FERGI FEST MUDFEST DRAWS HARD-CORE CROWD

By Kathleen Ellyn
Wallowa County Chieftain

Fergi Fest participants were greeted with patches of mud to go with the snow, but a pervasive "So what?" attitude made the day a smashing success.

"It was fun, we had a good time," said ski club president Charlie Kissinger. "We've done it in a lot worse conditions than this. It wasn't actually as muddy as I thought it would be."

Scorekeeper Scott Miller was traveling and unable to give a full account of the winners, but a partial list follows.

In the Ski Race, ages 0-9: Annie Rose Miller, 8, of Joseph took first; the second-place finisher was unknown at press time; Rhett Locke, 6, of Joseph took third. Ski Race, ages 10-15: Maggie Miller, 11, of Joseph took first; Molly Currie of Joseph took second; and Aimee Meyers of Joseph took third.

The adult division of the Ski Race was combined with just one female participant, Amy Busch, and one snowboarder:

Lou Perry of Joseph won; Scott Miller of Joseph took second; and Tim Locke of Boise nabbed third.

Kid's golf saw Annie Rose Miller, 8, beat out her big sister, Maggie Miller. The girls took first and second respectively.

Adult golf was a mix of men and women; Ryan Rumelhart of Enterprise was the big winner.

The famous Lawn Chair Race was won by the indefatigable Jerry Hustafa of Joseph; other participants' names were not available by press time, but it was reported that only three chairs braved the mud this year.

The after-dark Flair Parade was declared a "great event" by participants and viewers alike.

Track: Carnival of Speed results

Wallowa County Chieftain

Twenty-five schools from across parts of Oregon and Washington descended on Shockman Field in Milton-Freewater on Friday afternoon for the annual Mac-Hi Carnival of Speed.
