Choir to offer program Sunday

The Central Oregon College Choir under the direction of Dallas Quick will present a concert of sacred music Sunday evening at 6:30 at the First Methodist Church.

The officers who have been elected to serve beginning July 1 in District 311 of Rotary International and their wives will be special guests.

Since there will be plenty of seating space available, the public is invited to attend this service. No offering will be taken during the evening.

Underground tests again set by U.S.

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—President Eisenhower today announced plans for the United States to resume underground nuclear tests by the end of this year as part of the "non-weapon development" of detection systems and peacetime uses of atomic energy.

Announcement of the plan to resume underground tests was made here where the Chief Executive is spending the weekend.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the resumption of tests, which have been suspended under a voluntary moratorium since October, 1958, would require additional funds for the Atomic Energy Commission which will be requested shortly by the president.

Hagerty would not estimate the magnitude of the upcoming tests.

Appointments set by Hatfield

SALEM (UPI)—Gov. Mark Hatfield Friday appointed Cecil Snyder of Molalla to the State Livestock Advisory Committee and named C. Alfred Boquist, Tillamook, to another term.

Snyder succeeds Dr. Kent Magruder of Clatskanie whose term expired.

Earl S. Mollard of Riddle was named to the governing board of the Department of Geology and Mineral Industries to succeed Lester B. Child, Grants Pass and Ben B. Smith, Redmond, was appointed to the Board of Livestock Auction Markets. He succeeds Bruce Brails, Corvallis, who resigned.

Newcombe lost indefinitely

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Don Newcombe counted on to be one of the big men in Cincinnati's pitching corps this year, has been lost to the Reds indefinitely due to an aggravated thigh injury.

The big right-hander was examined by team physician Dr. George Ballou Friday and ordered to layoff pitching until a treatment routine can be worked out.

Ballou said the former Dodger ace had "developed calcification" in a muscle injury sustained in spring training. Ballou said Newcombe's right thigh was badly bruised and extensive hemorrhaging occurred in the area.

Royal pair wind up visit in Oregon

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—King Mahendra and Queen Ratna of Nepal arrived here Friday from Eugene, Ore., and took an auto tour to see San Francisco's night life.

The royal couple went to Monterey, Calif., 110 miles south of here, where the king addressed a weekend conference of the Northern California World Affairs Council.

The king came here after a two-day tour of Oregon where he visited the University of Oregon at Eugene and talked with Nepalese students.

REMINDER ISSUED
SALEM (UPI)—The State Highway Department reminded Oregon residents today that the bulk of the state's parks will open May 14.

Four parks are already open for the season. They are Detroit Lake, Gehoco Lake, Cove Falls and Tumalo State Park.

Newlyweds at home in Bend after ceremony at Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ray Westlake, married April 23 in Salem, are at home in Bend. The bride, the former Judith Anne McClellan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McClellan of Salem. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westlake of Bend.

The ceremony took place at First Baptist Church in the capital city, with the Rev. Wayne Carr officiating. The chancel of the church was decorated with orchid stock and white chrysanthemums, flanked by candelabra decked with more of the flowers.

Unions charged with unfair labor practices

PORTLAND (UPI)—The publishers of the Oregon Journal and the Oregonian Friday charged five newspaper union groups with unfair labor practices in a complaint filed with the National Labor Relations Board.

The complaint alleged the five union groups supported an illegal strike against the two newspapers.

The papers said that generally the charges were based on a recent complaint filed against the Stereotypers Union by the NLRB. The Stereotypers called the strike Nov. 10. The NLRB said they did so for illegal reasons and in effect, the strike was illegal.

A hearing has been scheduled for June 1 on the NLRB complaint.

The five union groups charged were the Inter-Union Strike Committee, the International Typographers Union, the Portland Newspaper Guild, Portland Typographers Local 58 and Portland Mailers local 13.

Three of the groups were charged with having engaged in unfair labor practices by making illegal demands on the papers. They are the Typographical Local 58, Mailers 13 and the International Typographical Union.

The NLRB complaint on which the charges are based, said that all three of the principal demands of the striking Stereotypers Union, made last fall prior to the strike, are violations of federal law.

The demands centered on number of men working on a machine, substitutions and compulsory union membership of foremen.

Mother's Day program planned

The First Methodist Church will celebrate Mother's Day, tomorrow at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Corsages will be given to the eldest and youngest mothers present, the mother with the largest number of children (not necessarily all present), and the mother with the largest number of family members present, including children, grandchildren, and in-laws.

During the service, the adult choir will sing "Alleluia" under the direction of Dr. Willard Bleything. The junior choir will make its last appearance of the spring, singing "Hear My Prayer," under direction of Mrs. J. B. Hamilton.

The pastor, the Rev. James S. Thompson, will preach on the theme, "Is the Family Worth Saving."

BLACK CAT WORSHIP AS AGAINST WORSHIP IN CHURCH

Some of us worship black cats. We do not call it that, but in effect that is what it is. We retrace our steps or travel out of our way to avoid going along a path that has been crossed by a black cat. And why? Is it because we really believe that if the cat crosses our path that it will bring us "bad luck"? If so, that is worshipping the animal, for it is holding to a negative belief that has no value. It is a fear worship. Ridiculous? Yes, but nevertheless, one held by many of us of sound mind. Superstitious worship covers the wide field of rabbit's feet, walking under ladders and so on.

How much better it is to worship at a church of our careful choosing. To worship in church means to believe in the lasting value of the human spirit and to give thanks to the Creator of life for that belief. It means the seeking of wisdom that will strengthen belief. It will bring joy of living and fortitude in time of trouble. Surely that is of more lasting value than any kind of black cat worship can supply.
