

Girls Scouts established in Wallowa County

100 YEARS AGO
March 30, 1916

• While helping handle lumber on the approach to the dry kiln at the East Oregon plant yesterday morning, John Katoras was crushed to death between two cars. The fatality happened outside all the buildings at a place where no one would have thought that danger lurked.

• A second carload of the great Chevrolet automobiles will be received shortly by Fred S. Ashley, Wallowa county distributor. Complete with electric lights and self-starter, the "490" Chevrolet sells here for $650. More than half of the first lot received by Mr. Ashley has been sold already.

• Classified ad: For Rent: Pasture for horses, $1.00 per head. Frank Boyd, Enterprise.

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

• On the 25th anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Cornelison had a large gathering of friends as their guests at their home on Prairie Creek. A. Fairchild entertained the gathering with a talk on China and the Philippines, showing many trophies and relics he brought home from his campaign in the far east.

• School notes: A mimeograph which was bought with the proceeds of the teachers' play, should arrive in a few days. This machine turns out sixty copies per minute.

that a call for bids will be made by the Washington highway commission soon after July 1 for completion of the Washington portion of the Enterprise - Lewiston highway. The uncompleted portion of the highway in Washington runs from the Grand Ronde river to the Oregon line and will cost an estimated $322,000. The distance is about three miles. On the Oregon side, about three-quarters of a mile remains to be completed.

• Penney's advertisement: Ladies platform playshoes ... $3.49

• The operetta "Tom Sawyer" which was presented Friday night by the Joseph 6th and 7th grades under the direction of their teacher was well attended and they made more than $20.00.

• The real estate business continues to be brisk as veterans coming home from service buy residences.

• A new worthwhile venture is being started in the community under the sponsorship of the Joseph Women's Club, a Girl Scout organization. Mrs. Ted Newton has been appointed scout leader.

April 4, 1991

• After 17 years in the building supply business there has been a changing of the guard at Eagle Cap Supply in Enterprise. Joan and Jerry

Wheeler turned their building supply company over to Billy and Debbie Sherritt, who are combining two lumber yards - Eagle Cap Supply and Snyder Lumber - into a single operation.

• Twenty-two children hopped over 4,000 total hops in the first Easter Hop-athon to benefit the Mountain Valley Day School, bringing in more than $1,500 in pledge money.

• Showing at the OK Theatre: Home Alone

• Enterprise's Chad Aschenbrenner was a headliner at the Morrow County Invitational track meet last Saturday, as he raced to first place finishes in both hurdle events.

• Photo caption: Five year old Christopher Lozier was among numerous youngsters who looked for chocolate eggs at an Easter egg hunt at Pete's Pond Saturday.

• For the third consecutive year the Enterprise High School choir, led by director Randy Morgan, received the top gold rating at the East Oregon Small School Music Association gathering in La Grande last Friday, qualifying it to participate at the state choir competition in May.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Jereld and Alina Rice love to run on the trails of the Eagle Cap Wilderness back country -- and use training for races as an excuse to get out often! Races they have recently completed include the Pike's Peak Marathon (2011, 2012, 2013, 2015 for Jereld and 2012, 2013 and 2015 for Alina, finishing as high as 3rd and 1st in age group), the Moscow Mountain Madness 50K, the Spokane River Run 50K, The Yakima Skyline Rim Run 25K, the Bellingham Trail marathon. They will be heading to the Yakima Skyline Rim run again in a few weeks.
