Klamath area votes for COC budget items

Northern Klamath County approved the Central Oregon Area Education District measures by a vote of approximately 2 to 1 in Friday's election.

District wide the measures were approved by a 5033 to 2791 for the bonds and 4795 to 2728 for the levy, the unofficial tabulation indicates. Still missing from the area vote is a small precinct in the Warm Springs reservation, in Wasco County. The vote from that precinct has been temporarily "lost" in the Wasco County returns, compiled in The Dalles.

Information from the Klamath County clerk's office reports that in votes cast in the Crescent Lake, Gilchrist and Odell Lake areas, bonds were approved 171 to 58 and the levy, 136 to 82.

In Lake County, the Fort Rock precinct voted in favor of the education bills. The bonds carried 31 to 8 and the tax levy 26 to 12.
