Boys spend chilly night at Millican

A trip in a car taken from the parents of one youth ended up as an unexpected all-night stay in the car near Millican for two 15-year-old Bend youths last night.

Larry Musgrave, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Musgrave, 1205 Davenport, and Kenneth Ogle, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ogle, 1231 Iliaca, took the Musgrave car about 9:30 p.m. last night. They headed toward Burns. Inside the car were extra clothes the boys had taken from their homes.

When they got to Millican, the pair decided to call off the turn and return to Bend. In turning around, they became stuck in the snow alongside the road. So they spent the night there.

When morning came, they hitchhiked back to Bend. They turned themselves in to the Juvenile Court of Judge D. L. Penhollow about 10 p.m.

They told Judge Penhollow they didn't know where they were going. They said they just wanted to "get away." But when they got away they said, they decided that they would return to Bend instead of continuing on.

Neither has a driver's license.

C. M. Rasmussen dies at age 89

Margaret E. (Bond) Carles, 34, born July 9, 1927, in Bend, died Monday morning from injuries suffered in an auto accident in Boulder City, Nev.

Mrs. Carles, who lived in Bend as a girl, was graduated from Eugene High School in 1945. For the past six years she was a nurse aid at the University of Oregon Hospital in Portland.

She was married December 9 to Harold Carles, making his home in Los Gatos, Calif.

Other survivors include her mother, Mrs. Minnie Bond, Bend; four sisters, Mrs. William Anderson of Redmond, Mrs. Norman Brandvold of Portland, Mrs. David Phelps of Berkeley, Calif., and Mrs. Howard Brandvold, Salem; several nieces and nephews.

Services are tentatively set for 2 p.m. Friday in the Niswonger and Reynolds Chapel. Burial will follow in Greenwood Memorial Cemetery.

Plans for rural area group made

A preliminary meeting of the Rural Area Development nominating committee was held last night at the courthouse. Judge D. L. Penhollow is chairman, and other members are Kenneth Cannon and Donald Conner, Bend, and Jack Eberhard, Redmond. All but Cannon were present.

The area development group is to work under Extension Service guidance in making long-range plans for coordinating industrial, agricultural, recreational and cultural growth. All phases of the economy are to be represented on the permanent committee.

Judge Penhollow left today for Phoenix, Ariz., where this subject will be one receiving attention at the western region convention of the National Association of County Officials. Mrs. Penhollow accompanied him on the trip. They are traveling by bus.

Polio benefit due at LaPine

Special to The Bulletin
LaPINE — Final arrangements are taking shape for LaPine's polio benefit party, set for Friday, January 26.

The party will be at 8 p.m. in the LaPine school gymnasium, with Central Oregonians invited to attend.

A varied program has been planned. There will be volleyball and basketball. Games will be played, and prizes will be awarded.

Women attending are asked to bring pies.

L. J. St. Claire dies en route from Portland

Leslie J. St. Claire, 61, LaPine, died of a heart attack Tuesday evening while returning home from Portland.

Mr. St. Claire, driving home with his wife, slipped off the road near Maupin. He was brought to a doctor's office in Bend where he was dead on arrival.

Mr. St. Claire had a heart condition.

Born Dec. 22, 1900, in Winemucca, Nev., he worked as a boiler maker for the Southern Pacific railroad and had resided in LaPine the past year.

Survivors include his widow, Lora C. LaPine; a stepson, W. L. Taylor, Portland; and three grandchildren.

Catholic services, under the direction of Niswonger and Reynolds, will be announced later. Contributions to the heart fund would be appreciated.

Johnson rites held on Tuesday

Graveside funeral services for Mrs. Hilda M. Johnson, a former Bend resident, were held Tuesday afternoon in Pilot Butte cemetery. She died January 16 in San Diego, Calif., where she had made her home since last September. She lived in Bend two and a half years before that.

Mrs. Johnson was the aunt of Mrs. Carl H. Krook, 750 Ogden Avenue.

The Rev. R. E. Yvisaker of the First Lutheran Church officiated at the rites. Pallbearers were A. S. McCulloch, George Thompson, A. B. Lillingeh and Otto W. Heider Jr. Heider's Bend Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

HELD IN JAIL

A 15-year-old Bend girl was held in the county jail yesterday, after being called in for questioning by juvenile authorities for truancy and incorrigibility at home. She was continued on probation by Judge D. L. Penhollow, rather than being committed to Hillcrest Home for Girls.
