

Tommy Davis bangs out 100th RBI for Dodgers

CHICAGO (UPI) — If it were April 1, the Los Angeles Dodgers would get credit for a rip-snorting joke in predicting Tommy Davis would have 100 runs batted in before Aug. 1.

But it's not April 1, and it's no joke — April fool or otherwise. Tommy has not only accumulated 100 RBIs, but is leading the National League with a .348 batting average.

The 100-mark is a goal most major leaguers just dream about, and it is particularly significant since Tommy achieved it by July 20, with almost half the season remaining.

The Dodgers, who sent ace right-hander Don Drysdale, 16-4, to the mound today against Don Ellsworth, 3-15, for the Chicago Cubs, stayed one game ahead of the San Francisco Giants Friday with an 8-2 triumph over the Cubs.

Stan Williams, in gaining his ninth pitching victory, exercised a personal jinx over the Cubs with his sixth straight win in Wrigley Field over the only team in the majors which has a bevy of managers.

Davis drove in four runs in the game with two singles, each coming with men on second and third base.

Trailing 2-0, the Dodgers tied the score with a pair in the fourth and sewed it up with four tallies in the fifth—all the latter being unearned. Ron Fairly, who also hit his 10th homer with a man aboard, Davis and John Roseboro singled in the four-run frame that sent Bob Buhl to the showers.

Williams was relieved in the eighth when he walked the bases full, and Ed Roebuck finished up. Three delays marred the game — one because of a shower, another time when head coach Charles Metro spotted someone with binoculars in the Dodger dugout, and a third when obstruction was called against Ernie Banks of the Cubs.

Theatrical sources estimated the musical was seen by 250,000 Norwegians.

Net tournament delayed by rain
CHICAGO (UPI) — The rain-delayed National Clay Courts tennis championships resumes today with a card of four quarterfinals in men's singles and double and two women's semi-final matches.

A brief but heavy thundershower drenched the River Forest Tennis Club Friday, leaving the clay courts too soggy for play. Officials said the 24-hour interruption would force the tournament to run through Monday. It was originally scheduled to end with men's and women's championship matches on Sunday.

Vikings won't join new loop

PORTLAND (UPI) — Portland State said today it will not join a proposed new basketball conference with schools from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Utah.

Branford P. Millar, the school's president, said the decision has been sent by mail to Idaho Athletic Director J. Neil (Skip) Stahley.

As proposed, the new basketball conference would include Idaho, Portland, Seattle, Gonzaga, Idaho State and Westminster of Salt Lake City.

Millar said the Vikings will remain in the Oregon Collegiate Conference. He said they would remain out of the proposed new group because "we have decided Portland State College does not have the facilities or personnel to enter such a league at the present time."

Switzerland, Austria best Olympic bets

By Hal Wood
UPI Staff Writer
STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — When the meeting of the International Olympic Committee is held in Africa next year, a dozen nations will probably be bidding for the honor of staging the 1968 games.

But the best guess is that they will go to either Lausanne, Switzerland, or Vienna, Austria, says Dan Ferris, ex-executive secretary of the National A.A.U., and still a member of the international body.

"There are increasing indications that Russia will not bid for the meet," says Ferris. "I know the United States will put in a strong bid. Detroit, Los Angeles and San Francisco all seem interested—although the interest may be dwindling in Detroit."

"But the 1964 games will be held in Tokyo—and it's very doubtful that the nations of Europe, which hold the balance of voting power, would be willing to travel as far as Japan and go as far as the United States the next year."

In fact, Ferris believes that the Europeans will demand that the meet be held in their area both in 1968 and 1972—and that it will be at least 1976 until the United States can get the games back here.

The last time they were in the United States was when the 1932 games were held in Los Angeles.

It is believed that Russia could have the games just for the asking. But it is reported that the Soviets have enough problems housing their own people without bringing in 7,000 more and trying to make arrangements for them.

Madras golfer has hole in one

Special to The Bulletin
MADRAS — Jim Nixon of Madras, had a golfer's dream come true last week when his perfect tee shot on the 90-yard fifth hole at the Madras Golf Club dropped into the cup.

It was the first hole in one for the Nixon who is employed on the Round Butte dam construction. He used a nine iron for the ace and was playing in a foursome during the men's day activities at the club.

Nixon's perfect shot was the second hole-in-one scored on the Madras course this summer.

AMARO JOINS PHILS

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Phillies have shipped outfielder Jackie Davis to Buffalo of the International League to make room on their roster for infielder Ruben Amaro, who rejoined the club Friday after a 60-day stint in the U.S. Army.

SALUTE SPACE PROGRAM

CHICAGO (UPI) — A salute to the United States space program will be made by the Conventry High School Band of Akron, Ohio, during the halftime program of the College All-Star football game Aug. 3, at Soldiers' Field and over ABC-TV at 10 p.m., EDT.

Net program to go daily for 3 weeks

The city recreation department tennis program will go daily (Monday through Friday) for the next three weeks, director Don Burd announced today.

The sessions will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. each morning instead of three times weekly as in the past.

Ladder rankings have been established for the daily play.

Leading the senior high girls division is Cheryl Hutchison, followed by Cheryl McGugin, Louise Lance, Jana Ince, Karen Van Hise and Linda, Mary and Roberta Jean Middleton.

In the junior high division, Sherry Halligan is on top followed by Malanie Domy and Ann Hatch. Shirley Ramsay leads the grade school girls division followed by Sharon Robertson, Mary Rose Hutchison, Patty Hatch, Kathy Goldsmith, Diane Howe and Kathy Olson.

In the beginners group Paul McGugin leads, followed by Tracy Hughes, Jill Robinson, Kathy Nelson and Randy Otto.

Jim Nelson paces the boys senior high division followed by Ron Gist, Fred Martin, Mike Mortlock, Jim Galbraith and Tim Hutchinson.

In doubles competition the team of Alyce Hutchison - Cheryl McGugin leads followed by Jim Nelson - Jim Galbraith, Mary-Linda Middleton and Jana Ince-Louise Lance.

The adult tennis program is planned 4:30 p.m. Sunday. Information can be obtained by calling Burd at EV 2-0782.

Portland zoo adds animals

PORTLAND (UPI) — The Portland zoo added two tigers, a monkey and a caribou Friday.

The tiger twins were born to Princeton and Lady, the zoo's Bengal tigers. Lady's previous offspring have had to be bottle-fed, but zoo veterinarian Dr. Matthew Maberry said she seems to be taking care of the latest arrivals.

A baby Sykes monkey also was born Friday.

The caribou, a three-week-old female named Trollet, was shipped to the zoo by Dr. A. W. Armstrong of Beaverton, Armstrong, employed by an oil firm, captured the caribou 145 miles north of Kotzebue, Alaska.

Salem girl wins talent trophy

SEASIDE (UPI) — Alice Berglund of Salem and Vickie Kinzer of Milton-Freewater won preliminary honors in the 16th annual Miss Oregon Pageant here Friday night.

Miss Berglund won a talent trophy and Miss Kinzer won a swimsuit award in the second night of judging in the three-day pageant. Miss Oregon will be selected to-night.

It was the second preliminary victory for the Salem entrant. She won in swimsuit competition Friday night. Judy Martin of Corvallis came in first in the talent judging in the opening night.

The winner of the pageant will be picked from 10 semifinalists, who were scheduled to be selected today. There are 22 girls competing for the title.

Miss Oregon will represent the state at the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City, N. J. Jody Bourne of Salem won the contest last year. She will crown this year's winner.
