

PHOTOS FROM AROUND WALLOWA COUNTY FAIR

Photos by By Scot Heisel and Kathleen Ellyn

Some market goats entertained themselves while awaiting judging Thursday.

4-H and FFA students examine some hogs during animal judging Thursday.

A curious goat gnaws on some straw.

Above: Clair Beck, 17, of Enterprise prepares for FFA Advanced Showmanship with her steer Kenai.

Left: A highlander steer gets a quick shower in the washing station.

A few of the fair's top quilt entries hang in Cloverleaf Hall. From left: Noma McDanie of Lostine, Rowena Patton of Enterprise and Marietta Henricks of Wallowa (Best of Show).

These sweet onions from Bob Both of Lostine earned top prize among garden vegetables.

A turkey hangs out in the shade.

Editor's note: The Chieftain has yet to receive full results from the livestock events and fair exhibits. Additional results will be published at a later date.