

A LOOK AT THE CIRCUS—Peeping through the circus keyhole in Bend on July 2 under auspices of the Bend Rotary Club. These are just two of the many clowns of the circus who will keep the Bend audience laughing.

HUMAN VOLCANOES—Pictured here in human volcano acts to be presented by Wenatchee, Wash., youngsters whose action are the vivacious Adams sisters as they demonstrate the ancient art of eating fire. They will be included in the varied circus has won national attention, including recent mention in the Saturday Evening Post.

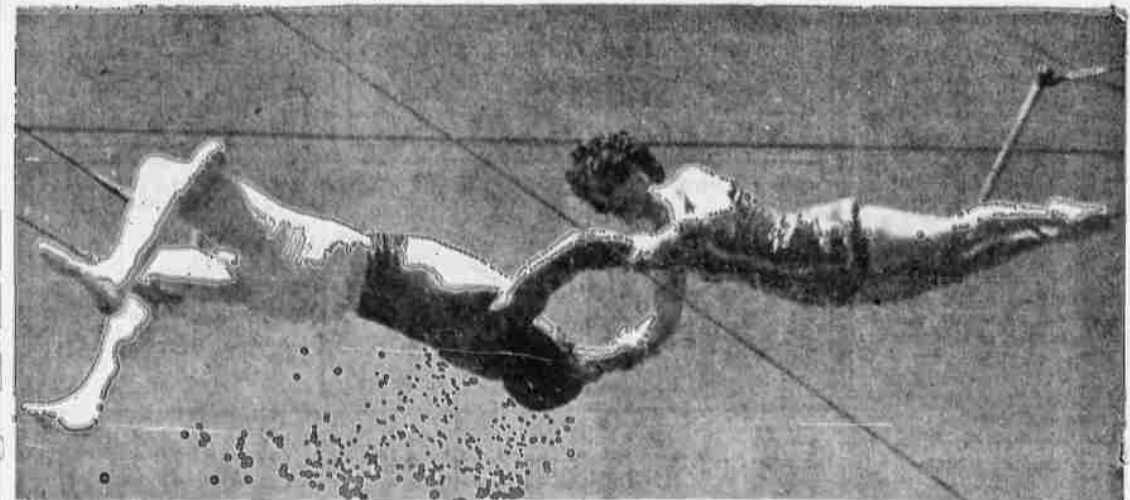

MIGHTY PRETTY PERFORMERS — A few of the many pretty performers who will be seen in Bend, at the Municipal Ball Park, on the afternoon and evening of July 2 are shown here clustered around veteran clown Chula as he poses atop one of the circus trucks. The Wenatchee youngsters have accumulated paraphernalia valued at $50,000.

PERCHED IN PERILOUS PYRAMID — Three of the Wenatchee Youth Circus performers booked to appear in Bend on July 2 under auspices of the Rotarians, in a community benefit, are shown here, perched in a pyramid atop a high wire some 27 feet in the air. The circus, with its varied program, will be presented at the ball park.

GUPPO THE CLOWN — Here, Guppo the clown contemplates his circus travels for 1962 as he finds that the Wenatchee Youth Circus, coming to Bend on July 2, will be traveling from California to Canada and from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountains. Children appearing in the circus range in age from 2 years to 18 years.

"SHE FLIES THROUGH THE AIR" — Yes, Karlene Charlock really flies through the air, as she appears here with a fellow performer in the Wenatchee Youth Circus, soon coming to Bend. Karlene displays flawless aerial form some 30 feet in the air with the flying return trapeze. Proceeds will be used in improving Bend play area.