

Ag scholarships offered

The Wallowa County Agricultural Resource Foundation's 2015 scholarship application is now available. The Memorial Scholarship program awards college scholarships to local students majoring in agriculture and natural resource-related coursework. To be considered, students must be enrolled in a vocational certification program, or a two- to four-year college degree program or graduate program.

Applicants should live in Wallowa County and should have attended school in Wallowa County. Both graduating seniors and students presently enrolled in post-high school programs are eligible, with preference given to students in at least their second year of study.

Applications are available at the OSU Extension Office in Enterprise, or by contacting Phillip Ketscher at 541-263-1517. Completed applications must be delivered/postmarked no later than June 1, 2015.

WOLF SCULPTURE TAKES SHAPE

Steve Tool/Chieftain

Wallowa Valley artist Terri Malec works on a clay, soon to be bronze, wolf sculpture at her Edge of the Wilderness Gallery and Studio during the Mother's Day Artwalk in Joseph on May 9. At least a hundred people wandered through Joseph galleries admiring artwork and watching artists at work while enjoying the weather.

Hootenanny fundraiser turns 3

By Steve Tool
Wallowa County Chieftain

The third annual Hootenanny and Shoo-Fly Pie Social spring fundraiser for the Wallowa Valley Musical Alliance is scheduled for a May 17 performance. The event starts at 4 p.m. at the Odd Fellows Hall in Enterprise. Admission is $10.

The theme for this year's popular fundraising event will be The History of Country Music, featuring a cast of local artists performing songs from the 1920s through the 1960s by artists like the Carter Family, Bob Wills, Jimmie Rodgers, George Jones, Patsy Cline, and Johnny Cash.

"We picked the old-time country music theme because we thought it would be a lot of fun, and it will be," said Bob Webb, president of the WVMA board of directors.

Northwest Public Radio's Inland Folk host, Dan Maher, will emcee the event. Artists Ted Hays, Homemade Jam, Rich & Trilby Shirley, Heidi Muller, Gail Swart, Janis Carper, Carolyn Lochert, Bob Webb, John McColgan, Henry Kinsley, Caleb Samples, Darrell Brann, Meredith Brann, Bailey Vernam, Brian Oliver, Jessie Borgerding, Sue Juve and Tammy Kruger will perform.

Each year a variety of home-baked goods are offered to attendees for $1 per slice with a chance to vote for first, second and third prizes, so bring your best pie. Pies are numbered for anonymity in the voting.

Raffle prizes are also offered. Of particular interest is a custom pie plate made by Ted Juve of Olaf pottery to commemorate the event.

Proceeds from the Hootenanny go directly to fund Music Alliance programs. Webb said that much of the proceeds will go toward funding the Courthouse Concerts.
