Holy Week services set by church

Special Holy Week services be-gin tomorrow, Palm Sunday, at the First Presbyterian Church.

The regular schedule of services will be followed Sunday. At the family service at 9 a.m., special music will be provided by the Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Gary Cruikshank. Immediately following the family worship service, Church school class-es for all ages will be held in-cluding the adult study forum, led by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bishop.

The regular worship service will be held at 11 a.m. The senior choir under the direction of Nick will sing the anthem "Ride On! Ride On In Majesty." At both services Mrs. Clarence Bush will be the organist and the Rev. James P. McGugin will bring the message entitled "Identify The Victor."

The sacrament of infant bap-tism will be celebrated at both services. The youth communicants class will meet Sunday at 4 p.m. The youth and adults, both, will meet with the session at 7:30 p.m. for the final study period of both communicants classes and interviews with those who wish to be received into church membership. Other services through Holy Week include the Maundy Thurs-day communion at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 19; participation in the Good Friday community - wide service, Friday, April 20, in the First Christian Church from 12 noon to 3 p.m.; the community sunrise service, 5:30 a.m. Easter Sunday on Pilot Butte, and the two regular worship services at 9 and 11 a.m. Easter Sunday.
