Publisher Hits Dictatorships

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) - Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz, the publisher of La Prensa, said Friday night that the surviving dictatorships tained by force and were a dis-grace to the interamerican sys-

Dr. Gainza Paz, one of the leaders in the successful struggle against the Peron dictatorship in Argentina, said in an address before the Good Neighbor Commission of Texas that "those in our continent, or outside of it, who accept dictatorial regimes are irreconciliable enemies of

"They oppose the fundamental principles capable of assuring the peace, progress and the unity of our peoples," he said.

America and oppression, Amer-ica and diespotism are absolutely antagonistic terms, he added.

Dr. Gainza Paz recalled that Oliver Wendell Holmes; commenting about the United States, said, "'Not by aggression, but by the naked fact of existence, we are an eternal danger and an unsleeping threat to every government that founds itself on anything but the will of the governed."
