

EXPLORE THE WALLOWAS

Everyone yearns for a clean break from routine, for a special getaway that truly takes a person away from it all.

Wallowa County is a special place where people can reconnect with the naturally beautiful world, recharging a person's energy and optimism. It offers superb hunting, fishing, hiking, riding and camping. It is where artists, writers and artisans thrive in the rarified atmosphere of mountain and lake, sky and canyon. Some of the happiest vacationers arrive here with no particular activity in mind - their only clear objective being to enjoy the breathtaking surroundings. (But hardly anyone arrives here by choice without having a camera at the ready!) Rodeos, festivals, Native American gatherings, and a rural American small-town atmosphere are part of the package.

Treat yourself to it; drink it all in.

Wallowa County both beckons and welcomes you.
