

CARS: Event grows after year-long hiatus

June 12 includes registration and the Friday Night Social Hour from 4-6:30 p.m. at the Joseph Community Center for those who pre-registered, followed by the 7-11 p.m. Cruise Dance with music by the classic rock group The Senders. The dance has a $5 cover charge. The evening also includes a game in which a number of car parts are laid out for participants to guess which year and model of vehicle they come from.

The main event, the Show-N-Shine, takes place on Saturday, June 13, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Garrett emphasized that parking may start at 7 a.m. and no earlier. This is the event where the entries are judged. Voting will take place from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Senders will play the event from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Also scheduled is a golf cart challenge race complete with obstacles and a $100 prize. That event is open only to pre-registration participants.

Show-N-Shine features six classes for judging with first, second and third place prizes awarded. The classes include: hot rod, car or truck modified/custom, car or truck classic/restored, sports car, moonshine hauler, and a new class, rat rod.

Also included are several other awards, including people's choice, ladies' choice, and kids' choice awards. A "hard luck" award and "club participation" award are also offered. Show-N-Shine participants can elect not to enter the judged classes.

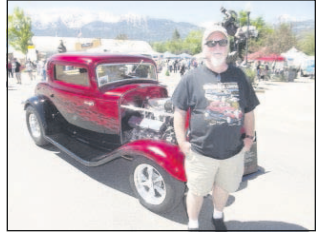

Prestigious honors include the "King of the Mountain" award and the "Ragman" award, which is awarded by the family of OMC founder Jim Tuschhoff, who passed away in 2005. The family bases the award on which vehicle they think Tuschhoff would have chosen. The award is announced at 2 p.m. and the winner leads a "Ragman Cruise" to Enterprise and back, starting at 3 p.m.

The schedule isn't much changed from previous years. "Since this is basic-ly a one-day event, there's not a lot we can add to it," Garrett said.

Even after 26 years, the event draws many participants who took part in the very first OMC in 1988. "People come from all over — Oregon, Washington, California, especially northern California, and Idaho. Generally the whole Northwest area," Garrett said.

Asked if he felt rested up after his hiatus, Garrett laughed. "I felt rested up until two months ago. This is going to be the biggest show we've had in a while, but we'll get it done," he said.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BILL PARKS

during the Dec. 7, 1941 attack. Activities Director, Lacey Doss, who also leads exercise classes said Parks is always on the go and even helps escort resident participants to and from the classes. "He's so much fun and he shows up at every class without fail. He has a great attitude and he's very chipper," Doss said.

Parks also steps up and leads the exercise classes if Doss is momentarily called away.

Parks struck a classic runner's pose and said, "Don't wast too many flashbulbs taking pictures."

This week's athlete of the week is Bill Parks, 94. Parks resides at Wallowa Valley Senior Living with his wife, Rusty.

Parks is a World War II veteran, who was also at Pearl Harbor
