2016 4-H COURT NAMED DURING AWARDS PROGRAM

Ella Anderson, Lexie Gassett and Madison McDowell, all of Enterprise, will be in the public spotlight frequently during the next 12 months as members of the 2016 4-H

Court. The selection of the three was announced at the end of the Aug. 8 awards program of the 2015 Wallowa County Fair.

All three girls have been highly active members of 4-H, and that pace will only increase as they take part in parades, conferences, and other events, most of them community-oriented.

Anderson is entering the 8th grade at Enterprise Junior High while Gassett and McDowell are incoming freshmen at Enterprise High School. The three succeed Teagan Miller, Deidre Schreiber and Georgia Falk on Wallowa County's 4-H Court.

Coaches set EJH practices

Enterprise Junior High's volleyball and football teams have announced times for initial practices.

Volleyball players will practice Wednesday, Aug. 26, from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the small gym. Players should come prepared to practice after a short informational meeting. For more information, contact Lisa Farwell, 541-426-6375, or Tori Christman, 541-426-6507.

EJH football coach Kyle Crawford set his players' first practice for Monday, Aug. 24, from 4 to 5:30 p.m. The team will meet in the junior high locker room. Players should bring regular gym clothes. For more information, contact Terry McCready in the high school office, 541-426-3193.

Wallowa Pomona Grange #22 made their Outstanding Community Citizenship Awards at the Wallowa County Fair last Saturday and honored Linda Koloski of Enterprise and Nancy Cannon of Flora.

The two awards recognize both a granger (Cannon) and a non-granger (Koloski) for extraordinary public service in their community.

Granger Award: Cannon, a member of the North End Grange in Flora, has been chairperson of Grange Workers Activities for six years and is well known throughout the county for her willingness to pitch in any time a service organization or individual asks for help. As an example, she sewed one third of the 205 satchels made as gift bags for attendees of the State Grange Session held in Pendleton in June/July.

Cannon often makes her work with the Grange a family affair, ringing along her husband, children and grandchildren as volunteers.

will recognize Koloski as the cook at the VFW Hall in Enterprise. Her husband Mike is a retired U.S. Coast Guard officer and the couple's two sons are also both in the military. Linda is an officer in the VFW Auxiliary and is well known for her many services in the veterans community including cooking for the Memorial Dinner at the fair and helping wrap 300 boxes for Elks Christmas baskets every year.

She has been a member of the Wallowa Mountain Quilters Guild and chairs the "Quilts of Honor" program that makes quilts for the WWII veterans in the community. She and her husband also helped organize the local chapter of the Parkinson's Support Group and are very active in the arts community.
