Nursing home sale reported

Sale of the Ideal Nursing Home, 707 Delaware, to the Wichita Christian Academy, Inc., a Kansas corporation, was announced today by Mrs. M. F. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin established the home in 1932, remodeling the original stone house on the property.

Mrs. Harvey Drake, who has been employed at the home the past six years, has taken over the duties of manager. Miss Sarah Pengilly continues as registered nurse. There are eight other employees at the home, and all are being retained.

There will be no change in the operation at present, Mrs. Griffin said, and the new owners have agreed to meet all requirements of the State Board of Health and the office of the State Fire Marshal. Routine inspections by state officers are made regularly.

The home has a capacity of 18 patients, and usually has a waiting list. It has operated at full capacity almost continuously since the time it was established.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Griffin have made extensive improvements in the past 10 years, starting with

FORESEES GOP CLASH
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., has "little doubt" that the 1964 Republican presidential convention would produce a clash between backers of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Javits told a news conference Tuesday that liberal-conservative battles have occurred at most recent GOP presidential nominating conventions and "I think we can expect no less" in 1964.

Union Thanksgiving rites due at Prineville Thursday

Special to The Bulletin
PRINEVILLE — A Union Thanksgiving service will be held in Prineville at 10 a.m. Thanksgiving Day, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, corner of First and Holly Streets.

Program for the service was announced following a ministerial meeting of Prineville pastors Monday. Special music for the service will be provided by the combined choirs of the First Baptist Church, the Community Church and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. The 60-voice choir will be under the direction of Mel Lambert, Crook county school music supervisor.

The service will begin with a call to worship and invocation by Rev. D. V. Abbott, followed by the Lord's Prayer by the congregation. The Rev. Paul Flowers will conduct the responsive reading of Psalm 107 and the congregation will sing the hymn "Come Ye Thankful People."

The scripture lesson, Matt. 6:25-34, will be read by Rev. N. E. Raven, and the Rev. R. Clevenger will give a prayer of thanksgiving. The offertory will be conducted by Rev. Stanley Irvine. It was agreed by the ministers that the offering at the Thanksgiving service will be added to the sum which has been raised by the Prineville Rotana Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Laura Goss, for the construction of a chapel to be used jointly by the Pioneer Memorial Hospital and the Crook County Nursing Home. Rotanans have raised half of the estimated
