Knocks in winning run

Rookie 'earns his letter'

By Milton Richman
UPI Staff Writer
Rookie John (Boog) Powell has "made" the team!
You can read that two ways because the beefy 20-year-old Baltimore outfielder not only earned his letter Tuesday night but also lent credence to the general belief that he could be the making of the Orioles this year.
Powell, faced with his biggest test under major league pressure so far, came through brilliantly with two out and the bases full in the ninth inning to give the Orioles a come-from-behind 5-4 victory over the Minnesota Twins.
Joyous Baltimore players poured out of the dugout to pump Powell's hand for producing his clutch two-run single that climaxed a four-run rally and kept the Orioles in a virtual tie with the Cleveland Indians for the American League lead.
The Twins took a 4-1 lead into the bottom of the ninth and Jack Kralick appeared to be an easy winner with a man on third base and two out. But a single by Jerry Adair made it 4-2 and another single by pinch hitter Dick Williams brought in reliever Joe Bonkowski.
Johnny Temple's bad-hop double scored Adair, then an intentional walk by Dick Stigman filled the bases and brought up Powell, hitless in 12 previous trips.

Stigman knocked Powell down with his first pitch but the six-foot-three, 235-pound rookie dusted himself off and then drilled a single up the middle for the ball game.
Up to Tuesday night, it had been a little rough for young Powell, who was given a Mickey Mantle-type build-up before the season even started. Concerned about his recent hitting trouble, the kid had commented to a teammate, "I'd better cut down on my smoking; I'm up to nearly a pack a day."
His clutch hit Tuesday night extended the Orioles' winning streak to four games and rewarded route-going Milt Pappas with his second victory.
The Indians nipped the Los Angeles Angels, 3-2; the Detroit Tigers blanked the Kansas City A's, 1-0; the Chicago White Sox ended a four-game losing streak with a 3-1 win over the New York Yankees, and the Boston Red Sox downed the Washington Senators, 4-1.

Pirates Beat Giants
Pittsburgh made it 11 out of 12 with a 7-3 victory over San Francisco in the National League; the Cincinnati Reds also beat the New York Mets, 7-3; the Houston Colts edged the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3; the Milwaukee Braves defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, and Sandy Koufax equalled the major league record by striking out 18 batters as the Los Angeles Dodgers crushed the Chicago Cubs, 10-2.
Rookie Ty Cline, who also had two doubles, tripled home the winning run for the Indians against the Angels after Leon Wagner's two-run homer in the sixth had tied the score at 2-2. Rookie Ron Taylor won his first major league game with help from Frank Funk. Dean Chance was the loser.
Rocky Colavito's single with two out in the eighth inning broke up an excellent pitcher's battle between Detroit's Don Mossi and KC rookie Danny Pfister. Mossi (2-1) gave up four hits while Pfister (0-1) allowed only three.
Floyd Robinson's two-run homer capped a three-run eighth inning rally by the White Sox against the Yankees. Robinson's blow came off loser Ralph Terry (5-1). Johnny Buzhardt was credited with his second victory although he left for a pinch hitter in the eighth. Johnny Blanchard's second inning homer kept the Yanks in front until the eighth.
Runnels Leads Red Sox
Pete Runnels, normally a singles hitter, connected for two home runs — his first since last June 23rd — to lead the Red Sox over the Senators. Both homers came off loser Joe McClain (0-2). Galen Cisco hurled a four-hitter for his second victory in as many decisions.
The Pirates, who lost their first game of the season Monday night, got back on the right track with a five-run fourth inning rally against the Giants. Bill Mazerowski's bases-loaded single was the big blow. Loser Juan Marichal also was tapped for a two-run homer by Don Leppert in the second inning. Alvin McBean won his second game against no losses.

The Mets, who couldn't stand success, were held to five hits by rookie Sammy Ellis and Moe Drabowsky. Thus a one-game "winning streak" ended for the Mets, who now have dropped 10 of 11. Wally Post had two doubles and a homer while Vada Pinson also homered. Cincinnati clinched the game with a four-run rally at the expense of Craig Anderson in the first inning.

Panthers topple three field marks

Special to The Bulletin
REDMOND — The Redmond Panthers, showing improvement in several events, defeated the Prineville track team 85 1/2 to 32 1/2 here Monday.
Panther Bob Feller set a new Redmond school and field record when he won the 440-yard dash in :53.2, breaking the old mark of 53.7 seconds set by Joe Freedman in 1959.
Two other Redmond field records were toppled — Jim Ruske hurling the discus 158 feet 6 inches and the 880-yard relay team of Lee Wick, Gary Cutting, Feller and Ed Sturza turning in a 1:36.7 clocking.
Old discus field record of 155-4 was set by Ruske last week, while the relay mark bested the 1:37.6 time set in 1956 by McClure, Speights, Beimler and Robin.
Prineville managed only four wins, two of them by Jack Bishop in the mile and 800.

ord, old record of 1:37.6 set in 1956 by McClure, Speights, Beimler and Robin.
120-yard high hurdles — 1. Sturza (R); 2. McBride (R); 3. Boyson (P). Time :16.3.
Mile — 1. Bishop (P); 2. Gerke (P); 3. Kerfoot (R). Time 5:02.

220-yard dash — 1. Hicks (P); 2. Friday (R); 3. Cutting (R). Time :23.7.
100-yard dash — 1. Feller (R); 2. Cutting (R); 3. Kirkpatrick (P). Time :10.5.
130-yard low hurdles — 1. Sturza (R); 2. McBride (R); 3. Boyson (P). Time :22.2.
800-yard run — 1. Bishop (P); 2. Lowe (R); 3. Birkhofer (R). Time 2:05.3. (New field record, old record 2:06 set in 1949 by Fred Jorgenson of Redmond.)
Kincaid, a non-letterman, tossed the shot 48 feet 4 1/2 inches. And if he continues to improve he will be a definite threat for top honors in district competition in May.
Next action for Redmond is a three-way meet with Hermiston and The Dalles at The Dalles Saturday.
On the same day, Prineville competes in a four-way meet with Madras, John Day and Burns at Madras.
Shot put — 1. Kincaid (P); 2. Ruske (R); 3. Holmes (R). Distance 48-4 1/2.
Broad jump — 1. Sturza (R); 2. Cutting (R); 3. Davis (P). Distance 18-7.
