Car blazes keep firemen busy

Auto blazes aren't too common, but Bend firemen were called to halt two such occurrences within a 15-hour period between Tuesday evening and this morning.

First auto call was turned in at 7:18 p.m. Tuesday when a car in the 700 block on Delaware, registered to Frank Chelate, was reported on fire.

A leaking gas connection between the fuel pump and carburetor was blamed, with some damage to the hood reported.

Second auto call came at 10:07 this morning when a car at 873 Roosevelt, registered to John Grover, was reported ablaze.

A sticking carburetor float was the villain in this one, with both the hood and the carburetor damaged.

Tuesday afternoon at 1:31 p.m. firemen checked a downed power line at 220 Greenwood, standing by until a power company crew arrived.

Wilson, U.S. Air Force, Weisadann, Germany, and Ralph Vernon Wilson, Terrebonne; a sister, Mrs. Ann Chamberlain, Sandpoint, Idaho; brother, Ed Somerville, Eugene; 33 grandchildren and 40 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Wilson was a past noble grand of the Redmond Rebekah Lodge; past president of the Redmond Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary; member of Patriarchs Militant and the Redmond Grange; and an honorary member of the Redmond Ground Observer Corps.

Workshop set by gem group

Back from a successful mineral-collecting trip to Graveyard Point, near Homedale, Idaho, members of the High Desert Gem and Mineral Society will hold their workshop meeting Thursday night in the county court room, of the Deschutes courthouse. The time will be 7:30.

Reports on the Idaho trip will be made and tentative plans for another outing considered. It is proposed to sponsor a trip into the Malheur country this weekend.

Leaders of the group have announced that topographic maps, recently ordered, have arrived and will be available at the Thursday night session, which will be open to all interested in minerals and their preparation.

At the last meeting of the group, Mrs. Frank Westergreen demonstrated the cutting of crystals, and displayed unstones she had collected near Hart Mountain and had cut and polished. They ranged in color from white through yellow to pink.

Various other stones were displayed.
