

Braves Take Over Loop Lead With Triumph

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee bounced into first place in the National League today with a 6-2 victory over Washington in his first major league game.

The Pirates registered their ninth victory in 13 starts by licking the Redlegs, 3-2; the Giants beat the Cubs, 7-4; and the Phils snapped the Cardinals' eight-game winning streak, 8-1, in other N.L. contests.

Reserve catcher Carl Sawatski drove in four runs for Milwaukee with two doubles and a homer in a victory that was credited to Bob Trowbridge. Bill Bruton hit two homers for the Braves and Gino Cimoli connected for Brooklyn.

Action Afoot

The fight between Logan and Drysdale erupted in the second inning after the Brooklyn pitcher hit the Milwaukee shortstop in the back with a pitch. First the two players exchanged words, then traded punches as players from both clubs rushed out onto the field.

There was even more action in the Yankees-White Sox game after Larry Doby of the White Sox had to hit the dirt in the first inning to avoid being struck by one of Art Ditmar's pitches. Doby and Ditmar swung at each other and a number of other fights soon broke out, involving Billy Martin, Bill Skowron and Enos Slaughter of the Yanks on one side and Walt Dropo and Doby of the White Sox on the other.

Hillings Sees Major Changes In Big Leagues

WASHINGTON (UP)—Rep. Pat. Rick J. Hillings predicted today there soon may be "major changes" in the whole National League baseball map.

The California Republican, a sponsor of two bills pending before Congress which would affect baseball, said "the ice has been broken" now that the National League has given Brooklyn and New York permission to move to the West Coast.

"I think there may be some rumormongering in the American League later, too," he said.

Warrington Hits One Into River

Andy Warrington slammed a homer over the fence and into the river, last night, for the winners, when Pilot Butte met Police in a Junior League baseball game, at Harbor field.

The score was tied 1 to 1 at the end of the first inning, but from then on Pilot Butte led to a final score of 10 for Pilot Butte and 5 for Police.

Leading batter for the victors was Kerry Yancey, with 4 hits for 5 times at bat and for the losers, Mike Genna got a single and a double for 3 times at the plate. Batteries — Pilot Butte: Stan Adams and Ken Acheson. Police: Bob Hassler and Mike Genna.

NEW ASSIGNMENT

NEW YORK (UP) — Al Sherman, who was backfield coach for the New York Giants in 1949-51, returned to the National Football League team today to supervise the club's talent scouts. Sherman, a former Philadelphia Eagles' quarterback, coached Canada's Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1954-55-56.

Lelco Defeats Eagles, 11 to 5

Lelco team scored five runs in the first inning, and went on to lead Eagles all the way, Thursday night, at Juniper Field in a National Little League baseball game.

Eagles scored their only runs in the third inning, to lose out to Lelco 11 to 5.

Bill Ty, top batter for the winners, got a double in his only time at bat, and for the losers, Don Fagon got two hits in four times at the plate, and Philip Douglas hit the double three times up, for the only three hits allowed by the winning pitchers.

Rainiers Beat Portland, 4 to 2

SEATTLE (UP) — The Seattle Rainiers defeated Portland, 4-2, last night in a loosely played Pacific Coast League baseball game marred by six errors.

Larry Jansen, given a sizeable early lead, struck out ten and effectively spaced eight hits in notching his fifth win against six defeats. Bill Werle, yielded 11 hits in pitching the distance to his fourth defeat in nine decisions. Only two of the six runs scored were earned.

Three Beaver bobbles enabled Seattle to take a 3-0 lead in the first inning. Third Baseman George Freese and Ed Winceniak committed successive errors and Jim Dyke followed with a double to send in one run. Two more markers crossed on Winceniak's second miscue on the inning.

The Rainiers made it 4-0 in the second-inning when Bobby Balcona singled and eventually scored on another one base knock by Hal Bevan.

Both Portland runs crossed in the fourth. Singled by Ed Mickelson, Freese and Bob Borokowski loaded the bases. One run came in on shortstop Lyle Luttrell's error and the other crossed when Jansen walked. Solly Drake flied in center, however, to end the inning.

SUGGESTION SET

ROME (UP)—The Italian Olympic Committee plans to suggest the period from Aug. 25 to Sept. 11 be designated for the 1960 Rome Olympic Games. The committee will submit its suggestion before the International Olympic Committee meeting in Sofia, Bulgaria.

Districts Set Elections Monday

Special to The Bulletin

MADRAS — School board directors for seven school districts in Jefferson county, plus a rural school board director, are scheduled for election Monday, according to County School Superintendent Asia Eaton.

Candidates for Madras grade school district 509C have been announced as Art Chamness and Dean King. Madras Union High School district U-1 will elect a director to succeed the retiring Gus Ramsey, with Chet Sample accepting the nomination as candidate.

No nominations have been announced for Chilver district No. 4, with a director expected to be elected by write-in votes. Ashwood district No. 8 has two candidates: Mrs. Mary Norton and Byron King. Gateway district No. 17 will elect three directors, with Leigh Shevlin, Warren Friday and Roy Schafer announced as candidates.

Grover Findley has been named as candidate to fill the director's post in Metolius District No. 30, while Wayne Korish is expected to be elected director of Camp Sherman district No. 41. Nominee to fill the rural school board directorship is Herb Vibbert.

The Rev. E. W. Machamer, retiring as director of the non-high district, will not be replaced, as the district is expected to be annexed to MUHS district U-1, Eaton said.

DEATH REPORTED

PORTLAND (UP) — A tractor accident cost the life of M. J. McClure, 63, yesterday. McClure was killed when the tractor turned over on him in a field near his house (on NW Skyline road) in Portland.

Deputy sheriffs said the tractor apparently tipped over backwards when it hit a stump while McClure was discing a field.

Students Attend Camp at OSC

Special to The Bulletin

MADRAS — Thirty-five Jefferson county 4-H students left Madras by bus at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday for the annual 4-H summer school on the Oregon State college campus in Corvallis. They were accompanied by Jay Binder, Jefferson county agent who will remain with them for the duration of the summer session — from June 11 to June 21.

Sponsored by local and central Oregon merchants, organizations and individuals, the students and the houses where they will be quartered are:

Sandra Potampa, Mary Ann Tingle and Jane Newton will stay at Waldo Hall; Patricia Jassa, Connie Myers and Patricia Miller at The Pines; Judy Kiser, Betty Rufener, Frances Rufener, Ramona Bushnell, Patty Miller and Barbara Grant at Winston House.

Making a HAUL

Works like a truck!

Pile on the load! Ford's new Ranchero is rated for more than half a ton of payload—more than many standard pickups! The floor of its man-sized body is over six feet long. And for extra loading ease, it's the lowest of any pickup.

Having a "BALL"

Rides like a car!

Fun time—and the Ranchero becomes a fine personal car! Behind the wheel, you enjoy every ball-joint front suspension—for the first time on any pickup—gives true passenger-car ride.

New Ford RANCHERO!

Nothing on wheels ever led the kind of double life that this trim, slim beauty leads. During the working day, the Ranchero pitches into any job a pickup truck can handle—and does it in style. After hours, it's ready for a picnic, an evening out or whatever your pleasure is.

And you'll find the Ranchero a great prestige builder, too! It labels your company modern and progressive—good to do business with. Call us and see how little it costs to put your name on a new Ranchero!
