The toll jumped Wednesday night when at least 18 persons were killed in a collision between a speeding express and a stand-ing train near Liverpool, Eng-land. The accident happened during a snow storm. Some parts of England reported their coldest Christmas since the turn of the century. For London, with temperatures down to 29 de-grees, it was the coldest Yule since 1944. The unusual wintry conditions in Europe extended even to the normally balmy areas of Italy, France and Spain along the Mediterranean. Some ski resorts in the Alps were cut off from the outside for extended periods.

Britain led the traffic toll, with 97 persons killed in auto crashes during the four-day period ending with Christmas Day.
