NISWONGER & WINSLOW FUNERAL HOME

Every Need Anticipated...

Every Wish Observed

Since 1912 our services have been placed at the disposal of the people of Central Oregon. In that time the connection which has developed between the directors of this institution and the people they serve has become a very close one.

For 45 years ours has been a relationship based on personal understanding and fundamental human sympathy. It has been a relationship which the heads of the Niswonger & Winslow organization count among the major achievements in the practice of their profession.

Our modern funeral home attests to our sense of responsibility and our desire for progressiveness. This home was our realization of a sincere wish to serve unselfishly, dependably and systematically.

It is and will always be a concrete demonstration of the recognition of an obligation to society... a conception of duty willingly accepted for many years has characterized the relations of Niswonger and Winslow with those we serve.

Best wishes to the 38th Annual Deschutes
County Fair

G. W. WINSLOW

Every detail of a funeral service can be left in our hands with the comforting knowledge that all will be attended to with quiet competence and thoughtful understanding.

C. F. NISWONGER

The confidence of families who entrust funeral arrangements to us is honored in every detail of service, which anticipates every need, observes every wish.
