening at the VFW hall. Mrs. Norma Dillage of Eugene, department president, was the installing officer.

Thirty-nine members were listed on the charter which was presented.

Preceding the meeting, members of the post and auxiliary enjoyed a smorgasbord dinner.

BRIDE-ELECT — Darlene Hershman, bride-elect of Lloyd A. Sisk.

Betrothal News Told By Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Hershman, 15 Lake place, announce the engagement of their daughter, Darlene Edith, to Lloyd A. Sisk. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sisk of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Miss Hershman is a Bend High school graduate and has been attending Central Oregon college. Her fiancé is employed in Bend as a carpenter. He had his schooling in Colorado, and served three years in the Marines.

The wedding is planned for February 2 at Trinity Lutheran church. The couple will live in Colorado Springs.

The engagement news was first told at a holiday family party.

Academy of Friendship, Women of the Moose, will meet Tuesday, January 15, at 8 p.m. at Moose hall. Serving on the hostess committee will be Mrs. William McBride, Mrs. R. C. Kirby, Mrs. Fay Cornett and Mrs. William Mueller.

Women Take Office For New Year

Mrs. Francis Stokesberry is the new president of the auxiliary of the Jay H. Upton post, United Spanish-American War Veterans. The installation was held at the postponed Christmas party of the camp and auxiliary, last week at the home of Mrs. Florence Stroul, 606 Congress street. Before the meeting, a turkey dinner was served.

Peter Valley, commander of the camp, was installing officer. In addition to Mrs. Stokesberry, the following are new officers:

Senior vice-president, Mrs. Stout; junior vice-president, Mrs. Addie Triplett; chaplain, M. A. E. C. Coleman; secretary, Mrs. George Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Chris Kostol; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Roy Ullrick; historian, Mrs. Marion Dubuis; conductor, Mrs. Peter Valley; assistant conductor, Mrs. Marie Erickson; guard, Mrs. Amelia Hall; assistant guard, Mrs. Sadie Meredith; musician, Mrs. Sophie Bjorvik.

Chris Kostol and Francis Stokesberry were guests.

Gifts were exchanged, and secret sisters were also revealed with a gift exchange. Names were drawn for new secret sisters.
