

USC, Stanford Oregon still track greats

By United Press International
Track powers Southern California, Stanford and Oregon took dual meet wins over traditional rivals Saturday in a day without many upsets.

USC defeated UCLA for the 31st straight time 99-46 as the Trojans held UCLA's great C. K. Yang to 14 points.

The decathlon ace took wins in the broad jump and pole vault and had a second in the javelin and third in the high hurdles. Yang won the pole vault at 15 feet 6 and then missed three tries at a world record.

USC got a double win from Rex Cawley in the 440 and intermediate hurdles and Bob Pierce and Brian Pokinghorne both ran :14.1 in the hurdles to edge Yang at :14.2 in the day's best race.

Stanford's Dave Weill broke NCAA, stadium, meet and school records when he tossed the discus 193 feet 2 inches against California Saturday at Berkeley.

The Cards rolled 92-53 in the 68th Big Meet against California. Cal's Todd Gaskill hit the best college triple jump of the season, 49 feet 11 1/2 inches.

Cal's Roger Olsen won the high jump and javelin, but Stanford's Larry Quesada captured both sprints and Steve Cortright took both hurdles and a second in the triple jump.

Oregon downed Oregon State 80-65 as All American football star Mel Renfro ran the highs in :14.0 and broad jumped 25 feet 6 1/2 inches.

Keith Forman ran the mile in 4:03.2 to edge the Beavers' Morgan Groth (4:03.9) and Ducks Archie San Romani Jr. (4:04.7).

Washington State's mile relay team galloped 3:19.1 in the rain to give the Cougars a 74-71 win over the Washington Huskies.

San Jose State dominated an informal meet with the Spartan freshmen and the Santa Clara Valley Youth Center, but the Spartan yearlings cracked a national mark when they ran the 4-mile relay in 17:17.4, to break the former record by about 13 seconds.

San Jose State's Jeff Chase pole-vaulted for distance and went 28 feet 8 inches. Nobody could find a better mark on the books for this very unofficial event.

Fresno State dominated the CC-AA meet at Santa Barbara as the Bulldogs' Sam Workman won the sprints. Fresno had 75 1/2, Long Beach State 57, Los Angeles State 38, San Diego State 36 1/2 and the rest trailed behind.

Nevada, a coming track power, won 11 of 16 events to crush all opposition in the Far West Conference meet. Nevada's Alex Darnes tossed the discus 164 feet 7 inches.

COC affords relay surprise in 4-way meet

ASHLAND — Central Oregon College's surprising six-man track team provided the surprise of the day here Saturday when they took second places in two relays.

Humberto Rodriguez, Harold Still, Jim Reeves and Wayne McBride dashed home in the 440 relay in 46.8 seconds. In the mile relay, Central Oregon did the same with Rodriguez, Still, Reeves, and Don Barry.

Don Barry anchored the mile relay just after he finished taking second in the two-mile run. He covered the distance in 15:48 minutes. Still tied for fourth in the pole vault with a mediocre leap of 11'8".

Vern Wilcox competed in the shot put. Host Southern Oregon College won the meet going away with 123 1/2 points. The University of Pacific (Stockton, Calif.) took second with 38. Central Oregon was fourth with 13 1/2, and Southwestern Oregon was last with six.

Next week the Central Oregonians get back into their own track bracket when they dash into a four-way battle between Oregon College, Lower Columbia Junior College of Longview, Wash., and Southwestern Oregon of Coos Bay.

Denver rises out of cellar, Portland-Okla. rained out

By Ron Supinsky

Denver began seeing daylight today after escaping the Pacific Coast League cellar by getting potent plate power from a pitcher and rookie triple-A outfielder.

The Bears Sunday swept a doubleheader 11-3, 3-0 from the San Diego Padres, defending champions of the PCL.

In other games, Salt Lake City cooled off torrid Tacoma, 12-9, Dallas-Fort Worth nipped Seattle 1-0 on a ninth-inning home run by Joe Nosske, and Hawaii edged Spokane 6-3 only to have the Indians come back to beat the Islanders 6-3 in the nightcap of a doubleheader.

Rain washed out the Oklahoma City-Portland doubleheader in Oregon and also the second Dallas-Fort Worth game after two innings.

Six-foot southpaw Dick Kelley of Denver stifled San Diego in the clutch by going all the way to pick up his first PCL win. He personally accounted for three Bear runs with a triple and single. Chico Salmon and Phil Roof each added three safeties to Denver's 14-hit attack in its first-game rout of the Padres.

In the second game, Denver outfielder Ethan Blackaby, who played for Yakima in the Class B Northwest League last year, lamed a 375-foot home run over the right field fence with two on in the eighth. The blast came off San Diego starter Marvin Fodor who had allowed only three Bear hits up to then.

The victory moved Denver from the cellar to fourth place in the tight Southern Division.

Oddly enough, Dallas-Fort Worth replaced Denver in last place even though the Rangers beat Seattle. Gary Dotter went all the way for the Texans, allowing seven hits, and besting Wilbur Wood who was handed his first defeat against two victories.

Salt Lake's Bees pounded five Tacoma pitchers for 19 hits, including Hal Jones' fifth homer of the season, to break the seven-game winning streak of the red-hot Giants. Despite the loss, Tacoma owns the best record in the PCL at 13-7 and is in first place in the Northern Division.

Spokane's Al Ferrara bashed a three-run homer in the first inning of the second game against Hawaii to give the Indians a lead they never relinquished.

In the first game, Hawaii nipped Spokane in the top of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by outfielder Carlos Bernier, the Islander's leading hitter.

Portland U. loses twice

SEATTLE (UPI) — Seattle's Chieftains defeated the Portland Pilots 10-6 and 5-3 in a baseball doubleheader Saturday.
