Blue Mountain Eagle

NORTH POWDER — Looking for a winter wonderland?

Anthony Lakes Mountain Resort, which already has a good base of snow pack, is up and running for skiing fun, live music, youth lessons and more.

Here are some upcoming events at the resort:

- Thursday, Dec. 24: Ski with Santa on Christmas Eve. Santa will be available for skiing and photos from 10 a.m. to noon.

- Saturday, Dec. 26: Live music with Johnny and the Lawbreakers.

- Thursday, Dec. 31: Celebrate New Year's Eve with live music by The Hook from 3-6 p.m.

- Sunday, Jan. 3: Free Nordic Day.

- Sunday, Jan. 10: Elkhorn Classic Nordic Race.

Coming up in January are free skiing and snowboarding lessons for fifth- and sixth-graders. The eight-week program starts Sunday, Jan. 3. Registration is from 9-10 a.m. every Sunday downstairs in the main lodge. Youth must be accompanied by an adult, and they must bring school ID or a current report card. Participants receive a free lift ticket, rental and mandatory lesson.

Enterprise employed a press after falling behind, but the Rockets handled the pressure fairly well.

"I wanted to press a good team, and we really pushed pressing the entire day," coach Mike Crawford said. "We turned them over plenty, but we just didn't capitalize near as much as they did."

Senior Madison Dave was a force for the Rockets on both ends of the court. When Enterprise shots were off the mark, Dave was there for the rebound. She also contributed 13 points, including a 3-pointer to put Pilot Rock up 13-6 at the end of the first quarter.

Crawford said his team was slow to challenge the Rockets' shots.

"We just can't allow open looks without any defense in the area," he said. "I think we'll be better than that. We'll see."

The Outlaws also got six points from sophomore Gracie Carlsen and four from junior Reagan Bedard.

Jacey Wilson added eight points for Pilot Rock, all in the second half.

Enterprise 57, Pine Eagle 12: The Outlaws smothered the Spartans from the start and led 25-0 after the first quarter on Friday. Six Enterprise players scored at least six points — Eliza Irish (10), George (8), Carlsen (8), Riley Gray (7), Aschenbrenner (6) and Reagan Bedard (6).

On Saturday, Pine Eagle senior Kelsey Whybark had to be carried off the court after suffering a late injury against Elgin. A Pine Eagle representative later said Whybark was wearing a protective boot but that no bones were broken and she is expected to return to the court this season.

Boys

Enterprise 53, Pilot Rock 40: The Outlaws found their shooting touch in the consolation game Saturday. They buried the Rockets with nine 3-pointers including four from senior Justin Exon, who hit one at the buzzer to put Enterprise up 25-15 at the half. Exon finished with 12 points. Sophomore Jimmy Wells connected on three 3-pointers and finished with a team-high 19 points.

Rylie Hayward contributed eight points, and Blaze Lepper added six.

"This was a complete turnaround from Friday's showing," coach Ron Lathrop said. "The entire team played well. Blaze Lepper and Brett Green-shields did a great job on the boards. Justin Exon shot exceptionally. The team as a whole played well."

Pine Eagle 46, Enterprise 41: The Spartans of the 1A Old Oregon League brought just seven players to the tournament, but they established an early lead and held on to upset the host Outlaws on Friday night. Hayward hit on three 3-pointers, but the outside shots weren't falling for Enterprise. Post player Brett Green Shields led the way with 12 points. Kobe Ketscher added seven points, with five in the final period.

"This was not a very good showing for the team as a first game in front of home crowd," Lathrop said. "We didn't play well with either with the inside game or outside game — we just couldn't make a basket."

Pine Eagle steered clear of foul trouble and got double-digit scoring from three players.

WRESTLING

"It's a big, tough tournament with big schools that pushes my stronger kids and is tough on my other kids, but that's how you get better," Farwell said.

Joseph Charter School's meet in Culver featured 18 teams and more than 260 wrestlers. Coach Tim Kiesecker said the team placed 14th in the match.

Kiesecker was happy with his team's performance.

"We took seven wrestlers to Culver and we got two into the finals," he said. "It's a tough one. We got second place with Steven Beckman at 106 lbs wrestling a kid from Central Linn. Raymond Seal at 160 lbs.

also got second wrestling a returning state wrestler from Lowell, and came off the mat fairly happy he didn't get pinned. Rylie Warnock got sixth wrestling at 182, so we didn't do too bad."

All three of the county's teams will meet at the Elgin Invitational on Dec. 18-19.

Enterprise Muilenberg results: 113 lbs, Shane Lund, (4-2) Cons. 1st; 120 lbs, Clayne Miller, (6-2) Consolation 1st; 120 lbs, Cole Farwell, (4-2) Champ Round 2; 170 lbs, Zylar Hermens (3-4) Cons. Round 3. Enterprise placed 21st of 22 teams.

Joseph Culver Invitational results: 106 lbs, Steven Beckman (3-1) placed 2nd. 160 lbs, Raymond Seal (5-2) placed 2nd; 182 lbs, Rylie Warnock (5-4) placed 6th. Joseph placed 14th of 18 teams.

The Eagles also got 11 points and 18 rebounds from Satori Albee. Natalie Williams contributed four assists in the loss.

Arlington 54, Wallowa 15: Beth Johnston led the way with five points Friday for Wallowa. Marybeth Hulse added three, and the Cougars got two each from Riley Ferre, Josie Scott and Savannah Nobles.

Arlington 50, Joseph 46: Albee had 18 points and 17 rebounds, but the Eagles came up just short Saturday against the Honkers, who sealed the win with late free throws. Sykora added nine points, and Lauren Maken had seven points and five rebounds. The Eagles

(3-3) take on Orofino (ID) at home Thursday before opening league play Saturday at Powder Valley.

Imbler 53, Wallowa 12: The Cougars managed just 3 points in the first half Saturday against the Panthers. Nobles and Rylee Goller each had team-high three points for Wallowa. The Cougars are now 1-5 on the season and will open league play Friday at Nixyaawii.

Boys

Imbler 58, Joseph 47:

The Eagles had a much better showing Friday the second time around against the Panthers, who trounced Joseph by 39 points the previous weekend at the JEF Invitational in Joseph. Four players contributed at least seven points, but the Eagles couldn't find an answer for Imbler's Trace VanCleave, who poured in 31 points. Aaron Borgerding led the way with 12 points for Joseph. Jake Chrisman added 10, Cayden DeLury 9 and Deni VanWinkle 7. Imbler led 16-5 after the first period and never looked back.

Arlington 42, Wallowa 32: Christopher Nobles led the way for the Cougars on Friday with 11 points. Cole Hafer added eight points, Chandler Burns had seven and Koby Frye scored six for Wallowa.

Joseph 46, Arlington 34: DeLury went off with 26 points Saturday for the Eagles, who improved to 3-3 with the win. Eighteen of his 26 points came in the first half. Cody Stone chipped in 10 points, including a pair of 3-pointers. Joseph will begin league play Saturday at Powder Valley.

Imbler 37, Wallowa 16: Frye and Nobles led Wallowa with four points each Saturday against the tournament champs. The Cougars dropped to 0-5 on the season with the loss and will open league play Friday at Nixyaawii.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Enterprise sophomore Jimmy Wells is this week's athlete of the week. Wells, 15, plays guard on the boys basketball team.

During the past week, Wells sank three 3-pointers as leading scorer for the Outlaws with 19 points during a 53-40 victory over Pilot Rock in the consolation game of the Enterprise Winter Classic on Dec. 12.

Wells also scored six points in the Outlaws Dec. 11 losing effort to Pine Eagle. Earlier this year, Enterprise coach Ron Lathrop pointed to Wells as an up-and-coming player, saying, "He'll step up this year and play a big part." Wells is the son of Larry and Ilene Wells of Enterprise.
