

Yogi's great catch 'robs' Detroit

By Fred Down
UPI Staff Writer

Move over Tris Speaker, Joe DiMaggio and Willie Mays. The Yankees have come up with a new ball hawk in their outfield. He's a squat, 36-year-old little guy named Yogi Berra and the glittering, key catch he made Tuesday night came as almost as much of a surprise to him as it did to Manager Bob Schefeling and the Detroit Tigers.

"Beat that for Yankee Luck," wailed Schefeling in the wake of the 2-1 Yankee victory that extended the Tigers' losing streak to five games. "We know he can beat us with the bat but to have him come up with a great catch in left field is too much!"

The erstwhile Yankee catcher made his brilliant, tumbling catch of a 410-foot bid for a triple or homer by Jake Wood in the fifth inning of Bill Stafford's six-hit triumph. It came with Dick Brown on base and preserved Stafford's 2-0 lead through the Detroit fifth inning. Stafford went on to shut out the Tigers until singles by Rocky Colavito, Vic Wertz and Chico Fernandez produced a run in the ninth and ended his string of 25 consecutive scoreless frames.

Catch Surprises Berra

Berra made his catch in deeper left field than Al Gionfriddo's famed World Series robbery of DiMaggio in 1947. He admitted he didn't think he could make it when the ball was hit.

"I thought it was gone over my head," Yogi said. "But I kept running, stuck out my glove and there it was."

Roger Maris' 11th homer of the season was the big blow of the seven-hit Yankee attack that earned Stafford his sixth win and dealt Frank Lary his fourth loss.

The win snapped the Yankees' three-game losing streak, and boosted them back into first place in the American League when the Los Angeles Angels beat the Minnesota Twins, 7-5.

The Boston Red Sox shaded the Baltimore Orioles, 4-3, and the Kansas City Athletics edged out the Chicago White Sox, 2-1, in other AL games.

The San Francisco Giants broke out of their six-game losing skid with 2-1 and 7-5 victories over the Cincinnati Reds; the Milwaukee Braves crushed the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers, 15-2; the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2; the Houston Colts defeated the New York Mets, 3-2; and the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, in National League games.

Twins Drop To Second
Lee Thomas homered in the third and seventh innings to help

Don Lee score his second straight victory for the Angels and drop the Twins into second place. Lenny Green hit a two-run homer for Minnesota in the ninth.

Frank Malone drove in three runs with a homer and a single and Pete Runnels had three hits for the Red Sox as Ike Delock won his first game while Dave Wickensham pitched a three-hitter against the White Sox enabling the Athletics to end their six-game losing streak.

Juan Marichal pitched a seven-hitter and singled home the winning run in the seventh inning of San Francisco's opener and Orlando Cepeda drove in four runs with his 16th and 17th homers of the season in the nightcap. Mike McCormick went 7-2-3 in the second game win although he needed help from both Stu Miller and Don Larsen to close out the game. Jim O'Toole and Moe Drabowsky were the losing pitchers for the Reds.

Podres Loses Fifth

The Braves hammered out 17 hits, including homers by Gus Bell, Eddie Mathews, Hank and Tommie Aaron and Frank Bolling, to tag Johnny Podres with his fifth defeat. Lew Burdette yielded nine hits but struck out eight to square his record at 4-4.

Fred Whitfield's two-run eighth-inning homer enabled the Cardinals to pull out their victory over the Phillies and give Don Ferrarese his first win; Joe Amalfitano climaxed a two-run last-of-the-ninth Houston rally to sink the Mets' Craig Anderson, and Harvey Haddix went 7-1-3 in the Pirates' fifth win for the season, who dealt Chicago's Glen Hobbie his eighth defeat against one triumph.

Murrays clips Randall nine 12-11

Murray Brothers clipped Gordon Randall 12-11 in a wild Rookie League game Tuesday at Harmon Field.

Randall, after trailing 11-9, had tied the game 11-11 in the top of the seventh.

In the bottom of the seventh Olson led off with a walk for Murray Brothers. Buckey struck out, but Curtis walked to put runners on first and second with one out.

Meyers struck out for the second out, but Blann knocked in the winning run with a drive deep to the outfield that scored Olson.

Blann and Damon each wound up with three hits — two doubles and a single each.

Gordon Randall was led by Hollenbeck's two singles. The loss dropped Randall into a first-place tie with Leico, 10-7 winners over

COR Monday.

Zora Folley KO's Paul Andrews

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Third-ranked heavyweight Zora Folley of Phoenix, Ariz., knocked out Paul Andrews of Los Angeles Tuesday night in the seventh round of their scheduled 10-round fight.

Folley cautiously toyed with the former second-ranked light-heavyweight for six rounds and then opened up with a volley of lefts and rights that staggered Andrews in the seventh.
