

Winners of photo contest announced

The winners have been chosen in the recently concluded 2015 Wallowa County Digital Photo Contest, the now eight-year-old annual activity jointly sponsored by the Wallowa Valley Photo Club and the Wallowa County Chieftain.

The 2015 contest drew a total 371 submissions — including 316 adult division entries and 55 student entries (from photographers ages 17 and younger). That’s down from an overall total of 463 in 2014, a record year for submissions, but 2015’s participation level nonetheless ranks as second-highest in the contest’s history.

Judges from the Wallowa Valley Photo Club determined one set of winners — first through third places plus an honorable mention in both the Adult and Student divisions — and the public cast votes online at the Chieftain’s website to pick first through third

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BLAZE LEPPER

Slowed most of the season with an ankle injury, Enterprise’s 6’6” freshman Blaze Lepper became healthy and played a dynamic role Friday night when his varsity team upset Grant Union. Lepper grabbed nine rebounds, swatted away seven GU shots, and earned Athlete of the Week honors. “He can be great,” says his coach. “He just doesn’t realize his potential.” A native of the Enterprise area and the son of Brian and Trina Lepper, the 15-year-old athlete only has played two years of competitive basketball. To date, Lepper maintains a 3.05 GPA and plays no other sports. Described as a “gentle giant,” “calm and caring,” and “compassionate” by adults who work with and near him, Lepper maintains an affinity for 4-wheelers.
