A-1 prep cage leaders in home stretch

By Bill Thompson
Bulletin Staff Writer

The race to the state A-1 basketball tournament in Eugene March 13-17 is in the home stretch, but, for the most part, many of the top horses are still in doubt.

But in the Intermountain Conference, the issue is fairly well settled with Baker boasting a 10-1 record and only three more league games to play—all at home.

Hermiston is in second place with an 8-3 mark, while Pendleton is two games further back with a 6-5 record. Baker last made the A-1 derby in 1959, Hermiston in 1960.

Here, more or less, is how the other districts shape up:

DISTRICT 1 (PIL)—Cleveland (12-2) ahead by two games. Grant in second place, with Franklin and Jefferson still contenders.

DISTRICT 2 (WILCO)—Molalla (8-2) has scant half-game margin over Sandy. Scappoose also in running.

DISTRICT 3 (METRO)—Milwaukie (12-1) still setting fast pace, with second-place fight including Astoria and Beaverton.

DISTRICT 4 (TYV)—McMinnville (11-2) challenged by Forest Grove, one game back. Newberg still in running with 9-3 record.

DISTRICT 5 (MIDWEST)—Roseburg (8-2) tops tight race, with North Eugene, South Eugene and Marshfield pressing.

DISTRICT 6 (SOUTHERN)—Klamath Falls (10-1) appears to be in. Big fight between Grants Pass (7-5) and Medford (6-5).

DISTRICT 8—South Salem (10-0) still leading, with Corvallis (8-2) only team within shooting range of first place with five games left on district schedule.

Two area collegiate basketball stars, Stan Williams (ex-Sisters) and Brad Flannery (ex-Bend High), are seeing considerable action this year.

Williams, playing for Ted Wilson's late-blooming Linfield team, has appeared in 22 games. Used mostly as a floor leader, senior guard Williams has taken only 23 shots, made 15 of them for a .455 percentage—second best on the team.

He has four for seven free throws, 71 rebounds (sixth best on team), 22 personal fouls, 34 total points and a 1.6 average.

Flannery, a junior guard, has scored 168 points for Southern Oregon College in 20 games for an 8.4 average—fourth best on the SOC squad.

Flannery is sixth in rebounds with 49, fifth in field goal percentage with .378 (62 of 164) and fifth in free-throw percentage with a .638 mark (44 of 69).

Playing at home is a terrific advantage, especially in the Intermountain Conference. Pendleton East Oregonian sports editor Nolan Skiff earlier pointed out this year that, of 36 games played, home teams had won 23 games and visitors only 11.

Now, with 44 league games on the books this season, home squads have won 30, visitors only 14—a better than 2-1 margin.

Skiff quotes George DeLap, wily Hermiston coach: "If you win a few games on the road, you're bound to be in the thick of the race—because any good team is sure to win most of its home contests."

In an earlier column, Skiff noted that Mark Cotton has been named to succeed Jim Ward as Hermiston High football coach next fall. Cotton has been head track coach and assistant in football and basketball the last five years at Hermiston. Bot Skiff adds this warning:

"In all fairness to Cotton, it should be noted that he will face the same thing Ward did—trying to finish in the first division in a conference in which most of the teams come from schools with more population to draw from, and with bigger student bodies."

"Ward served very well over a period of years, giving Hermiston perhaps the most consistently strong evelens the school has had in recent history."
Ward plans to remain in the Hermiston school system, with his future assignment to be announced later.

The Bulldogs have an eight-game 1962 football schedule planned including Wy-east, Moses Lake, Redmond (Kings 2), Baker (league), Madras (Kings 3) and wind up with three league games—La Grande, Milton - Freewater and Pendleton.

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Sonny Liston is expected to sign later this week for his long-sought crack at Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title.

The fight will be held in June at one of four proposed sites—New York, Los Angeles, Philadelphia or Chicago.
Patterson already has accepted Liston as his next challenger and has authorized Championship Sports, Inc., to sign the 27-year-old Philadelphia kayo artist for the $10 million bout, it was learned by United Press International Tuesday night from an official source.

Championship Sports promoted Patterson's last title defense against Ingemar Johansson at Miami last March.
