Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald O. Burger, servation Service office at Red Memorial Hospital. The baby weighed 8 pounds, 13 ounces. A name has not yet been selected. First Methodist Church has announced that transportation will be available Sunday for friends and members needing it because of the snow. They are asked to call the church, EV 2-1672 Sunday morning, or if it is anticipated Saturday to call the parsonage,

Work unit conservationist Theo-

Local extension unit meets

Special to The Bulletin

ALFALFA - Judicious use of color in accessories and make-up themed the program for the Alday evening. Mrs. John Grover hostess at her trailer home Mrs. Grover and Mrs. Lynn Hyder were project leaders. They showed how accessories can make" the costume, and how they can be used with more than one outfit. Dressing to empha-size good points in face and figure and minimize defects was also emphasized, as well as selecting clothing and accessories to com-pliment the personality.

Mrs. Theola Ewing, a guest, gave a demonstration on the use of cosmetics to give flattering color emphasis, and gave pointers for hair styling and tinting. She attended a Color Make-Up meeting January 15-16 in Portland.

Announcement was made of a series of upholstery training meetings to be held in Bend. Information about dates and place may be obtained from Mrs. John Parton Alfalfa unit chairman.

"Civil Defense" will be the topic for the meeting February 21 at the home of Mrs. Hollie Webb.

Redmond court fines assessed

Special to The Bulletin

REDMOND - Eldon T. McMul len, Prineville, arrested for driv ing while his license was suspended, was fined $100 this week in justice court and handed a twoday suspended jail sentence. He also was placed on probation for Overloads brought fines of $26.50 to Henry J. Thompson, Portland, and $36.50 to Vern C. Tunison, Jr.,

William H. Wilson, Roseburg. was fined $15 for passing with in-sufficient clearance. Basic rule violators paid as follows: Vicki L. Morely, Corvallis, $25; John C. Robbins, Woodburn, $20; Malcolm P. Moss, Richland, Wash., $25 bail; Charles Long, Walla Walla, Wash., $25; Bruce L. Deardorff, Molalla, $15. William F. Christopherson of Powell Butte paid $15 for making an improper turn. A fine of $10 was handed to Ronald L. Wimber, Naches, Wash., for an inadequate muffler. Having no muffler brought a $10 fine to Joseph E. Hammer, Redmond. James L. Bussett of Powell Butte also paid $10 for having no muffler.

Deadline noted on registration required under provisions of the 1932 Immigration and Nationality

Aliens who have not yet filed their address reports should do so before the deadline to avoid possible penalties, Postmaster Farley

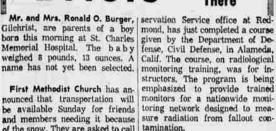

Elliott reminded.

The law requires that every alien except those having diplo-matic status, representatives of certain international organizations and persons admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers must file the address report during January each year at the nearest post ization service office.

A total of 19,049 aliens filed address reports in Oregon last year, according to Afired J. Urbano. district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Reports for 1962 are expected to office or immigration and natural-

Here and

Unitarian Fellowship of Central Oregon will meet at the B C Cafe annex 8 p.m. Sunday.

Bend Study Club will meet for luncheon Monday at 1:15 p.m. at the Pine Tavern, with the program to follow at the home of Mrs. Loyde Blakley, 343 Drake Road.

Blender Benders 4-H Club organized Thursday at the home of the leader, Mrs. Fred Iseli, 1134 E. Eleventh Street, Officers were elected as follows: Alison Foley, president; Susan Arney, vice-pres ident; Kathy Devereaux, secretary - treasurer; Linda Andrew news reporter; Kirsten Iseli, song leader, and Ann Bristol, game leader, Miss Janet Baker, 4-H extension agent, was a visitor.

Mrs. Ted Creighton, 1239 West Hills, will be hostess to the international relations study group of the Bend branch. American Association of University Women Tuesday, January 23, at 1 p.m. Miss Ivy Grover will lead a discussion on United States foreign policy toward the Arab nations interested in attending are advised to travel north on Fifth Street to Trenton, to West Twelfth and north to West Hills.

Circle 1 members, Catholic Altar Society, will meet Tuesday, January 23, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Katherine Duffy, 902 Broadway Avenue.

Man facing arson charge

SALEM (UPI) - A 30-year-old part-time handyman was arrested and charged with starting last week's $100,000 fire at the Salem YMCA here Friday.

Taken into custody on a charge of first degree arson was Stanley Phil Yocum of Salem. Police said ne was a former mental patient. Yocum, who had been employed on a part-time basis at the YMCA ast October, admitted starting the blaze, police said. Yocum told police he had been using matches in a search for magazines in the closet in which the fire started. Police said they would try to place Yocum in the State Hospital at Salem for ob-The fire, which started in an area used as a nursery, damaged the top two floors and the attic of the older section of the threestory building.

Yocum lived at the YMCA and formerly was employed as a can nery worker.

Moon shot may be on again

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)schedule for next week, but it scientific longshot.

After first calling off the Wednesday, January 31, is the deadline for aliens to register as required under provisions of the chance to rocket a country of the chance to launching, indefinitely, scientists ing Ranger-3 capsule to the moon next Friday or Saturday.

But the chances that it would come off next week were described alternately by scientists as "slim" and "remote" and "not very optimistic."

Original plans to fire the 727pound Ranger-3 Spacecraft 240,000 miles across space Monday were blocked Friday by rocket troubles that were described as "pretty serious."

VAGRANTS ARRESTED

Three men were arrested by City Police and charged with vagrancy Friday night.
They were Robert T. Scott of San Jose, and Wesley M. Cormier and Floyd Smith, both of Port-

Bail was set at 22.50 apiece for

If you purchased a Kirby Vacuum Cleaner on or before 1955, call the local Kirby Office about factory replacement. This offer is limited . . . call now!

EV 2-3364 431 South 3rd St.

MRS. CHARLES WACKER

Class planned in citizenship

A new offering at Central Ore-gon College this term will be a class for persons preparing to take U.S. citizenship examinations. An organization meeting will be held Tuesday, January 23, in Room 204 of Bend Junior High School, to determine if there is sufficient in-

Mrs. Charles Wacker will be the instructor for the class. It will meet one evening weekly for 16 weeks. The group will decide on the most satisfactory meeting

The tuition will be $10, and a reference booklet will be furnish-Since the class can be offered only if there is sufficient enrollment, persons interested are urg-ed to be present at the organization meeting. Edwards fine is suspended A fine against Ralph LeRoy Ed-wards, 1131 East Greenwood, charged January 18 with driving on the wrong side of the street. was suspended in municipal court Friday. Edwards paid $2.50 costs. In other court cases, Gloria Ann Moon, 841 Cleveland, forfeited $10 on a charge of disobeying a stop sign; Rolly Howard Goodsell, Route 2, forfeited $7.50 on a charge of making an illegal turn; and Darwin D. Fissel, 883 Hayes Avenue, forfeited $7.50 for driv-ing with an expired license plate.

Engagement news is announced

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carter, 1929 W. Sixth Street, announce the engagment of their daughter, Don-na Charlene Baker, to Richard W. Garner, 1407 E. Tenth Street.

Miss Baker attended The Dalles High School, and is a student at Central Oregon Beauty College, Garner, who attends Central Oregon College and is employed as a carpenter, is a graduate of Burns Union High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Garner of Hines, His father is district manager of the Oregon-Washington Telephone Co.

The wedding is planned for Feb.

9, at the Carter home. Students hear about insurance

The Central Oregon Underwriters Association recently presented a four-part class series on life in-surance to social studies classes at Bend High School. In the next few weeks similar An "off-again on-again" U.S. shot at the moon is back on the firing Redmond, Prineville, Madras and

The course covers various types of life insurance and its place in the American economy. The program consists of two film strips. class discussion and a test on the material covered.

AUTHORITY GIVEN

SALEM (UPD- Jonel C. Hill. public utility commissioner. Thursday authorized three firms to withdraw their from Echo in Umatilla County They are Union Pacific Railroad. Union Pacific Motor Freight and Railroad Express Agency.

In and Out of hospitals Central Oregon

BEND Janet Barackman, 5, daughter of Mrs. Jean Barackman, 44 Park Place, underwent a tonsillectomy this morning at St. Charles Me-morial Hospital. Other new patients at the hospital are Felix Aschenbrenner, Madras, and Jaenice Kofford, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kofford, Route 1, Bend.

Dismissed were Melvin Tang ney, Prineville; Mrs. William Hinks, Burns, and Mrs. Bery Perry. Rodney Luderman and Mrs. William Sanowski, all Bend

Officers named by Cow Belles

New officers of the Deschutes County Cow Belles assumed their duties at the first meeting of the new year, Thursday in Redmond. This was a luncheon at the 86 Corral Club.

Mrs. R. L. Lewis, Redmond, is the new president. Other new officers are Mrs. Armand Karrer, Bend, first vice-president; Mrs. Paul Muller, Bend, and Mrs. Buster Simpson, Terrebonne, second vice-presidents, and Mrs. Neva McCaffery, Powell Butte, secretary - treasurer. Also on the executive board are Mrs. Jordan Simmons, Prineville, past presi-dent, and Mrs. Bill Simmons, Redmond, past secretary - treasurer Four new members were welcomed, bringing the membership to 59. They are Mrs. R. A. Norberg, Powell Eutte; Mrs. Andrew Beardsley and Mrs. Leslie Aldous Terrebonne, and Mrs. Howard Buller, Bend. Twenty-five were present, including two guests, Mrs. Robert Hagerty and Miss

Diane Jennings, both of Tumalo.
New chairmen for 1962 were announced as follows: Mrs. Karrer, membership; Mrs. Simpson, beet promotion; Mrs. Priday Holmes, beef in the schools; Mrs. Jordan Simmons, publicity, and Mrs. Muller, social coordination. Members of the telephone committee are Mrs. Marie Lewerenz, Bend, and Mrs. Voiney Grant, Mrs. Howard Mayfield and Mrs. Verne Peck, all Redmond.

The next meeting will be Feb-ruary 15 in Bend. Each member is asked to bring a get-well card, for use by the social coordination committee.

The election was held in De-

Program planned by missionary

Miss Mary Forbes, recently returned from missionary service in Viet Nam, plans to show slides and tell of missionary work in the Republic of Viet Nam at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday, January 21 at 7 p.m.

Christian missionaries entered Viet Nam in 1911. This past year saw the completion of a Bible School at Nhatrang for Vietnamese students. At present 110 are enrolled. Also, in August a Bible school for the Tribes people was finished and dedicated. There are between 60 and 150 different ethnic groups of these Malayo-Poly-nesian tribes in Vict Nam. The public is invited to hear Miss Forbes and enjoy this missionary

Students enjoy ice skating

Special to The Bulletin

ALFALFA - Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Swearingen were hosts at an ice skating party for the upper grade students at Alfalfa School Wednesday. The group left for the Mayfield pond right after school.

The hosts built a big bonfire and a wiener and marshmallow roast was held after the skating. Hot chocolate was also served.

DON'T WAIT until it's TOO LATE

It' better to be safe than sorry

... check your

insurance coverage

Accidents on your property could cost you plenty!

workman falls and is injured on your property. A neighbor slips on your steps. So many things can happen that might mean law suits for you. Protect yourself against financial loss, with Liability Insurance. Look into this.

MBERMEN INSURANCE AGENCY

1024 Bond St.

Ph. EV 2-2141

IN MARINES - Marine Pfc James R. Hawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Hawes, 1215 Milwaukee, Bend, and a 1961 Bend High grad, completed four-week individual Marine combat training course Dec. 29 at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Clark services held on Friday

Funeral services for Francis E. Clark, 73, late of LaPine, were held Friday afternoon at the Niswonger-Reynolds Funeral Home. Mr. Clark died Wednesday morning at St. Charles Memorial Hos-

The Rev. Ronald M. Lundy. pastor of First Baptist Church and Vinton Green, lay pastor at the LaPine Baptist Church, officiated. Pallbearers were Mark Ferns, Faye Howard, Glenn How ard, Ray Howard, Lloyd Anderson and Gene Dunlap. Mr. Clark had been a LaPine esident since 1946. He is survived by his wife, Edith; a son, a daugh-

Burial was in the Pilot Butte

Barnes takes up new duties

Special to The Bulletin REDMOND - Glenn J. Barnes arrived this week from Ontario to take over his duties as supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration office in Redmond, serving Crook and Deschutes counties. Barnes replaces Harlan Heis, who was transferred to Salem. He is a graduate from the University of Idaho with a B.S. degree in agricultural economics. He recently spent 414 years as a rural cre-dit specialist and rural developadvisor for the Near East Foundation in Iran.

Before he joined the FHA at Ontario in May, 1960, he worked with the Bureau of Reclamation as an agriculture economist. Barnes is married and has three children, ages 3, 5 and 11.

The Redmond FHA office is located in the Chadwick Building in Redmond. Barnes' office day will be Monday, with other days of the week to be spent in the field.

Dance planned at Silver Lake

Special to The Bulletin

SILVER LAKE — The Silver Lake Women's Club plans a dance on February 17, for the purpose of raising funds to help in some of the school activities. Snyder's Orchestra will furnish in March. Mrs. Mary Emery is to cinced to 10 days in the county direct the play, date of which will jail.

be set later. Stop cursing that old furniture.

Sell it with A Bulletin Classified.

on life behind 'Iron Curtain'

Two people who are probably the last Oregon residents to view the body of Josef Stalin before it was removed from the Red Square mausoleum in Moscow will appear during the 7 p.m. service Sunday at First Methodist Church.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Peterson of Portland. They re-turned recently from an 83-day tour of 20 countries, including Russia, East and West Berlin most of western Europe and the Holy Land.

Peterson will show slides and lecture on his impressions of life behind the curtain, as a feature in the church's second session in the series, "Christians Look at Communism."

Slides Planned Peterson's pictures to be shown here will be limited to those taken in Moscow and East and West Berlin, supplemented with a few to show the prosperity now pre-vailing this side of the Iron Curtain, according to the pastor, the Rev. James S. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson walked across the East-West Berlin border at the Fredrickstrasse g at e nearly three weeks after that bor-der was closed by the East Berlin police, in order to get a Russian plane to take them on to Moscow. Until his recent retirement, Peterson was for 471/2 years a mem-ber of the editorial staff of the Oregon Journal. Both he and his wife have spoken in Bend on sev-eral occasions in the past 25 years. Question Period

During the discussion period. Peterson will answer questions on the Common Market and other dramatic changes now taking lace in western Europe. Scheduled to take part in a symposium after Peterson's lecture are several Bend residents who were tourists recently in commu nistic countries. They are Dallas Quick, Victor Anderson and Wil iam Niskaner On a panel to interrogate the tourists will be Robert W. Chandler, Mrs. James Barrett and James Smiley. Dr. Don Pence will

Weekly disease report issued

Influenza accounted for 71 per cent of the communicable diseases reported in the tri-county area in the past week, but the number of flu cases is down considerably from recent weeks.

Crook county had the most new 'flu cases, 19, on the basis of 50 per cent reporting. There were also two cases of pucumonia in Crook county.

Jefferson county, with 100 per cent reporting, counted six cases of influenza, three diarrhea and two each of bacillary dysentery and measles.

Deschutes county noted two cases of influenza and two of pneumonia. Only 43 per cent of the reporting sources responded. Figures are from the weekly r port of the Tri-County Health De-

District court report issued

Bend, disobeying a stop sign, $10, and John William Forsythe, Diland John William Forsythe, Dillarly planned for Sunday lon, Mont, no PUC permit, $15 workers and church

Lecture planned Presbyterians set expanded program for new building into effect this Sunday at First Presbyterian Church, when the new building at 230 Woodland Boulevard will be occupied.

First change in the Sunday morning program will be addition of a family worship service run-ning from 9 to 9:45 a.m. All ages may participate in this service, a shortened version of 11 o'clock church. Nursery care will be pro-vided for children under 3 years old. Eleven o'clock church will remain the same, and a second session of church school will continue

Formation of an adult study forum is the second change. Those interested in adult Christian education may choose between two courses offered the first term.

Brogan Story' to be on KBND Monday at 4:50

The "Phil Brogan Story" is to be related Monday at 4:50 p.m. on various radio stations of the northwest, including KBND, as "Stories of Pacific Powerland" are aired.

The Monday afternoon broadcast will recount how Brogan first became interested in geology of the area, and of the part he has played in popularizing geology of the entire state.

The story will touch on high-light's of Brogan's life through the years, from the time, as a boy, Oregon ranch to the present. R. G. McFarland, Pacific Pow er & Light Co. district manager sald his company "has created these programs specifically to publicize interesting places, per-sons and events of communities served by the company.'

Team inspects sewer system

Special to The Bulletin

PRINEVILLE - A team of sanitary enginers from the Oregon State Board of Health was in Prinsville Friday to inspect the city's sewer lagoon system just west of town. west of town.

The engineers were investigating the possibility of constructing a dike across the larger of the two lagoons, since the capacity of the lagoon system is too large for the city population, preventing efficient use It was believed that the dike would rectify the fault. City officials expect a report from sani-tary engineers next week.

Soul winning seminar planned

Special to The Bulletin

REDMOND—A "Sunday School and Soul Winning Seminar," spon-sored by the Redmond Ministerial Association will be held during the week of February 4 through 9. Beginning on Sunday, meetings will be held each evening during the week at 7:30 p.m. at a place to be announced. The seminar will be conducted by the Rev. Robert Clark Harlow of Global Aids, Inc., in Portland.

Harlow is a graduate of Cascade College in Portland and rep.m. to 1 a.m. Refreshments will be served.

Another project of the Women's Club is to be presentation of the play, "Good Gracious Grandma," in March, Mrs. Mary Emery is 10 and countries, and he will show color-ed movies he has taken in India. Hong Kong, and Formosa. While the meetings are po everyone is being invited to attend.

An expanded program of wor-ship and Christian education goes registration will be held in the new sanutuary Sunday following family worship. At this time church school classes for all ages will be in session. Dicussion Course

The Rev. James McGugin will direct a discussion course titled "Introduction to the Bible." Seven weeks will be spent in discussion of Bible background, including dates of authorship, and cir-cumstances under which it was written.
"The Christian and Health" is the second forum subject offered for winter term. It will be led by a group of local doctors and professional people. One phase of the Christian and his health will be presented each Sunday.

Participating are Dr. Lorance Evers, Dr. John M. McCarthy, Dr. Richard Ettinger, Dr. Robert Cutter, Dr. Richard Robinson, Rev. Mr. McGugin and Miss Heien

The new concepts of early fam-ily worship and short-term adult study forums were adopted by action of the local church session from the First Presbyterian Church of Visalia, Calif., now served by former Bend minister

Allan B. Philp. More Flexibility The program was designed to give more flexibility to church school and worship attendance. In the old building, 11 o'clock church school teachers could never attend a worship service. Now a family can attend church at 9 a.m. and stay for church school, or come at 9:45 for church school and stay for 11 o'clock worship.

Many possible forum courses are being considered for spring term, including "The Christian in Politics" and "Spiritual Emphasis in Modern Literature." A Bible in Modern Literature." A Bible study will be offered each term. Helping with the planning are Mrs. Don Burdg, Christian education chairman, and Mrs. Sam-uel Langmas, chairman of adult

Shower honors Mrs. Rollins

Special to The Bulletin

lins was honored guest at a stork shower at the home of Mrs. John Neuman on Thursday a ternoon Mrs. Howard Trowbridge was assistant hostess.

During the afternoon the guests enjoyed a scrambled quiz game pertaining to baby needs, After the guest of honor opened the gifts, refreshments were served by the hostesses which included miniature stork favors.

Present for the affair were Mrs.

Present for the affair were Mrs.

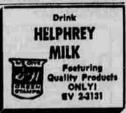

Donald Pearl, Mrs. Evan Lowe, Mrs. Rex

Trowbridge, Mrs. Keith Sorenson. Trowbridge, Mrs. Keith Sorenson, Mrs. Gene Pitts, Mrs. Loyd Hewitt, Miss Dallas Rollins, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

Twelve young people from the youth groups of the Sisters Church of Christ accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sorenson to Redmond Monday night and attended the Central Oregon Christian Endeavor skating party.

Those from Sisters who attended the men's meeting of the Central Characteristics.

ed the men's meeting of the Cen-tral Oregon Christian Churches at Culver on Tuesday night were Jesse Smalley, Harold Logsdon, Keith Sorenson, Loyd Hewitt, and Z. R. Potter.

1.50

90c

POLLY'S CAFE Saturday Night SKIER'S SPECIAL RIB STEAK Skier's Delight for Dinner SPAGHETTI

SUNDAY DINNER SPECIAL Chicken & Dumplings

Delicious Old Fashioned Chicken and Dumplings Served Family Style. Bring the Family In For A Real Treat.

Open 7 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sat., Sun., Mon.

809 Wall St.

Phone EV 2-1471

Announcing the appointment of THEOLA EWING

hair stylist

to the staff of the BE LOVELY

BEAUTY SALON

1053 Edgewater (Just 2 blocks East of the Rustic Inn) Delores Russell, Owner

EV 2-2744