

OBITUARIES

Jack Coleman
July 26, 1927 – May 17, 2015

Jack Edward Coleman, 87, of Jacksonville, formerly of Wallowa, died May 17, 2015, at his home in Jacksonville. Graveside services will be held Tuesday, July 7, 2015, at 11 a.m. at the Wallowa Cemetery.

Jack was born July 26, 1927, in Wallowa, to Harry and Pearl (McGinnis) Coleman. He graduated from Wallowa High School in 1945.

He is survived by his wife, Phyllis Jean Storms, whom he married in La Grande on Oct. 3, 1959; children, Jackie (Steve) Ramsing of Cambodia, Rebecca (Greg) of Central Point; grandsons, Patrick Ramsing, Peter (Allison) Ramsing; older sister Geraldine Melton.

His parents preceded him in death. Jack served in the US Navy at the end of WWII and was called back to duty for the Korean War where he served on the USS Kermit Roosevelt.

Jack was self-employed and founded Coleman & Chrisman Insurance in 1956. He also prepared many income tax returns until his retirement in 1989. At that time Jack and Phyllis became "snow birds" and spent many winters in Yuma, Ariz. In 1989 Jack and Phyllis moved to Eugene to be closer to Jackie and her family. In 2008 they sold their place and moved to Yuma full-time. Due to health reasons, they moved to Jacksonville, Ore., in 2013 to be closer to their youngest daughter Rebecca.

Jack and Phyllis ventured all over the United States, Canada and abroad visiting family, friends and would usually run into someone they knew along the way. Jack loved to cook, and among family and friends was known for his amazing meals. He also assisted Santa Claus for many many years in helping spread joy and putting smiles on children's faces during the Holiday Season.

Jack was a lifetime member of the Masonic Lodge, Charter Member of the Elks Lodge, member of the Wallowa Methodist Church, and for many years was the Veteran's Officer for Wallowa County.

Following the service, the family invites you to the Wallowa Senior Center to share your stories and celebrate Jack's life. In lieu of flowers, suggested memorial contributions may be made to the Shriner's Hospital for Children of your choice, Wallowa Methodist Church Memorial Fund, or the Jack Coleman Memorial Scholarship Fund, Wallowa High School (contact info: Wallowa School Foundation, c/o Dawn Crow, PO Box 533, Wallowa, OR 97885).

Graveside service arrangements by Bollman Funeral Home, Enterprise.

Jack Shine
April 27, 1925 – June 24, 2015

Jack Gartzke Shine died June 24, 2015 at his home near Hillsboro. Jack was born April 27, 1925, the oldest of four children of Franklin J. Shine and Irene Gartzke Shine. He was born on the family's homestead in the Promise area of Wallowa County. Frank ran a freight line between Elgin and Joseph, and later worked other jobs, including logging and working for the Civilian Conservation Corps. Irene had proved up her own homestead in the Grossman area, operated a bakery in Wallowa, and worked as a dressmaker.

Although Frank and Irene worked hard to support the family, there was often no money. In 1937, the family lost the homestead for $67 in back taxes. The family moved into town and rented a home on the Ben Curtiss property on the Wallowa River. The children all attended the Lower Valley Grade School. Jack continued his schooling in Wallowa, and was active in the Boy Scouts and the Future Farmers of America. His primary activity, however, was working every minute he could, in order to help support the family. He graduated from Wallowa High School in 1943. Jack enjoyed attending many of his WHS alumni reunions over the years, including his 60th, in 2013.

In 1943, the family left Wallowa and moved to a farm on Chehalem Mountain near Hillsboro. While helping build and operate the family farm, Jack worked in logging and worked at the Elmer Standish sawmill near Laurel. He was in demand among the local farmers as a hired hand, and for a time he operated a Jersey dairy farm.

After several years of working on the family's farm, Jack took ownership of a portion of the original property, which would be his happy home for the remainder of his life. He was drafted into the army in 1953 and was stationed in Virginia, then at Fort Lewis in Tacoma, Wash., until his discharge in 1957. Jack married Lorraine Faye Payne on Dec. 16, 1953. Jack and Lorraine made their home on their Chehalem Mountain farm, and worked very hard to establish their farm and their family. They raised their three children here, and lived here for the remainder of both of their lives.

Jack spent the majority of his working career, beginning in 1959, working as a surveyor for the Oregon State Highway department. He and his crew worked on many projects that are very familiar to locals: Highway 47 near Gaston/Forest Grove, WWII Veteran's Highway (I-205), the Fremont Bridge, the Glenn Jackson Bridge and the Vista Ridge tunnel.

Jack remained an active member of his community as long as he was able. He continued farming his land, helping with church and school projects, helping his kids with projects, and even helped with cleanup after severe flooding in the area. Jack was a longtime member of the Laurelwood Seventh-day Adventist church. He was a man of faith and a gentle, loving example of how to be a man and a father.

Jack is survived by Randall and Patricia Shine of Gaston, Valden and Deborah Shine of Hillsboro, and Jennifer and Daniel Eddy of Hillsboro, five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. His sister, Jean Shine of Hillsboro and his brother, Donn Shine of Hillsboro, also survive him. Our mother, Lorraine Payne Shine, passed away in September of 2004. Jack's brother, Paul Shine also passed away in 2004.

Cayle Krebs
March 11, 1985 – June 20, 2015

Cayle H. Krebs, 30, of Ione, died Saturday, June 20, 2015 as the result of a motor vehicle accident near Prineville. A graveside service will be held Monday, June 29, 2015 at 10:30 a.m. at the Arlington Cemetery at Arlington, Ore., with a Celebration of Life beginning at 2 p.m. at the Ione High School Gym in Ione.

He was born March 11, 1985 at The Dalles, the son of Skye and Penny Patnode Krebs. Cayle was raised and attended school in Ione and Wallowa, graduating from Ione High School in 2003. He was an Ione Cardinal and active in all sports. Cayle was an All Star Football player and a finalist in track and field events. He then attended Oregon State University in Corvallis where he graduated in 2007. He was a member of the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity, serving as vice president, and he also served as vice president of the Young Cattlemen's Association as well.

After college he returned to the family ranch as a partner in the Krebs Sheep Company out of Ione and Wallowa. Cayle was on the board of the Western Range Association, a member of the Oregon Sheep Growers and the Oregon Cattlemen's Association.

Cayle recently became engaged to Janey McCormack of Hermiston.

Survivors include his parents, Skye and Penny Krebs of Ione; Fiancé Janey McCormack of Hermiston; sister, Sybil Stewart and her husband Jason of Heppner; brother, Kip Krebs and his fiancé Sarah both of Ione; grandfather Henry Krebs and his wife Robin of Ione; grandmothers Dode Krebs of Pendleton and Syb Patnode of Cle Elum, Wash.; nephews, Tripp Stewart and Jett Stewart of Heppner.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alpha Gamma Rho Foundation, 331 NW 26th St., Corvallis, Oregon 97330, the Ione Booster Club, P.O. Box 4, Ione, Oregon 97843 or to the Wallowa High School FFA Chapter, P.O. Box 425, Wallowa, Oregon 97885.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.
