Chicago 'out' for big fight

NEW YORK (UPI) — After practically eliminating Chicago as the site, Gus d'Amato today said three other cities were still being considered for the Floyd Patterson-Sonny Liston fight in September.

D'Amato, manager of heavy-weight champion Patterson, did not disclose the names of the three cities.

Cus, the only man empowered by Patterson to negotiate for a site, explained that Chicago had failed to offer the required guarantee of $1 million to the promotion.

ON THE FIRING LINE—Among the up and coming shooters at the Bend Junior Rifle Club are Jack Billings, left, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Billings, 403 E. Emerson, and Mark Farstvedt, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Farstvedt, 372 E. Emerson. Both boys scored well in their first four-position senior match here recently. (See story)

Duck stars after 4-mile relay mark

FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) — University of Oregon, boasting the greatest quartet of millers ever attending one college at the same time, goes after the world four-mile relay mark Saturday noon in the West Coast Relays.

It's the kick-off of the 38th annual track and field carnival which boasts the slogan that this is where world records are broken.

Headlining the fearsome foursome of webfoots is Dyrrol Burleson, who has bettered the four-minute barrier. His best time this year is a nice 4:01.2. Archie San Romani, son of a one-time great track star at USC, has been clocked in 4:03.8. Vic Reeve in 4:05.5 and Keith Forman 4:06.2.

If they all get together on a best time they could crack the world mark set by Peter Snell and Murray Halberg, which is 16:23.8. The track is fast, as usual, for this year's meet. The weather man says the temperatures will be between 70 and 80, with a slight wind of 5-10 miles an hour.

The four-mile relay event will be the early feature of the show. During the night events, the only two men in history ever to clear the 16-foot mark will tangle for the first time.

They are the Marines, John Uelses and David Turk—and their battle may last through most of the night. Besides these two high-flying performers, there are at least a half dozen others who have cleared 15 feet or better—which was a magic height just a few years ago.

The 100-yard dash also shapes up as a dandy, with Harry Jerome, the Canadian from Oregon; Larry Dunn of Arizona and Dennis Johnson of San Jose State all having been clocked in 9.3—a tenth of a second off the world record.

There's a seven-foot high jumper in the competition, too, in the person of Gene Johnson of California; Dallas Long, the USC ace, will be tossing out past the 60-foot mark in the shot; and Jay Silvester of Fort Ord and Rink

Junior shooters hot in recent meet here

Bend junior rifle shooters had several fine performances in the Bend Rifle Club's annual indoor tournament recently at the club. Some 31 competed.

In the aggregate standings Corine Mellott finished as first expert and high junior with an 1147 score.

John Smith was third expert with an 1142 score, while Jack Billings was first marksman with a 977 score.

Miss Mellott won the Cascade Auto Parts rotating trophy as high junior for the third time.

In match one, prone and off-hand, Bob Cecil was high junior with a 136 score, while Mark Farstvedt was first marksman with a 140.

In match two, sitting and kneeling, Cecil was high junior with a 191. Smith was high expert with a 195 and Billings first marksman with a 177.

In match three, sitting and off-hand, Miss Mellott was high junior with a 189 score and Billings was first marksman with a 177.

In match four, prone and kneeling, John Smith was first expert with a 195, Miss Mellott was high junior with a 192 and Billings was first marksman with a 176.

In match five, four positions, Smith was high junior with a 582. Miss Mellott was first expert with a 390 and Billings was first marksman with a 325.

Other competitors were Gary Farran, Susan Billings and Gary Prentice.

Among the adult competitors Wava McIntyre, Portland, won three matches — sitting and kneeling (197), four position (396) and grand aggregate (1184).

Herb McIntyre, Portland, won one match — the 10 sitting and 10 kneeling (200).

John Bird, The Dalles, a frequent winner in years past, won one match — 10 prone and 10 kneeling.

Clyde Ruegg, Portland, won the Tolbert Trophy (10 prone and 10 kneeling) with a 199 score.

Boaters elect Gaines prexy

The Cascade Boating Club Inc. met this week in the KBND studios and elected Doug Gaines as president.

Other officers are John Richards, vice president, and Paul Marcandier, secretary-treasurer. Retiring president is Jess Perrine.

An interesting film was presented by Connie Hamre. The club voted May 30 as official boating outing for May, with all members, wives and interested boaters gathering at the Prineville Reservoir for a picnic lunch.

Next meeting will be 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 23, at KBND studios.

Montana eyed for title fight

BOSTON (UPI) — The on-again, off-again middleweight title match between Paul Pender and Gene Fullmer will be fought in Bozeman, Mont. in late June, if Pender's adviser has his way.

John J. Cronin Jr., counsel for Pender, champion of Massachusetts, New York and Europe, expects final arrangements for the fight to be completed within the next two weeks.

The same confusion that has clouded possession of the middleweight boxing championship for over two years has for the past 10 days surrounded the possibility of a title-clearing match.

Originally Pender and Fullmer were to fight in Bozeman on June 9. But that bout went out the window when the promoters, Sam Silverman of Boston and Norman Rothschild of Syracuse, were unable to find a willing television sponsor.

With the collapse of original plans, "three or four closed circuit promoters" moved in, according to Cronin, and hope to stage the bout late next month. However, Pender's counsel warned, the arrangements would have to be completed within the next two weeks or the fight probably would not take place until fall.

On the question of the fight site, Cronin says he has "no reason to believe it will take place anywhere other than Bozeman, Montana."

Packers sign Utah center

CHICAGO (UPI) — Billy McGill, Utah's star center who was the Chicago Packers' No. 1 draft choice, has signed his 1962 contract, the National Basketball Association club announced today.

The 6-9 McGill actually signed on April 30, but the announcement was held up pending conclusion of negotiations with Frank C. Lane.
