

Wallowa County Cultural Trust offers grants for arts and humanities

The Wallowa County Cultural Trust Coalition says it has approximately $6,000 available for grants supporting the arts, humanities, heritage and culture in Wallowa County for 2016. Grants are generally given in the amount of $250-$1,000. Individuals and organizations are encouraged to apply. Projects must contain a public component that increases access to local culture.

Applications are available online through the Wallowa Valley Arts Council website under Partnership Organizations (www.wallowavalleyarts.org/partnership). They may also be requested from Janet Pulsifer by emailing her at janet.pulsifer@gmail.com.

For more information, phone 541-398-0189.

Applications for 2016 must be received by Oct. 31,

2015. The WCCTC will meet immediately afterward to review applications, make decisions and notify applicants.

The Oregon Cultural Trust was created under the direction of the state legislature, Oregon counties and the Confederated Tribes of the state with the purpose of awarding grant funds to support endeavors that promote arts, humanities and local heritage.

OBITUARIES

Glen Knopf

Feb. 23, 1927 – Sept. 11, 2015

Glen Irving Knopf, 88, of Walla Walla, Wash., formerly of Wallowa County, died Sept. 11, 2015, at 4:30 a.m. Glen was born on Feb. 23, 1927, in Miles City, Mont., to Irving Knopf and Martha (Wynes) Knopf. He served in World War II as a US Navy diver in the Pacific Theater.

Glen married Doris June Neuhauser on April 5, 1946, in Bremerton, Wash. Glen spent the first six decades of his life in Kitsap County with his wife and three children. He owned and operated Bremerton Music Company and later Glen's Guns. He also was a deputy reserve officer for the Bremerton Police Department and the Wallowa County Sheriff's Department. He relocated with Doris to Wallowa County in 1989. He later wed his second wife Lauretta Cummins on Aug. 1, 1999, and relocated to Walla Walla.

Glen was a sportsman, adventurer, scuba diver and poet. He also enjoyed hunting as well as marksmanship, and was always willing to share the simple joy of fishing. Later in life he realized one of his dreams, and learned how to fly.

Glen was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Doris. He is survived by his second wife Lauretta, his three children, Eric (Poppy) Knopf of Poulsbo, Wash., Luane Clymo of Haines, Ore., and Suellen (Leo) Johnston of Bremerton, five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, his sister Sally (Lynn) Zoric of Colorado, and two nephews.

A graveside service was held on Sept. 18 at Blue Mountain Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Walla Walla.

Ielene Kuhn Searles

Feb. 1, 1926 – Sept. 9, 2015

Ielene Ruth Kuhn Searles, 89, passed away peacefully Sept. 9, 2015. A public graveside service will be held Saturday, Sept. 26, 2015, at 11 a.m. at the Enterprise Cemetery with a luncheon to follow at the Enterprise Christian Church.

Ielene was born in Joseph to her parents Harold and Goldie Kuhn.

She was raised on the family ranch in the Paradise Ridge area where she went to grade school.

She attended Enterprise High School, graduating in 1944. She married Victor Keith Searles on May 2, 1945, at which time Keith was serving in the Army-Air Corps during WWII. Together, they farmed on Alder Slope and raised four children.

Ielene was preceded in death by her parents, husband Victor Keith, sister Noma Martin, and daughter Susan Jill. She is survived by son Kerry Searles of Enterprise, son Kent Searles of Tillamook, and daughter Jolene Searles of Joseph. She has 10 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren.

Ielene was a longtime member of Enterprise Christian Church. She served as a Cub Scout den mother and a Girl Scout leader, and was active in the Oregon Eastern Star.

In lieu of flowers, and upon her request, she has asked that any desired donations be made to the Enterprise Christian Church Building Fund, 207 E. Main St., Enterprise, OR 97828.

Deborah Love

Jan. 26, 1951 – Sept. 13, 2015

Deborah Ruth Love, 64, of La Grande, passed away at home with her family by her side on Sunday, Sept. 13, 2015. A memorial service was held at Loveland Funeral Chapel on Monday, Sept. 21.

Deborah was born Jan. 26, 1951, in Enterprise to John and Ruth (Hale) Kriwox. She resided in Wallowa where she graduated from high school. She met William E. Love of Keating and they were married on Feb. 27, 1970, in Las Vegas, Nev. They would soon move back to Wallowa where they raised two boys, Gabe and Willie. Deborah was a dedicated wife, mother and grandmother.

Deborah is survived by her husband, William (Bill) Love; son, Gabe of La Grande; son, Willie and his wife Corrie of Corvallis with their children Brock and Piper; parents, John and Ruth Kriwox of Wallowa; brother, AJ Kriwox and his wife Jean of Jerome, Idaho, and seven nieces and nephews.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.lovelandfuneralchapel.com.

SERVICE NOTICES

Susan McKean Collett

Two memorial gatherings will be held on Sunday, Sept. 27, for Susan McKean Collett.

The Wallowa Buddhist Temple will offer an open time for silent reflection for Susan, who died Aug. 12 at her Wallowa Lake home. All are welcome to come at any time between the hours of 1 and 3:30 p.m. to sit quietly and pay their silent respects for as long as they wish in the stillness of the temple's meditation hall at 62916 Hurricane Creek Road, Joseph.

Susan's Celebration of Life Gathering will be held at the Joseph Center for Arts and Culture from 4 to 8 p.m. It will have the feel of an art opening. Susan's artwork and jewelry will be on display. There will be food and drink along with live music. At 5:30 there will be an opportunity for sharing of tributes, stories and fond memories.

For more information, please call the temple at 541-432-6129 or Kathleen Drake at 541-432-0871.

Irene McNall

A service for Irene McNall, 88, of Joseph, will be held Sunday, Sept. 27, 2015, at 2 p.m. at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Enterprise. There will be a private interment at the Enterprise Cemetery. Bollman Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

Thank You

The family of Vadna Norton express our thankful gratitude to all that have expressed condolences on the loss of our loved one. Your words of comfort and acts of kindness are greatly appreciated.

Thank you to Pastor Dan Dotson in presiding at grave site services and thank you to the Hurricane Creek Grange for a delicious lunch for all that could attend.

Thank you to Bollman Funeral Home in their compassionate aspect to make sure our family was taken care of.

Blessings.
