- 700 - LAND PRODUCTS

SUPERINTENDENT: Debbie Yarborough
1. Exhibits to be entered 8 am - 12 pm, Tuesday, Aug. 9th at Cloverleaf Hall. Exhibits released Saturday, Aug. 13th, from 2:30 - 3:30 pm.

2. Bulletin No. EC 653, "Selecting and Preparing Vegetables for Exhibit" is available at the Extension Office.

3. Entries are limited to one display per class, per family, per garden. If there are 3 entries of a single variety, they will be judged in a separate class.

4. Pick market size specimens that are representative of variety named. Have correct number of specimens for class. All sections MUST contain 5 specimens unless other amount specified.

5. All specimens should be as uniform and alike as possible: Nearly the same size, the same degree of ripeness, of similar color.

6. Enter every class you can, even if your fruit or vegetable is not at its peak. Other growers have the same weather to contend with.

7. Unless other arrangements are made, any exhibits not picked up at end of the fair will be disposed of.

8. Exhibitors may replace land products with fresh ones any time after judging.
