FREE PAINT JOB

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Dr. James H. Allen, 36, got his "stolen" sports car back Wednesday with a complimentary bright red paint job.

Allen left the car in a hospital parking lot the other day. So did a woman patient, who ordered repair shop operator Earl Boyd to pick up her car and paint it while she was hospitalized.

The woman called Boyd Wednesday to ask why her car hadn't been picked up and Boyd discovered that the brightly painted auto he had outside his shop was the one reported stolen by Allen.

State precincts total 3,241

SALEM (UPI)—There are 3,241 precincts in Oregon for the May 13 primary election. State Elections Director Jack F. Thompson announced today.

This is 341 more than for the November, 1960 general election. The increase is reflected by such factors as population increases, realignment and annexation by cities, Thompson said.

Multnomah County has the highest number of precincts, and gained the most—up 213 from November, 1960 for a new total of 1,216 this May, Thompson said the biggest factor in Multnomah was a realignment of precincts for the convenience of voters.

The number of precincts is determined by the number of registered voters, figuring a maximum of 500 voters per precinct.

Some counties lost a few precincts but others besides Multnomah showing appreciable gains include:

Unions slipping, report indicates

NEW YORK (UPI)—The nation's labor unions lost 500,000 members between 1936 and 1961, it was reported today.

The National Industrial Conference Board said a study of union membership showed that a period of decreasing gains in membership began in 1945 had developed into a period of actual membership losses a decade later.

Unions hit their peak membership of 17.5 million in 1956 and slipped to 17 million by the beginning of 1961, the board said.

Medal winners spurn pension

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Two of America's leading war heroes have refused a special $100-a-month pension voted by Congress last year for Medal of Honor winners, it was learned today.

The rejections were by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, who led the first bombing raid over Tokyo in World War II, and Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, who commanded the 24th Division in Korea and spent three years as a prisoner of war.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, along with approximately 100 other Army winners of the medal, accepted the pension. So did 32 Navy and 10 Marine holders of the nation's highest military award.

The Air Force Times said the Air Force, youngest of the services, had only six eligibles and that Doolittle was the only Air Force veteran to refuse the pension.

MacArthur, who was awarded the medal for his defense of Batuan at the start of World War II, draws $20,000 a year as a five-star general technically on active duty.

Doolittle and Dean are retired from military life. Doolittle, who lives in Santa Monica, Calif., formerly was vice president of Shell Oil Co. In January, he resigned as chairman of the board of Space Technology Laboratories in Los Angeles, but still is a director. Dean is living in Berkeley, Calif. The new and more generous pension, available at age 50, replaces a $10 a month stipend formerly paid to Medal of Honor winners beginning at age 65.

Silver Lake store has new owner

Special to The Bulletin
SILVER LAKE — William Barricks is new owner of the Silver Lake Mercantile, operated for the past six and one half years by Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Graham.

Also in the sale was the Gramahs' eight unit motel.

Barricks, coming from Sepulveda, Calif., became interested in the property when last Thanksgiving he drove to Christmas Valley to view a tract for which he was negotiating.

He did purchase 40 acres at the new development but completed arrangements by February to assume operation of the Silver Lake business on May 1.

The Gramahs will remain at Silver Lake to build a super service station and a building adequate for three businesses. The Soil Conservation Service office will be located in this building upon its completion.

For the past 12 years Barricks has been associated with Gray-line charter bus service and before that was in the furniture business.

He will continue to operate the store under the same name. Mrs. Barricks and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Cooley, will assist in the family enterprise. The Barricks have a third grader, Jeffrey, and a son, Robert, who is in high school. The Cooleys have a 15-month-old daughter.

Coming to Silver Lake from Philomath, the Ken Gramahs more than doubled the size of their store, the only one in town. They added dry goods and duplicated the hardware and cold storage facilities in their expansion program. The modern, electric heat motel was built about three years ago.

GOOD FOOD IS MY LINE
By Jake Baker

When the Bible mentions the "land of milk and honey," experts say that it was referring to the land of fruitfulness and plenty. So it was. The people of antiquity held that honey contained mysterious ingredients which gave it special powers. Scientists today are again finding out that the ancients knew what they were talking about. Babies who can't eat other sugars grow strong with honey. It has also been found to have a mysterious "sobering-up" power in the treatment of alcoholics. Besides this, honey has growth-producing powers whose cause is still a mystery to scientists.
