

Hey, Hey! Phillies finally win

By United Press International
 Forget Maris and Mantle a minute, and meet baseball's real man of the hour — Johnny Buzhardt — a guy who finally halted one of the worst backslides since Napoleon's retreat.
 Buzhardt's credentials aren't especially impressive.
 He gets about $9,000 a year to pitch for the Philadelphia Phillies, he had an undistinguished 5-16 record last season and his current 4-13 mark doesn't scare the likes of Frank Robinson, Hank Aaron and Willie Mays.

But Buzhardt carved out a special place for himself in the hearts of all the Phillies when he ended the longest losing streak in modern major league history Sunday by beating the Milwaukee Braves, 7-4, in the nightcap of a doubleheader.
 The victory for the Phillies, who had lost the opener, 5-2, was their first following 23 consecutive defeats. They set the modern major league record after dropping 21 in a row and would have equalled the all-time mark established by Cleveland in 1899 had they lost the nightcap Sunday.

Gained Last Win
 The last previous time they beat a game was July 23, Buzhardt was the winner in that one, beating the San Francisco Giants, 4-3, with a five-hitter in the second game of a doubleheader.
 Elsewhere in the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals ended Cincinnati's six-game winning streak, 7-4, but the Reds remained three games in front when the Giants defeated the Dodgers, 11-8. The Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 1-0, in 11 innings.

 Roger Maris hit his 49th home run and Mickey Mantle his 46th in a 6-0 and 5-2 sweep over the Cleveland Indians that preserved the New York Yankees' three-game lead in the American League.

Tigers Take Two
 Detroit, doggedly trying to keep pace with the Yanks, swept two games from Boston, 6-1, and 7-6; Baltimore walloped Washington, 9-3, in the first of two scheduled games, the second being postponed because of rain; the Chicago White Sox took two from the Kansas City A's, 5-3, and 7-0, and the Minnesota Twins downed the Los Angeles Angels, 9-7.
 Ray Sadecki won his 11th for the Cardinals in an eight-hitter against the Reds.
 Felipe Alou drove in four runs for the Giants with a pair of homers that sent the Dodgers down to their seventh straight defeat, their longest losing streak in 13 years.
 Billy Williams' 11th inning single broke up a fine pitching duel between Don Cardwell and Bob Friend and provided the Cubs with their victory over the Pirates.
 Maris and Mantle, each homered in the Yankees-Indians' opener as Ralph Terry brought his record to 10-1. Bill Skowron hit a two-run homer off Gary Bell in the nightcap to help rookie Roland Sheldon gain his ninth victory.

Stars really shine in Shrine contest

PORTLAND (UPI) — The 14th annual Shriners Hospital All-Star football game played here Saturday night will go down in history as a game that had a little bit of everything.
 The State and Metro All-Stars battled to a 19-19 tie before 18,168 fans in a contest that featured standout line play, strong backfield running, pinpoint passing and rugged defensive play.
 State guard Al Funston, Medford, proved that line play was excellent when he was voted the game's most valuable player over backfield men from both clubs. He became the first lineman since 1950 to receive the Most Valuable Player trophy.
 The game featured great backfield running as proven by the State's Chuck Miller and Phil Humphreys and Dick Ragsdale and the Metro's Andy Berkis, Terry DeSylvia and Ron Martin.
 Miller and Humphreys, a pair of week-long backs, rolled up a total of 274 yards. Miller, a graduate of Lebanon High School, carried the ball 24 times for 148 yards and tallied three touchdowns on runs of 12, 4 and 2 yards.
 Humphreys, a ground-gaining fullback from Medford, gained 126 yards on 23 carries and set up State's first touchdown in the second quarter when he returned a Metro kickoff 44 yards.
 Martin made a sliding catch to put the Metro club into a 7-0 lead.

Haase, from Reynolds, was on the receiving end of a 45-yard aerial from DeSylvia midway in the fourth quarter that resulted in the 19-19 deadlock.
 State rolled up 315 yards rushing to 245 for Metro while the Metro club gained 102 yards through the air to 52 for the Staters.
 The tie leaves the 14-game series at six games apiece for both clubs with two games ending in ties.
 Metro opened the scoring in the second quarter when DeSylvia and Martin teamed up on a 3-yard pass, which Martin caught sliding on his stomach. Immediately after the State kickoff, Humphreys picked up the State on the six yard line and scampered 44 yards to the 50.
 From midfield, the Staters marched 30 yards in seven plays with Miller gaining 40 yards on four carries. Miller scored from the 12-yard line. The kick failed and Metro held a 7-6 halftime advantage.

Other outstanding players named after the game were Hoyt Keeney, David Douglas, named the standout Metro lineman; Gary Hancock, Klamath Falls; outstanding state lineman; Miller, the most valuable State back and Martin, the outstanding State back.
 Scoring:
 State 6-6-6-7-19
 Metro 0-7-0-12-19
 Metro — 3 pass from DeSylvia (DeSylvia kick failed).
 State — Miller 12 run (kick failed).
 State — Miller 4 run (kick failed).
 Metro — Berkis 24 run (kick failed).
 State — Miller 2 run (Mickle kick).
 Metro — Haase 45 pass from DeSylvia (kick failed).

49ers lose 27-24 in last 7 seconds

MORAGA, Calif. (UPI) — The San Francisco 49ers, still searching for their first win of the exhibition season, set aside their flashy shotgun offense today and buckled down to football's basic fundamentals.
 "We need a lot of hitting practice," coach Redickey said Sunday following his club's 27-24 loss to the Cleveland Browns in the final seven seconds at San Francisco.
 The loss was another toughie for the Forty Niners, who have been edged in both their preseason tilts by a total of four points.

Starting his 10th National Football League season, caught a 27-yard touchdown pass from Milt Plum with seven seconds left in the game to even the Browns' practice record at 1-1.
T' vs. 'Shotgun'
 Plum, guiding a traditional tight T-formation against San Francisco's "shotgun" spread, drove the Browns 73 yards in the final minute and a half. The payoff toss hit Renfro on the one-yard line, and the veteran stepped over for the score.
 Most of the 38,759 fans present thought the Forty Niners had wrapped up the contest midway in the final period when line-backer Matt Hazeltine gobbled up a toss from Plum and ran the interception back 32 yards to give San Francisco a 24-17 lead.
 But then Lou "the toe" Groza, another ageless Cleveland stand-by, booted his second field goal of the game from the 12 yard line to close the gap.
 Cleveland started out in the first half as if it were going to run away with Kezar Stadium. Plum hit Bob Mitchell on a three-yard scoring play. Then Halfback Jim Brown ripped through the San Francisco defense for eight yards and another tally early in the second period.
Brodie Scores
 But quarterback John Brodie got San Francisco in the scoring column by sneaking over from the two. Then his passing sparked the Forty Niners on another march, which was capped by rookie fullback J. W. Lockett's one-yard plunge.
 Groza's first field goal, from the 24, gave the Browns a 17-14 halftime lead.
 But Monty Stickles matched Groza's boot with a nine-yard field goal in the third quarter to tie the score. And that set the stage for Hazeltine's interception in the fourth quarter.

Jones, Von Clay heavyweights

NEW YORK (UPI) — Light heavyweight contenders Doug Jones of New York and Von Clay of Philadelphia will climb up into the heavyweight division Saturday night for their third fight.
 Jones, ranked second among 175-pound contenders, has won two split decisions over Clay at St. Nicholas Arena. Clay is rated fifth among light-heavy aspirants.
 They are fighting as heavyweights this time because Jones, who weighed 183 for his last bout when he knocked out Peter Rademacher, has difficulty now paring down to the 175-pound limit; and he doesn't want to do it unless he is getting a title shot at either of the 175-pound co-champions—Archie Moore and Harold Johnson.
 The week's boxing schedule includes:
 Monday — San Francisco—Kirk Barrow vs. Roger Rischer.
 Tuesday — Fresno, Calif.—Tombstone Smith vs. Wayne Thornton. Juarez, Mex.—Joe Medel vs. Mundo Esparr. Houston, Tex.—Tod Herring vs. Tony Alonzi.
 Wednesday—Long Beach, Calif. Eddie Alvarado vs. Pajaro Gonzalez.
 Thursday—Boston — Bob Fossire vs. Jimmy Dorsey.
 Friday — Nothing scheduled.
 Saturday—New York (Garden) — Doug Jones vs. Von Clay (TV).

 The Dutch squad won the meet 80-72. It was the first of a series of European dual meets for the U.S. team.
 Miss Wood's time was one minute, 10.5 seconds. She also swam a leg on the U.S.'s winning 400-meter relay team. The relay team's time was 4:17.1.

Hunt tops field

RAMSTEIN, Germany (UPI) — Bernard Hunt of England fired a 64 Sunday to win the Woodlawn Open golf tournament with a 72-hole total of 364 — three strokes better than runner-up Eric Brown of Scotland.

Porto Recanati, Italy

PORTO RECANATI, Italy, (UPI) — The scheduled junior waterweight world title fight between champion Duilio Loi of Italy and Eddie Poekins of Chicago was postponed from Sept. 7 until sometime in October. Loi said an elbow injury forced him to delay the fight.

'M-Squad' ends drought

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Roger Maris smashed his 49th home run Sunday and Mickey Mantle his 46th, both breaking out of "droughts" to help the New York Yankees sweep a doubleheader against the Cleveland Indians, 6-0 and 5-2.
 Each connected during the opener of the twin-bill off right-hander Jim Perry.
 Mantle, who hadn't hit a home run in the Yankees' five previous games, socked his 46th with two men on base in the first inning.
 Maris, who hit both his 47th and 48th homers on Aug. 16 and failed to add to that total in the Yankees' next three games, blasted his 49th with one on in the third inning.
 Sunday's homer, Maris' 12th game, put Maris 12 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace but he failed to hit safely in the nightcap, and so is only 11 games ahead of Ruth's pace.
 Mantle, who had a single in two trips during the second game, is nine games ahead of Ruth's pace.
 Here's how the two Yankee sluggers stand with Ruth's record pace:

	Homer Games	Ahead
Maris	49	123
Mantle	46	123
Ruth	49	134

Rams tie Giants with late rally

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Rams, thanks to two straight weekends of coming alive in the second half but no thanks to their offensive lines, are undefeated today as preparations begin for the Cleveland Browns game next Friday night.
 Coach Bob Waterfield's pupils came on in the closing minutes Saturday night to tie the New York Giants, 17-17. In the fourth quarter, Clemond Thomas raced 74 yards with a Giant punt for one touchdown and quarterback Zeke Bratkowski scored with 28 seconds left for the tying touchdown.
 The final score was largely due to a second-string halfback Dick Bass, who made four nice gains in the final drive. Jon Arnett, who played most of the rather dull evening at half, averaged 6.15 yards a carry, despite only occasional help from the offensive wall.
 Giant veteran Chuck Connerly tossed one New York touchdown pass and sub Lee Grosscup the other, but Joe Morrison caught them both. A field goal, from 42 yards out by Pat Summerall, and two extra points supplied the rest of the Giant points.

Brewer wins Carling Open

SILVER SPRING, Md. (UPI) — It took Gay Brewer Jr. five years on the pro golf circuit before he won his first major tournament, and he had to scramble plenty to get it.
 The 29-year-old Brewer shot a final-round three-under-par 67 Sunday on a rain-soaked course to win the $5,300 first prize in the Carling Open tournament. Brewer's 72-hole total was 277, three under par.
 Brewer beat Billy Maxwell of Dallas by one stroke, Maxwell, winner of last week's Insurance City Open, might have tied by sinking a 35-foot putt on the final hole, but his effort stopped one foot short.
 Bill Casper Jr., of Apple Valley, Calif., who led after the third round, soared to a 73 Sunday and wound up in a three-way tie at 279 with Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass. Harney shot a fourth-round 71.

PLEASE DON'T BUY A $10 TIRE

Many tires are being advertised today for pennies above or below $10. This figures out to less than 50-cents a pound... which is about what you have to pay for hamburger.

We urge you to think about this comparison when you have to buy new tires for your car. You expect them to perform for many thousands of miles. And of course you expect them to protect you and your family all the way.

Expensive materials of many kinds go into a safe tire. Skilled man-hours are needed to build them.

How do you do all this on a tire priced down with hamburger?

You take it out of the tire. Most people who buy $10.00 tires "don't expect too much"—but how do you know what emergency to expect when you are driving on them?

All the reputable manufacturers offer brands of quality that you can buy with confidence. We urge you to buy ours (or theirs), but not to buy one for $10.

We will be glad to show you the difference. If you are interested, we will show you how a payment of $10 will put you on a set of four strong, safe Generals, with terms to suit your convenience.
