It ain't pretty ... and that's why its so much fun. A competitor in the ski golf competition seems to have lost his skis (if not his mind).

TIME FOR FERGI FEST

By Kathleen Ellyn
Wallowa County Chieftain

Get ready for Wallowa County's favorite day of nonsense at Fergi Fest 2016 on Saturday, April 2 — snow or no snow.

You can expect to see all of your favorite events at Eagle Cap Ski Club-operated/Lions Club-sponsored family ski area from the Tucker Downhill races to ski golf to the world-famous lawn chair races.

Costumes are a tradition, so prepare to let your inner child out to play.

This event, as usual will go on in a blizzard or on muddy grass, whatever Wallowa County gives us.

There will be lots of fun for the kids, and anyone coming early will have a morning of skiing on the T-Bar — if they're lucky.

The races begin at 2 p.m. with kids ski and snowboard races first, followed by adult races, ski/snowboard golf and then the grand finale, the lawn chair race. In the last race, participants race their homemade lawn chair contraptions of innovative designs down the slope as fast as they can.

The potluck, (bring what you can) will start at 4 p.m. and music will be provided by Matt Harshman and Friends beginning at 6 p.m. at the lodge.

Alpine Meadows clubhouse gets makeover

Manager looking to draw new crowd with revamped space and menu

By Scot Heisel
Wallowa County Chieftain

A cast of devoted new staff members is creating a buzz at Alpine Meadows in northwest Enterprise, Wallowa County's lone golf course.

While the weather has remained mostly cold and windy, the grounds crew has been diligently preparing the course for its official opening day of Friday, April 1. At the same time, there's a burst of new color and new flavors popping inside the revamped clubhouse.

The Alpine Meadows clubhouse may look pretty familiar, but major changes have been made

Bivens steps in as the course's new clubhouse manager this year. His primary goal early on is to make the clubhouse a destination for golfers and non-golfers alike.

"We're trying to make this just a great place to hang out — even if you don't feel like stepping onto the course," Bivens said.

To that end, Bivens and his crew have given the clubhouse a makeover, with fresh paint throughout and a renovated men's locker room (the Ladies Association renovated their own locker room last year).

The clubhouse will still feature a full bar, but the food menu will have an all-new look as longtime Joseph barbecue expert and caterer Sherri Currie takes charge of the kitchen.

"She's the barbecue queen," Bivens said. "This menu is going to be great. I can't wait for people to come check it out."

Currie formerly owned Holy Smokes Bar-B-Que on Main Street in Joseph. Her new menu will include pulled pork, beef brisket and baby back ribs, as well as breakfast items, burgers, sandwiches and salads.

Upstairs, the clubhouse has a meeting room with a full kitchen that is available to rent for gatherings, meetings, reunions, receptions, etc.

Outside, Greg Oveson of Wallowa takes over as course superintendent. Oveson and his crew were hard at work Tuesday removing branches from the course and preparing greens and tee boxes.

The Alpine Meadows clubhouse will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. seven days a week until mid-October. The clubhouse will host an open house from 6-8 p.m. Friday, April 1.
