Trainers keep secret Derby battle plans

By Ray Ayres
UPI Staff Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The closest guarded secrets at Churchill Downs today were the battle plans mapped out by trainers for Saturday's running of the $125,000 added Kentucky Derby.

The trainers will talk of their hopes and fears, the condition of their horses, how the animals can handle muddy or fast tracks and the trials and tribulations encountered in getting the horses to the post for America's greatest horse race.

But you couldn't torture out of them the instructions they intend to give the jockeys in the paddock prior to the 98th running of the Kentucky Derby.

"Are you going to let him run in front, come from behind or what?" innocently asked one reporter of Woody Stephens, who trains Cain Hoy Stable's Never Bend.

Stephens just grinned. Then he said, "I wouldn't even tell that to my wife."

Past Races Set Pattern

The pattern of racing to be expected of starters in the probable field of nine, with the possibility that a tenth will join them when the entries close today, is indicated by past races.

Thus Greentree Stable's No Robbery, which never has been worse than second at any stage of its races and usually goes to the front at the start, is most likely to set the pace in the Kentucky Derby.

That was the way Greentree Stable's son of Swaps won the Wood Memorial two weeks ago for his fifth victory without defeat.

OSU could upset Ducks in track test Saturday

CORVALLIS (UPI)—Coach Sam Bell of the Oregon State Track and Field team said today the Beavers have a chance in every running event against Oregon in their dual meet here Saturday.

Oregon, which has won 16 straight meets over the Beavers since Bill Bowerman has been the Webfoots' head coach, will be favored. However, Bowerman has been quoted as saying that Oregon must capture either the 440 or the mile relay to win.

Bell was hopeful that OSU sophomore Morgan Groth might pull an upset in the mile against Oregon's Keith Forman and Archie San Romani. Norm Hoffman of OSU has the fastest college time in the country this spring in the half mile, 1:49.5, while Oregon's Ray Van Asten has done 1:49.9.

U.S. favored in pentathlon, basketball

By Leo H. Petersen
UPI Staff Writer

SAO PAULO, Brazil (UPI)—United States athletes, pausing only briefly to cheer spectacular upset victories in the 10,000-meter run and the decathlon, expect today to win Pan American gold medals in the pentathlon and fencing in addition to setting up a triumph in basketball.

With 76 gold medals already accumulated, Uncle Sam's athletes are a good bet to equal or surpass the Pan American record of 120 gold medals won at Chicago four years ago.

Holds Team Lead

The United States is favored to start off the day by taking two gold medals in the pentathlon, can add more in the individual sabre fencing finals this afternoon and then figures to cap the day with a victory over Mexico in its next-to-last game in the basketball tournament. A U.S. basketball victory tonight will set up a "gold medal game" with Brazil, which also is unbeaten in the tournament.

The U.S. goes into today's fifth and final event of the pentathlon—the 4,000-meter cross country run—holding the team lead and running one-two in the individual competition.

Bend faces Redmond today in twin bill

By Web Ruble

Facing neighboring Redmond in a doubleheader this afternoon, Bend High School's baseball team will make a last gasp effort to chop the margin separating them from the loop leading The Dalles Indians.

Redmond Coach Buck Kauffman has not disclosed his starters.

Ruling sought on 'giveaways'

SALEM (UPI)—The Oregon Independent Retail Grocers Association voted Wednesday to ask the attorney general to decide whether or not grocery store "giveaways" violate the Oregon anti-lottery law.

The attorney general of Washington ruled earlier this week such "contests" are in violation of the anti-lottery law in that state.

Atty. Gen. Robert Thornton said he will be happy to meet with the grocers to discuss the matter.

Harold E. Carlson and Claude Hall of the association said the grocers' resolution is aimed at situations where a person gets a chance to win a prize via a ticket received for visiting a grocery store.

Lesser coast nines prove giant killers

By Ron Supinski
UPI Staff Writer

Last-place Denver and skidding San Diego ranked as giant-killers in the Pacific Coast League today following yesterday's rain-plagued schedule.

Three games were postponed because of rain or wet grounds. In the only two games played, home runs helped Denver overwhelm the Seattle Rainiers 11-3 and San Diego beat Salt Lake City 5-3.

Seattle, with an 11-5 record, is leading the PCL's northern division while the Salt Lake Bees hold a slim edge over Oklahoma City for the lead in the southern division.

Salt Lake and San Diego were tied 2-2 when Mel Queen of the Padres socked an inside-the-park home run to spark a four-run uprising in the seventh inning. He drove in three runs with the four-bagger.

Sharing the hitting spotlight with Queen was Chico Ruiz who drove in the tying run with a single. He also tripled in the first to set up San Diego's first run and singled before Queen connected for the circuit.

The win broke San Diego's losing streak at seven and halted a five-game winning streak for Salt Lake. Greg Jancich got the win, his first of the season. Bee starter Al Lary (2-2) was the loser.

At Denver, the lowly Bears exploded for six runs in the eighth to ice the victory over Seattle. Chico Salmon belted a two-run homer in the inning.

He also singled twice and drove in five runs for Denver. Dan Schneider (2-1) was the winning pitcher.

Seattle infielder Dave Hall hit a home run with one man on base in the top of the seventh to give the Rainiers a 3-3 tie. But Denver came back to take the lead with two runs in the bottom of the seventh.

Rain forced postponement of Hawaii at Portland, Dallas-Fort Worth at Spokane and Oklahoma City at Tacoma. As a result, Hawaii-Portland and Oklahoma City-Tacoma have scheduled doubleheaders for tonight. The Dallas-Fort Worth makeup game will be played at a later date.

Tourney of Champions starts today

By Hal Wood
UPI Staff Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—It's the defending champion Arnold Palmer and National Open and Masters king Jack Nicklaus against the star-packed field today as the first round of play gets under way in the $60,000 Tournament of Champions.

The crack group of 27 starts teeing off at 9 a.m. EDT at the Desert Inn Country Club course. Palmer and Nicklaus, golf's one-two punch, are rated 4-1 favorites to capture the $13,000 first place jackpot. Billy Casper, Tony Lema and Gary Player are next in line at 6-1; Doug Sanders is rated at 10-1 and Gene Littler, who has won this coveted crown three times already in its 10-year history, is 12-1.

Course Is Easier

The course is supposed to play easier this year because the rough isn't as deep as usual due to frost. But the temperature has been up around the 85-90 mark for the past four days.

"That rough must have grown six inches in some places," said Billy Maxwell, a 20-1 shot.

None of the golfers has been able to do much with shattering par 72. Nicklaus and Palmer played a practice round Wednesday with Bo Winingier and Bill Collins. Nicklaus and Collins had 69; Palmer a 70 and Winingier 73.
