

Briefs — Here and There

Willard Farnham, Portland engineer and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Farnham, Bend, is visiting here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wendell Young are parents of a girl born June 12 in Washington, D.C. The baby has been named Wendy Elizabeth. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Allen Young, Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hernan, Eugene. Both Robert and his wife are students at George Washington University.

Canton Deschutes No. 19 and the ladies' auxiliary, Patriarchs Militant, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the IOOF hall. Potluck refreshments will be served.

Bob Lanzarotta returned Thursday afternoon from Long Beach, Calif., where he spent a week visiting friends.

Allen Miller from the Washington, D.C. office of the U.S. Forest Service and M. M. Suchy, from the regional staff in Portland, were on the Deschutes forest today checking mining claims.

A youth dance for all teenagers will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Bend National Guard Armory. Music will be provided through arrangements with the musicians' union.

Leonard A. Swartz, Bend, and Victoria O. Kolin, Port Wing, Wis., obtained a marriage license on Thursday from the Deschutes county clerk's office.

Steven Wendell and Charles Grant left this morning for Portland, to spend the weekend with friends.

The Evergreen Circle of Royal Neighbors of America will hold a card party Saturday, June 22, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Mary Sinclair, 1015 Federal Street.

Deschutes County Judge C. L. Allen and Commissioners Fred Shepard and D. L. Penhollow are in Klamath Falls today, attending a District No. 2 meeting of county courts. Results of the legislative program were to be reviewed and discussion of new laws concerning counties was planned.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brockley, formerly of Bend and now of Astoria, are visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Davis, 1935 East 8th Street. Mr. and Mrs. Brockley are returning to Astoria from a vacation trip to Decatur, Ind., where they visited with their son, Robert, and his family. Brockley was formerly stationed in Bend with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Employe Crushed Beneath Truck

WASHINGTON (UP)—A truck load of money has crushed to death an employe of the Treasury Department.

Twenty-nine-year-old Anthony Schroeder of Silver Spring, Md., was buried beneath 800 pounds of money Tuesday when a money truck overturned at the Bureau of Engraving.

He died Thursday at a Washington hospital. The coroner's office said his death was caused by severe internal injuries and a fractured pelvis.

'All Oregon' Group Planned

Lieutenant Commander C. Helm, USN, officer in charge of the Portland Navy recruiting area announced today that he has been authorized by the Navy Department to recruit another "All Oregon Group" during July 1957.

Last year in June, 108 Oregon youths, several from Bend, were enlisted in two All Oregon companies called the "Ducks" and the "Beavers". The "Ducks" established a record average mark on their classification tests and the "Beavers" were honor company and returned to Portland after training in chartered busses to parade in uniform.

The Oregon Group this year will be formed with approximately 150 men and will be sent to San Diego, Calif., for training.

Youngers Take Church Duties

The Rev. and Mrs. Lynton Younger, who arrived here recently from Fort Worth, Tex., have spent a week here working with the newly organized Grace Baptist Church. The Rev. and Mrs. Younger were graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth. With some 40 other recent graduates and students of Southern Baptist schools, they are working in a summer mission program in the Pacific northwest.

Mrs. Younger, formerly Clarice Graham, spent some time in Bend two years ago. She and her husband spent the present week in visitation and survey work. Pastor H. Burns said they would return later to aid in vacation Bible school work.

The Rev. and Mrs. Younger will leave Sunday for Forest Grove for a vacation Bible school.

2 Words Added To Ordinance

Two short words were inserted this week into the ordinance making it unlawful to distribute handbills in the city. The words were "or on."

If the amended ordinance is passed it will be unlawful to place handbills on the outside of automobiles. It has been illegal to place them inside cars, or houses, on streets, lawns or alleys.

First reading was given to the amendment at the regular meeting of the City commission. Police Chief John T. Truett informed the commission that bills placed under windshield wipers usually were found later in the streets; also in some instances drivers have created hazards by attempting to reach around and dislodge the bills while their cars are in motion.

SHRIMP COUNT

CHICAGO (AP)—An official of the Shrimp Association of the Americas said American fishermen operated 7,000 shrimp boats and marketed 220,000,000 pounds of shrimp last year, but imports of 68,000,000 pounds from Mexico still were needed.

Funeral services for Hershel S. Parks, 58, will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Niswonger-Winslow chapel. He died Sunday at St. Charles Memorial Hospital, after being ill for some time. He was a retired employe of Brooks-Scanlon, Inc.

The Rev. James Thompson of the Missionary-Alliance will officiate.

Group Welcomes New Member

Mrs. R. A. Ferguson was welcomed as a new member of Bend Daughters of the Nile, at a dinner meeting Wednesday evening at the Fremont. She was initiated at the May ceremonial.

Guests at the dinner were Mrs. Grace Cole of Portland and Mrs. Dolly Hodson of Santa Cruz. Mrs. Cole is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McCormack at East Lake. Mrs. Hodson is the guest of Mrs. Jessie Reed, at Paulina Lake.

Foster Added To Forest Staff

Bennett B. Foster, who received his master's degree in forest management at Oregon State College earlier this month, has joined the Deschutes National Forest headquarters staff here as range technician. He will be assistant to O. F. Beeson, in charge of range management.

A native of Minnesota, Foster was with the U.S. Indian Service for two and a half years. He only recently transferred to the Forest Service. Prior to his transfer, he was with the Klamath Indian agency.

Foster was accompanied here by his wife and their small daughter, Kathryn Joyce. They make their home at 458 Heyburn.

OFFERED TO STATE

SALEM (UP)—A strip of land near Champeog park was offered to the State Highway Department by Marion county today for park purposes. The land is located along the Willamette river downstream from the park.

If approval is given about half of the 69 acres owned by the county would be given to the state. The county said it lacks funds to develop the site as a park.

Bail Forfeited In City Court

Harry Sjersaa, of 444 S. Third street, forfeited bail of $10 in Municipal court Wednesday on the charge of parking his car within a block of a fire.

Sjersaa informed Police Chief Truett that his car could not have delayed firemen as he parked it after the fire truck was in use.

The police report on Sjersaa's arrest stated that a number of drivers had hampered firemen. In this observation it did not mention Sjersaa specifically.

William I. Palmer forfeited $5 on the charge of driving a car bearing expired license plates. Clarence H. Phoenix forfeited $20 on the charge of intoxication.

Ed Laite paid costs of $2.50 for permitting his dog to run at large. A fine was suspended.

John W. Scott forfeited $5 on a charge of illegal muffler use in driving.

School Plans Closing Program

The summer vacation Bible school at First Presbyterian Church will hold its closing program Friday at 10:30 a.m., in the church sanctuary. Parents and friends of the students are invited to attend.

There will be a program by the kindergarten, primary and junior departments. Work of the junior high group will be on display.

After the program, refreshments will be served.
