

Homes planned for north lake shore

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

100 YEARS AGO Sept. 21, 1916

• Twelve men swore allegiance to the United States government in the Circuit Court on Monday and thereby became citizens of the republic. It was the largest class of initiates in the history of the court. Five of the new citizens are British, three are German, three are Swedish and one Italian.

• To make it possible to put permanent bridges in when West First street is improved, the city Monday night entered into agreement whereby the property owners will pay part of the cost and the city will pay the remainder. The permanent bridge decided on will cost nearly $500 and will be there for years.

• O. S. Hamilton went to the Imnaha a few days ago with his new 2-ton automobile truck and brought out a capacity load of fruit from the farm of the Olmsted brothers, four miles below the bridge. Mr. Hamilton says he will not repeat the trip until the roads are widened. In some places, particularly below the bridge, the grade was so narrow that one wheel of the great truck was on the very edge.

• Style tip: That skirts are to be longer will be a great relief to many and a sad blow to the woman with trim ankles. Yes, they are to be but a paltry five inches from the ground, and after the ten we have grown accustomed to they will make us all appear most unusually modest.

• Lots for sale in River Park Addition, facing new (Enterprise) city park: $20 each, $5 down, will trade lots for automobile.

• Lost between Enterprise and Lostine: Radiator cap of automobile. Return to Delbert Mitchell, Prairie Creek.

70 YEARS AGO Sept. 19, 1946

• One of the most ambitious home construction projects conceived in the county in years is being planned at the north end of Wallowa Lake. The plan calls for subdividing most of the hillside fronting the lake into large lots upon which some dozen or more substantial homes are already planned.

• Farm for sale — 320 acres, 165 acres irrig., 35 acres non-irrig. wheat land, good imp. on good road, school bus, free irrig. from Wallowa river, a good dairy and hog farm, milk check now around $750 per month. Price $21,000, $8000 will handle it.

• J. N. Daugherty of the Lewiston-Enterprise stage, reported that the cloudburst and storm centering on Shoemaker canyon on the Grande Ronde and eastward to Couse creek, washed out the road on the Grande Ronde river between the Rays Ferry bridge and mouth of Deer creek. He managed to drive around it, but the road was really rough.

• All men are reminded that the fair committee would like to have them blossom out in their western outfits starting tomorrow and continuing through until the end of the fair.

• Miss Edna Mae Allard of Joseph has been chosen to reign as queen of the 1946 Wallowa County Fair. Miss Allard was chosen as a candidate by her fellow students at Jo-Hi. Candidates chosen by the other high schools who will serve as princesses are Miss Blanche Lermeny, Enterprise High School, Miss Betty Holloran, Wallowa High School, Miss Sarah Tucker, Flora High School, and Miss Charlotte Frazier, Lostine High School.

50 YEARS AGO Sept. 22, 1966

• Checking and testing were underway at the Cruikshank ranch south of Enterprise last weekend when Chuck Kirkpatrick was kept busy digging holes in various spots throughout the peat bog. It was hoped that an average depth and quality of the peat could be determined from the diggings. Preliminary reports show that high quality peat humus is found to an average depth of about eight feet on 70 acres of the ranch.

• Enterprise Police Chief E.E. Johnson disclosed this week that vandals broke 32 windows out of used cars at the Milligan Motors used car lot. As near as can be ascertained the vandals used BB guns to break the windows.

• S/Sgt. Don Stein, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stein of Enterprise, was honored as Non-Commissioned Officer of the Month at his post in Camerana Bay, Viet Nam where he is serving with the 14 Aerial Port Squadron of the Air Force.

• Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barklow were two of several couples to receive gifts from Mr. and Mrs. John Steele for a record of 1,000 days without a lost-time accident at the Boise Cascade Joseph mill. Steele, as foreman of the crew, presented each member of his group with a Zippo lighter and Mrs. Steele presented each wife with a new electric can opener, all compliments of Boise Cascade.

• Photo caption: Shown above are Captain Dale Potter, Joseph, and T/Sgt. Fred Tippett, Lostine, who met for the first time during the war in Viet Nam. Both men were raised in Wallowa county but had never met until they were both stationed at Bien Hoa, Viet Nam.

25 YEARS AGO Sept. 19, 1991

• Named to the 1992 Chief Joseph Days Court at Sunday's tryouts were Jessica Olson of Enterprise, Kristil Botts of Joseph and Jodi Bacon of Flora.

• This month Leo Goebel and Bob Jackson were named as recipients of the Wallowa County Small Woodlands Association "tree farmer of the year" award for their efforts on their Alder Slope tree farm.

• The Wallowa County intermediate 4-H livestock judging team won the state livestock judging contest this year at the Oregon State Fair. Members of the team are Amber Follett, Christy Stitzel, Reid Wynans, Clint Johnson and Travis Jones.

• Six Wallowa County residents will be among a delegation of over 370 persons from around the U.S. who will be participating in the "Fly-in for Freedom" campaign next week in Washington, DC. Local participants include Mike Wiedeman, Judy Wortman, Mack Birckmaier, Tim Gilbert, Larry Christman and Rick Swart.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

This week's athlete of the week is Cayden DeLury, a Joseph Charter School senior.

DeLury, 17, led the Eagles to a whopping 70-32 victory over the Republic Tigers of Northeastern Washington on Sept. 10.

Roaring from the Eagles backfield, DeLury racked up an amazing 500 yards rushing on 17 carries during the contest, averaging nearly 30 yards per carry.

Not content with gridiron heroics, DeLury also plays a leading role on the school's basketball team and appears regularly on the school's honor roll.

DeLury is the son of Dan DeLury and Sarah Crist of Joseph.

Josephy schedules local International Day of Peace event

A lively discussion of hot spots and cooling spots around the world will take place at Wallowa County's annual International Day of Peace from 4 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 25, at the Josephy Center for Art and Culture.

The program will emphasize reconciliation in Northern Ireland as local actors will demonstrate nonviolent communication strategies to build a peaceful community. Admission is free.

Music will be provided by local artists Ted Hays, John McColgan, Randy Morgan, Jessie Borgerding and others.

The event includes a potluck dinner. Organizers suggest a dish with an international flavor.

The International Day of Peace is a project of the Rotary Club of Wallowa County with co-sponsors Bank of Eastern Oregon and Community Bank.

Cabral to lead service club

Sierra Cabral, a senior at Wallowa High School, has been elected president of the school's Interact Club, a service club for teens sponsored by the Rotary Club of Wallowa County.

Cabral will lead the club during this school year as it produces service projects. Other officers elected at the club's initial meeting Aug. 30 are Jordan Ferre, vice president; Kristin Craig, secretary; and Stacy Douglass, treasurer.

The Interactors started planning projects at their Sept. 13 meeting. In recent years, the club has been known for its annual Christmas Bazaar, where members solicit donations of gifts that are sold at minimal cost to students who can't afford to buy holiday presents at retail price.

Interact Clubs are sponsored by Rotary Clubs for students aged 12-18 to guide them in lives dedicated to service. Clubs typically produce school, community and international projects. While there are 13,000 Interact Clubs around the world, Wallowa's is the only one in eastern Oregon.
