

Queen

Lauren Makin

Lauren will be a senior at Joseph Charter School this fall. She is the daughter of Bryan and Kit Makin of Wallowa.

Lauren has two sisters: Courtnie and Taylor.

Lauren's hobbies include all sports, with her favorites being volleyball and basketball. She also enjoys riding and showing her horse and raising and showing cattle for 4-H and FFA.

Lauren's accomplishments include being a 2015 Eastern Oregon Livestock Show princess, FFA Greenhand Treasurer/Star Greenhand/Historian/Reporter, membership in National Honors Society, sophomore class vice president and treasurer, junior class president, 4-H club president for three years. She also received 4-H county medals in both horse and livestock, 4-H Dad Potter 3 step award, and 2015 Offensive Player in basketball.

After high school Lauren plans to attend EOU and focus on a career as a dental hygienist.

Lauren says she wanted to be a member of the Chief Joseph Days Court because she really enjoys promoting Wallowa County and the sport of rodeo.

Princess Sarah Aschenbrenner

Sarah will be a senior at Enterprise High School this fall. She lives in Enterprise with her parents Chad and Cindi Aschenbrenner and younger brother Coy.

Sarah's hobbies include hunting with her dad, riding horses and developing a strong and trusting relationship with her broodmare Lucy and her babies. She has three additional strong passions in her life – sports, FFA varsity basketball her freshman year, outstanding member of the Enterprise FFA Chapter for two years, member of the National Honors Society, Excellence in English II award, and recipient of the 4-H Dad Potter 3 step award.

After high school Sarah is interested in Medical Imaging Technology and hopes to become an ultrasound technician. She also is interested in veterinary medicine. She is considering several schools: OIT in Klamath Falls, IIT in Boise or TVCC in Ontario.

Sarah looks forward to being on the Chief Joseph Days court to expand her horsemanship career. She is excited to interact and reach out to new people. Her time on the CJD court will be spent eagerly promoting our area, our rodeo and the sport of rodeo.

Princess Taylor Grote

Taylor will be a senior at Joseph Charter School this fall. She lives in Joseph with her parents Dennis and Julie Grote and her brother, TJ. Taylor's grandparents were CJD grand marshalls in 1997.

Taylor is involved in 4-H horse and swine, volleyball, softball, FFA and FCCLA. She started really riding horses at age 8. She was a member of Pony Club and then expanded her knowledge of horses by joining 4-H. She is an active member of the Nez Perce Riders 4-H horse club. She enjoys riding horses, outdoor activities, drawing and reading. Taylor has received the Champion award in 4-H presentation for three years, qualified for state 4-H Horse Fair for three years in five or more events, 4-H Dad Potter 3 step award, class secretary during her freshman and sophomore year, member of the National Honor Society and was awarded Intermediate All Around Horse award in 2014.

After high school, Taylor plans to attend Portland State and strive to earn a degree in physical therapy.

Taylor said she wants to be on the Chief Joseph Days Court because it is one of her biggest dreams. The dream that every little girl has. She wants to represent not only CJD but the entire county.