WOMAN TALK

by Gerry Gaylord

That important in-between something to wear... won't be a problem at all if you shop with us. Tired of your winter wardrobe? Why not blossom out in a new creation that will bring that wonderful spring feeling that boosts the spirit!

Cotton Knits can be the answer! We have in a marvelous group of Wagadon cotton knit dresses that are basic... but so unusual because of the different surface textures to the fabric. All have a sensational Electro-Reverse Stitch that guarantees the cotton knits to not bag, sag, shrink or stretch before and after washings.

Our Bobbie Brooks Cotton Pique Knit Coordinates are simply irresistible. For one thing, the pique weave assures complete shape retention... and the appearance is so interesting. To try to describe styles though is impossible... there are so many. It's up to you, you see, to coordinate according to your personal needs... maybe a two or three-piece suit... a two-piece basic to accessorize... that shifts into a sports outfit with the change of a dicky. There are all kinds of tops to go with skirts, capris, knee-knappers, jamaicas... and starting $3.99 each. To see our cotton knits is to want them... and to have them is one of the wisest investments of the season with compliments guaranteed!

Costumes and suits are in early for your selection. New wool knits in flat Italian imports by Kimberly, Gino Paoli of Italy, Butte Knits, and Jernat of Italy are exquisite... and we cannot very well overlook our Bobbie Brooks orlon knit sheaths for $15.95 that are machine washable and machine dryable.

Arnel Jerseys in prints, stripes, and pin checks that don't look like jerseys are very popular in both straight and half sizes. Drip-Dry Linens are lovely to wear in bright colors... some with jackets covering sun dresses to span a long season of wearing. We stock a large selection of half sizes, through size 26½.

Our $9.98 Katya Cottons are here... you've been waiting for them; we suggest Lay-Away now while sizes are complete... and for the young Petite Juniors starting size 3... which will solve many fitting problems, especially in sub-teens where a little sophistication is desired!

Please come in and browse... just as you are... at our Central Oregon Dream Store.

CORRINE MELLOTT

Bend girl tells of experiences at 4-H session

Corrine Mellott, home from the recent 4-H Club Conference in Salem, said that the delegates were given the opportunity to see their responsibilities as citizens to government, and to learn the responsibilities of government to its citizens.

Corrine, a Bend High School junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mellott, Bend. She has been in 4-H work eight years.

Theme for the conference was "Know Your Government." The delegates, two from each county, were taken on a tour of the state departments of agriculture, forestry, public welfare and employment, and to tax commission and state police headquarters.

Officials of the various departments told the 4-H'ers about their duties and the workings of their departments. Jack Birkhofer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Birkhofer, Redmond, was the other Deschutes county delegate.

All delegates were interviewed by a committee to vie for a trip to the national capital in Washington, D.C. Two girls and two boys are given this opportunity every year.

Domestic run of water planned

The Central Oregon Irrigation District will have a domestic run starting Monday, February 26, it was announced today by E. G. Mansfield, manager.

The water will be in the canals through March 1, weather permitting.

Residents served by the district are reminded to take advantage of the flow to fill stock ponds and cisterns.

WARDEN FILES
SALEM (UPI)—John C. Warden, Coquille, filed Tuesday for the office of Coos County judge.

In and Out

of hospitals in Central Oregon

BEND

The following are new patients at St. Charles Memorial Hospital: Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Chemult; Alva Ferebee, Prineville; Mrs. Ralph Madison, Terrebonne; Carl Johnson, Mt. Shasta, Calif.; William Bauer, Madras; Mrs. John Grover, Route 1, Bend; Mrs. James Wood, 1235 Vicksburg Avenue; Aaron Wilson, Crescent.

Mrs. Louis Mitchell, Warm Springs, and the following Bend residents were dismissed: Mrs. Fred Chartier, Clarence Fuller, Mrs. Carl Strom and Mrs. Guy Durham.

PRINEVILLE

PRINEVILLE — Dean and Alonzo DeClue, Gresham, were brought to Pioneer Memorial Hospital Monday following a one-car accident some miles east of Mitchell. Both suffered contusions and abrasions and Dean DeClue also suffered rib fractures.

They stated that their car lost a wheel while they were traveling on Highway 26. The car rolled several times. Their condition Tuesday was listed as fair.

Mrs. Otto Young, Prineville, was also admitted that day. Released have been Mrs. Jerry Chiddix and son Rodney Allen, Madras; Clain Brandt and Mrs. Claude Brandt, Mrs. Otto Young and Mrs. Arthur Cain, Prineville.

REDMOND

REDMOND — New patients at Central Oregon District Hospital are: Mrs. Merle Lynam, Sharon Jefferson, Mrs. Gene Hinderman, Mrs. Art Ray, Herb Smalley, Redmond; Mrs. Don Chapman, Culver; Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Ron Cummings, Jack Coleman, Bend; Mrs. John Hastings, Astoria; Mrs. Thomas Delaney, Beatrice Lowry, Madras; Mrs. T. A. Arthur, Warm Springs.

Dismissed were: Walter Lee, Culver; Mrs. Ron Cummings, Mrs. James Estep and son, Madras; Mrs. George Brown and son, Powell Butte; Mrs. William Gregory and son, Terrebonne; Louis Tackett, Julie Watts, Evan Sturza, Davis Andrews and Rufus Veatch, Mrs. Kay Shopshire, Leonard Wright and Mrs. Carol Murders and baby girl, Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Chapman of Culver are parents of a son, Robby Dean, who weighed 7 pounds, 2¼ ounces at birth February 19 at Central Oregon District Hospital. It's a boy, as yet unnamed, for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Delaney of Madras. Born February 19, he weighed 8 pounds, 4¼ ounces.

CARS COLLIDE
Cars driven by Rachael Williams, 444 East Clay and Odean John Thompson, 1414 Awbrey, collided this morning at the intersection of Greenwood and 5th streets. Damage was minor.

Stanton rites due on Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Irene Stanton, 73, are scheduled for Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Christian Congregational Church in Condon. Burial will be in the Igo cemetery.

Mrs. Stanton died Tuesday at Sunset Home. She formerly made her home on Route 2, Redmond. She was a member of a pioneer family in the Condon area, where she was born.

She was a charter member of the Igo Grange in Condon, belonged to the Christian Congregational Church, and was formerly a Rebekah.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by the following: daughters Mrs. John Wilson, Bend, and Mrs. Eva Hawk, Canoga Park, Calif.; a son, Ray W. Stanton, Amboy, Wash.; brothers Robert A. Palmer, The Dalles, and Ted Palmer, Condon; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The Niswonger-Reynolds Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Members of the family said that if friends wish to make memorial gifts, contributions to the Oregon Cancer Society would be appreciated.

Area group tours Christmas Valley

Some 50 residents of Bend and adjacent areas headed south by bus and car shortly after 9:30 a.m. today, with Christmas Valley their destination.

The tour was sponsored by the Bend Chamber of Commerce. A 41-passenger Pacific Trailways bus was filled and the overflow made the trip in private cars.

Ideal weather prevailed for the trip, purpose of which was to look over the Christmas Valley developments.

The Bend group will return this evening.

Youth escapes serious injury

Joseph Keerins, Prineville, a student at Central Oregon College, escaped serious injury in a one-car accident Tuesday night.

Keerins, on his way home from night classes, missed the left turn from Butler Road to the Powell Butte Road. His car careened across the intersection and overturned, lodging against a tree in front of the J. M. Conrad place, just north of the airport. He apparently fell asleep.

Keerins' only injury was a cut on the left knee. His car, a small station wagon, was extensively damaged on the right side.
