

Panthers bounce back to scuttle Hermiston

Special to The Bulletin

REDMOND — The Panthers of Redmond, a team which dented Pendleton's armor with six points last weekend while losing 20 to 6 to that all-powerful team, bounced back here last night in an intermountain contest.

The Bulldogs from Hermiston, in an effort to score, shot a pass in the final 30 seconds of play that was good for 50 yards, but failed to net a TD.

Both of Redmond's scores were made on short line plunges, following big gains in midfield. Brian Massey scored first for the Panthers in the first quarter. The conversion point failed.

The first half ended with Redmond leading 6 to 0. That was also the score at the end of the third period. In the fourth quarter, near the end of the game, Wayne McBride went over from the one-yard line for the final Redmond score, following a long drive. John Holmes kicked the extra point.

Weakening the Redmond attack was the loss of Denny VanMatre, quarterback, who was injured in the opening quarter and saw no further action in the contest.

Hermiston never got into serious scoring position, despite the fine work of Jim Bonney, halfback. Hermiston stuck to the ground in its plays. Don Charlton of Redmond completed four out of 10 pass tries.

Redmond rolled up a total of 250 yards and Hermiston was content with 148. Coach Gale Davis' gridmen entertain Prineville here next weekend. Period scores of last night's game:

Redmond 6 0 0 7-13
Hermiston 0 0 0 0-0

Medford, which only last week suffered its first loss in 31 regular season games, bowed for the second straight time. The Black Tornado suffered a 13-0 setback at the hands of Arcata, Calif.

Benson, Klamath Falls, Jefferson, Grants Pass and North Bend, rated fourth, seventh, ninth and 10th in the poll, all posted important victories.

Benson, Klamath Falls, Jefferson, Grants Pass and North Bend, rated fourth, seventh, ninth and 10th in the poll, all posted important victories. Portland Interscholastic League play by following Franklin 21-6; Klamath Falls posted a 20-13 non-conference victory over Springfield; Jefferson stayed on the heels of Benson and dealt Wilson's title hopes a severe blow with a 12-6 win; Grants Pass rolled over Crater 34-7 and North Bend topped South Eugene 19-14.

Top-rated Beaverton and two other members of the top 10, fifth-ranked Pendleton and North Salem, rated number five, were idle. Beaverton meets Centennial and Pendleton traveled to Bend for today's action.

Other top A-1 games Friday night saw: Grant shut out Lincoln 14-0; Jesuit whitewash Wy'east 19-0; Newberg down Tigard 14-0; Milwaukie trounce Astoria 33-0; Sunset defeat Central Catholic 28-0; South Salem gain a 21-6 victory over Lebanon and Corvallis edge Sweet Home 19-13.

Special to The Bulletin

SISTERS — Sisters High football team retained its undefeated status by drubbing Arlington 47-13, Friday night on the Arlington field.

A. J. Demaris led the scoring parade for Sisters with four of the seven touchdowns and one conversion point. Touchdowns were also made by Bob Hewitt, Garry Tewart and Ralph Shaw.

Scoring by quarters, for Sisters, was as follows: First quarter — A. J. Demaris 6, Ralph Shaw 1; Bob Hewitt 6, Garry Tewart 1.

Second quarter — A. J. Demaris 12; Bob Hewitt 1.

Third quarter — A. J. Demaris 7; Garry Tewart 6, Ronnie Winkle 1.

Fourth quarter — Ralph Shaw 6.

Arlington made touchdowns in the first and fourth quarters, failing for the conversion point the second time.

Sisters coach Gene McDonald said the win puts Sisters in good shape to meet Culver, undefeated in league play, next Saturday. That game will be at 3 p.m. at Sisters. The winner will play in the district championship semifinals.

Washington State opened the scoring with a touchdown in the first period but the Ducklings tallied single touchdowns in the second and third periods to go ahead.

Mike Brundage led the Oregon offense by completing 11 of 25 passes.

It was the opening contest for both Washington State and the Ducklings.

The Couababes gained the tie when Clarence Williams scooted into the Oregon end zone from five yards out and Dale Ford hit Howard Dowdell with a pass for a two-point conversion.

Washington State opened the scoring with a touchdown in the first period but the Ducklings tallied single touchdowns in the second and third periods to go ahead.

Mike Brundage led the Oregon offense by completing 11 of 25 passes.

HUNTERS READY—Bend waterfowl hunters are taking to the field today as the season opens. Local hunters demonstrating how they plan to knock down the first duck or goose that presents itself are, from left to right, Oral Davis, Joe Van Wormer, and Jerry Hooke. The dog's name is Dan.

Friday's prep grid scores

- Friday Prep Football Scores
- Jefferson 12 Wilson 6
 - Grant 14 Lincoln 0
 - Benson 21 Franklin 6
 - Dallas 45 Lake Oswego 0
 - Washington 20 Roosevelt 0
 - Sunset 28 Central Catholic 0
 - Milwaukie 33 Astoria 0
 - Hillsboro 0 Clackamas 0
 - David Douglas 18 Graham 14
 - Tillamook 32 Forest Grove 0
 - Newberg 14 Tigard 0
 - McMinnville 45 St. Helens 19
 - Dallas 45 Lake Oswego 0
 - West Linn 20 Oregon City 0
 - Jesuit 10 Wy'east 0
 - Reynolds 26 Parkrose 2
 - Silverton 13 Scappoose 13
 - Sandy 27 Molalla 12
 - North Bend 19 South Eugene 14
 - Thurston 33 North Eugene 25
 - Roseburg 13 Marshfield 7
 - Klamath Falls 20 Springfield 13
 - Corvallis 19 Sweet Home 13
 - South Salem 21 Lebanon 6
 - North Catholic 26 Hood River 13
 - Arcata, Calif. 13 Medford 0
 - Redmond 13 Hermiston 0
 - Grants Pass 34 Crater 7
 - Prineville 27 La Grande 6
 - Baker 9 The Dalles 7
 - Woodburn 14 Scio 0
 - North Marion 30 Gervais 0
 - Sisters 47 Arlington 13
 - Culver 71 Cascade Locks 9
 - Mt. Angel 15 Cascade 0
 - Monroe 41 Lowell 0
 - Coburg 15 Harrisburg 6
 - Triangle Lake 47 Westfir 20
 - Nyssa 53 Enterprise 0
 - Newport 27 Mapleton 6
 - Oakridge 25 Junction City 19
 - Drain 33 Pleasant Hill 0
 - Condon 40 Grant Union 0
 - Coquille 39 Gold Beach 0
 - Phoenix 49 Henley 7
 - Rainier 40 Neahkahnie 9
 - Tillamook Catholic 12 Corbett 6
 - Vernonia 12 Estacada 6
 - Siuslaw 18 Waldport 13
 - Illinois Valley 7 Rogue River 6
 - Sheridan 45 Salem Academy 18
 - Sutherland 7 Glendale 0
 - Yamhill 14 Dayton 0
 - MacLaren 18 Colton 6
 - Jefferson 33 Santiam 18
 - Falls City 44 Perrydale 16
 - Toledo 24 Taft 12
 - Riddle 54 Powers 0
 - Madras 13 Sherman 6
 - Brookings 19 Pacific 6
 - Canby 19 Serra Catholic 6
 - Philomath 14 Nestucca 0
 - Ontario 20 Emmett, Idaho 0
 - Seaside 46 Banks 0
 - Central 34 Stayton 7
 - Central Linn 13 Crow 7
 - Camas Valley 51 Canyonville 6
 - Myrtle Point 27 Bandon 7

Bulletin Sports

Cowboys romp over La Grande team 27-6

Special to The Bulletin

PRINEVILLE — Prineville's high-riding Cowboys roped La Grande 27 to 6 here Friday night in an intermountain circuit game marked by a number of long Cowboy runs and some dead-eye passing.

The Cowboys field a scant 7-6 halftime lead but added 13 points in the third quarter and seven more in the final seconds of the last quarter.

It was Prineville's second consecutive win in league play. Last

Navy rallies for victory over Detroit

By Gary Kals

Navy detailed Detroit's chances for national collegiate football ranking, but there still are some Middles wondering today how they managed to escape the effects of Jerry Gross' passing wizardry.

Gross tossed three touchdown passes Friday night and had Detroit in front until quarterback Ron Klemick led a Navy rally in the final period for a 37-19 victory.

In the only other major game played, halfback Dick Drummond ran for four touchdowns and Tony Fredricone raced 102 yards with an intercepted pass to give George Washington a 49-12 triumph over William and Mary.

Gross' sensational performance of more than 300 yards picked up through passing brought his total offense yardage over the 1,000 yard mark for four games. His aerial tallies were all to end Larry Vargo and covered distances of 6, 10 and 28 yards. Gross' first TD climaxed a drive in which he completed eight straight passes for 74 yards.

Fourth Straight Victory

Navy, winning its fourth straight after an opening game defeat to Penn State, trailed 19-16 at the end of the third period.

The Annapolis men had picked up their tallies on John Sai's 74 yard run and Greg Mather's new Navy record of three field goals in one game. They travelled 35, 31 and 33 yards.

Perkins to meet Italian tonight

MILAN, Italy (UPI) — Eddie Perkins of Chicago is banking on a nine-year edge in age to overcome the experience and punch of Italy's Duilio Loi tonight in their world junior welterweight title bout.

Loi, who has been outpointed twice in more than 120 bouts while Perkins has won only 25 pro fights and lost eight, is a 3-4 favorite. A capacity crowd of 17,000 is forecast for the bout at the Milan Sports Palace.

BOWLING

Before 7:00 P.M. 35¢
Week Days
Sat., Sun.,
Holidays & Evenings 40¢

Now Open Bowling At
Cascade Bowl
Phone EV 2-1392 For Reservations—744 Bend

2 TD's in last four minutes give Frosh win

Bend's never-say-die freshman grid team scored twice in the final four minutes of play Thursday to defeat Madras 21-20.

The two teams were tied at halftime, 7-7, but Madras went far ahead in the third period when the White Buffaloes scored on a long drive and a pass following a bend fumble. At this juncture, the score was 20-7.

Craig Usher and Bob Cannon took charge late in the fourth period and led the Bend club to victory.

Usher raced 30 yards to the Bend 45 yard line. Then Cannon blasted off tackle and went 53 yards for the second Bend score, making it 20-14.

With only two minutes remaining, Madras failed to advance on the kickoff and punted to the Bend 23. The speedy Cannon took a reverse and raced 75 yards for the tying score. Usher added the extra point and a 21-20 Bend margin.

The Bend frosh play Redmond next week at Redmond.

Chicken To Go
1-51.00 2-51.80 3-52.70
SKYLINE
STEAK HOUSE

Golf pace set by Suggs, Rawls

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Louise Suggs, aiming to equal Betsy Rawls' lifetime record of 48 tourney victories, and Ruth Jessen, an up-and-coming professional, headed into the second round of the $7,500 San Antonio Civitan Open golf tournament today tied with 69—two under par.

A balky putter and a record-breaking nine hole round of 31 by Miss Jessen kept Miss Suggs of Austelle, Ga., from owning the lead by herself Friday.

Miss Suggs, the defending tourney champion, three-putted the 16th hole for a bogey. The blonde Miss Jessen, who ranks sixth in LPGA money winnings, fired a 31 over the final nine holes after an opening nine of 38. The 31 was the finest score by a woman in Brackenridge's tournament history.

U.S. RING DEBUT
NEW YORK (UPI)—Farid Salim, middleweight champion of Argentina, will make his United States ring debut on Oct. 28 when he meets Teddy Wright of Detroit in the feature 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden. Farid has lost only one of 34 professional bouts.

Under the unique arrangement, fans in theaters and other locations will watch Liston meet Albert Westphal of West Germany in Convention Hall here and see Patterson face Tom McNeely for the heavyweight crown at Toronto on Dec. 4 for one admission.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Under the unique arrangement, fans in theaters and other locations will watch Liston meet Albert Westphal of West Germany in Convention Hall here and see Patterson face Tom McNeely for the heavyweight crown at Toronto on Dec. 4 for one admission.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Breakfast meet set by B.A.A.

Members of the Bend Athletic Assn. will hold a breakfast meeting Monday at 7 a.m. at the Superior Cafe.

Films of an early Bend football game will be shown and coaches will discuss the Bend - Pendleton game played here Saturday.

Reinstatement due for Liston

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Heavyweight boxer Charles (Sonny) Liston will be reinstated by the National Boxing Association "very shortly," but his restoration as the number one contender will have to be re-earned.

NBA President Charles Larson said in Tacoma, Wash., Friday that his organization would undoubtedly reinstate Liston in the wake of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission's lifting of its suspension against him.

But he said the reinstatement, when it comes, will not restore Liston as the top contender for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight crown.

"We will insist that he has at least one fight with a top person before he gets his rating back," Larson said.

The reinstatement by the NBA and the Pennsylvania Commission cleared the way for the first closed-circuit TV doubleheader in boxing history.

Under the unique arrangement, fans in theaters and other locations will watch Liston meet Albert Westphal of West Germany in Convention Hall here and see Patterson face Tom McNeely for the heavyweight crown at Toronto on Dec. 4 for one admission.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Liston was suspended by the Pennsylvania Commission three months ago following two brushes with the law. In lifting the suspension Friday, Commissioner Albert M. Klein cited Liston's good behavior and his "substantial loss of money" during his enforced idleness. He said the commission did not want to deny Liston "an opportunity for professional and personal advancement" from the twin-bill program.

Madras Buffaloes win sub-district title with 31-6 win over Moro

Special to The Bulletin

MADRAS — Coach Frank Good's Madras White Buffaloes won the western sub-district title in the Greater Oregon League here last night with an impressive 31-6 victory over Sherman County High of Moro.

It was Madras' fifth straight victory and sends the Buffs into a playoff Saturday, November 4, with Vale for the district title. The two clubs will clash at Madras. Vale won the eastern sub-district title.

Sherman made things look dim for Madras in the early going, scoring a touchdown after recovering a Buff fumble to go ahead 6-0. After the first quarter however, it was all Madras.

The Buffs scored three times on touchdowns by fullback Ellison David, halfback Henry Palmer and end Kent Cochrane to go ahead 18-6 at halftime. Palmer and Ken Pfifer scored in the second half to give Madras its final margin.

"This was the best game we've played since our first clash of the season against Bend," Good said.

Madras will step out of league competition next Friday for a clash at Madras with Maupin. The game will start at 8 p.m. Good said a time will be set for the November 4 clash with Vale and announced next week.

Rosburg fires 68 on Friday

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI)—Bob Rosburg of Portland shot a 68 for a 139 after two rounds in the Orange Country Club golf tournament here Friday.

Rosburg was three strokes back of the tourney's leader, Buddy Sullivan of Yuba City, Calif.

COMPETE IN REGATTA

KINGS POINT, N.Y. (UPI) — Thirteen colleges compete in the 11th annual New York State Invitation Regatta today and Sunday with the winner receiving the Nevins Trophy, named in memory of Henry Nevins, noted American designer.

Teams competing include Columbia, Fordham, Princeton, R.P.L., Georgetown, Villanova, Navy, Webb, Rutgers, Tufts, Boston College, Wayne State University and Kings Point.

25% OFF
ON FAMOUS BRAND 1961

- GOLF CLUBS
- GOLF BAG
- GOLF SHOES

Men's and Women
SPAULDING & HOGAN CLUBS

HOGAN GOLF SHOES
CART-MATE BAGS

BEND GOLF CLUB
Phone EV 2-3261

NO MATTER HOW YOU FIGURE IT.....

You can make a definite savings up to.....

20%

DWELLING	HOUSEHOLD CONTENTS	GLASS
PERSONAL LIABILITY	CREDIT CARD	THEFT
MEDICAL PAYMENTS	AUTO	CREDIT FOR EXISTING INSURANCE

ONE POLICY

ONE PREMIUM

With An
OREGON MUTUAL
INSURANCE CO.
HOME OWNERS POLICY
GORDON RANDALL
1036 Wall AGENCY Bend, Oregon
PIERCE & RANDALL — REDMOND

Now Thru Sunday
Continuous From 1:00 P.M.
Sunday!

TOWER
1835 WALL EV 2-3827

JOSHUA LOGAN PRODUCTION

Fanny
was eighteen and French... a most intriguing combination.

ALICE CARON • MAURICE CHEVALIER • CHARLES BOYER • HOBBS BUCHHOLZ

Produced by JOSHUA LOGAN • TECHNICOLOR • A WARNER BROS. PRESENTATION

ALSO: "WINTER WONDERS"