

OBITUARIES

Marilyn Jane Anderson
Jan. 30, 1931 to Feb. 2, 2016

Marilyn Jane Anderson was born Jan. 30, 1931 in McMinnville, Ore., the oldest of two daughters, to William Joel and Sarah Wynona (Wood) Martin. Her father William passed away when she was age 4.

Her mother later remarried Arthur Robertson and the family relocated to Dufur, Ore. She graduated as valedictorian of her class in 1948 from Dufur High School.

On May 23, 1948, she married Sander Anderson, also of Dufur. Their two sons, R. Charles and Randal L., were born in The Dalles. Sander was employed by the U.S. Forest Service and they transferred to Enterprise in 1954 and their daughter Mari Lynn was born there. Marilyn also was employed by the Forest Service for a time and later worked as a secretary/bookkeeper for Boise Cascade at the mill in Joseph.

The couple later divorced and Marilyn worked at Milligan Motors in Enterprise before moving to Gresham to work for another car dealership. Marilyn returned to Enterprise and began work for the State of Oregon as the clerk of the District and Circuit courts.

She enjoyed hunting in her earlier years and later her passions were golf, playing cards and spending time with her children and grandchildren.

She is survived by her children: Chuck (Linda) Anderson of Enterprise, Randy (Sandy) Anderson of The Dalles and Mari Lynn (Lon) Andrade of Enterprise; eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; sister Roma Anne; former husband Sander and grandson Barry Anderson.

Funeral mass will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 13 at St. Katherine's Catholic Church in Enterprise. Private interment to follow.

Glade A. Jackson
Feb. 28, 1939 to Feb. 2, 2016

Glade A. Jackson, 76, of Wallowa passed away Feb. 2, 2016, at Grande Ronde Hospital in La Grande.

Glade was born Feb. 28, 1939 in Lyman, Utah, to Alpheus and Gretta Cecelia (Clawson) Jackson. He resided in Lyman, Utah, Fruitland, Idaho, La Grande and Wallowa. He graduated from Fruitland High School.

Glade served our country while in the U.S. Army in Korea. He married his one true love, Gail Margaret Wigand, in Idaho Falls LDS Temple 47 years ago.

Glade was employed at the Federal Forest Service and at Boise Cascade Elgin Plywood Plant. He was a former Union President for Elgin Boise Cascade and was a Board Member for the Wallowa School District. He enjoyed farming, gardening, raising cattle and fishing. Glade would strike up a conversation with anybody. He was a life-long member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Glade is survived by his wife Gail of Wallowa; children Sonia of La Grande, Roy (Jessica) of Creswell, Ore., Lynn (Dawn) of Astoria and Michelle of Provo, Utah; brothers Boyd Jackson (Delores) of Fruitland, Jeron Jackson (Mary) of Union, Ore., Joseph Condie (Carol) of Arco, Idaho and George Condie (Marsha) of Boardman, Ore; sister Deanna Wilson (Olen) of Nyssa, Ore.; and seven grandchildren.

Glade was preceded in death by his parents, Alpheus and Cecelia, and brother Vance Jackson.

A viewing will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 13 at the Enterprise Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, with a funeral service at 11 a.m.

Special thanks to Riverside Adult Foster Care, Grande Ronde Hospital and Wallowa Memorial Hospital.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.lovelandfuneralchapel.com.

David Reavis Mann
Dec. 19, 1942 to Feb. 2, 2016

David Reavis Mann passed away at his home in McAllister, Mont., with his wife Elisabeth, sons Chris and David, grandson Gabe and his beloved sister LeeAnn at his side. He was born in Klamath Falls to Peggy Lee Reavis (formerly of Enterprise) and Walter Eschebeck. David was raised on a cattle ranch in Stanfield and attended Hermiston High School. The Oregon State Athletic Association (OSAA) named him first team All-State in 1960. He was the first Hermiston High School basketball player to earn that distinction.

David attended Colorado State University on a basketball scholarship and pursued his lifelong desire to become a veterinarian. He later received his master's degree in public health from the University of Michigan. David married Sherrill Hess after college and joined the Air Force. He was stationed in Tokyo, Tacoma, Ann Arbor, Mich., San Antonio and Honolulu. While in Tokyo, he supervised and cared for the sentry dogs and traveled extensively to Vietnam to oversee their care. During those years, David and Sherrill had three children: Chris, Jill and David.

David retired from the Air Force in 1979 and established a successful veterinary practice in McMinnville. There he married his second wife, Elisabeth Hermesen. In 1996, David sold his practice and moved to his ranch outside of McAllister, where he lived out his life doing what he loved: hunting, fishing, traveling, visiting his children and grandchildren and farming, as he had always done. David was blessed with movie-star good looks and a personality to match. He made friends wherever in the world he went and was much loved by them and his family.

David and Elisabeth were very involved with Child's Passport to Health Foundation. During their participation, they provided a home and care for eight children from other countries undergoing medical treatment.

David was preceded in death by his mother Peggy Lee Mann, father Walter Eschebeck, step-father Irvin Mann, his first wife Sherrill and his only daughter Jill Thornton. He is survived by his wife Elisabeth, sons Chris (Tracey) and David (Kari), brother Linc (Pat), and sisters LeeAnn Eggleston (Don), Julie Eubanks (Mark) and Debbie Buhler (James Martin).

There will be a private service this summer. Memorial contributions may be made to Child's Passport to Health.

Greg Dixon
June 25, 1952 to Jan. 29, 2016

Greg Dixon passed away Jan. 29, 2016 in Halfway, Ore. A celebration of Greg's life was held Feb. 6 at the Pine Valley Grange in Halfway.

Greg was born in Tokyo on June 26, 1952 and was a Cancer Sun, Scorpio rising and Leo moon. He grew up in a military family and moved around with his parents and two younger brothers, living in Alaska, Texas and Lakeview, Ore., where he graduated high school while excelling on the swim team. Following graduation, Greg traveled extensively around the United States and Central America and worked fighting fires, welding, harvesting produce and peddling various goods. He attended Treasure Valley Community College and Eastern Oregon University, where he studied welding and psychology.

Greg enjoyed practicing meditation and Jin Shin Jyutsu and sharing stories about Bigfoot. Since he first saw a statue of Buddha as a toddler in Tokyo, Greg was fascinated, and you will find a Buddha inside any of his homes or vehicles. Greg was well-known for questioning popular beliefs and was his liveliest when surrounded by others, especially those who would share in a discussion with him. He was an avid reader and writer, but was best known as a storyteller.

He was a collector of all things, but his favorite things to acquire were stories and new, interesting friends. He also found much peace when he was silent and surrounded by the energy of the wilderness and the wildlife. He was especially fascinated by the cougars and the ravens. Greg raised two children with his friend and partner Laurie. He shared his passions for fishing, hunting and the outdoors with them. He taught them how to drive, change the oil, listen to their inner voices and to always question authority.

Greg leaves behind his mother, Flo Dixon of Halfway; son Jake and his wife Christine; grandchildren Tavis and Tucker of La Grande; daughter Claire Dixon of Austin, Texas; brothers Mike Dixon of McCall, Idaho, and Brent Dixon of Idaho Falls, Idaho; many extended family members and countless friends.

He was preceded in death by his father Grant.

For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Greg may do so to the Pine Valley Grange through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home, P.O. Box 543 Halfway, OR, 97834. Online condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com

Sharon's Bouquet of the Week

Make new friends, but keep the old, one is silver, the other gold!

Thank you to my good old gold friend Rocky, who gave me and my 40 lbs of groceries a ride home from Safeway.

Blessings!
