• Registration of voters in the county has been completed and the books in County Clerk Zurcher's office have closed. The total number of registered voters is 3541, against 3320 on the books at this time two years ago, a gain of 221.

• A traveling salesman took a straw vote for president on the passenger train coming in yesterday afternoon. The salesman was a republican and Aaron Wade, who was coming in from La Grande, checked up the results, which showed 42 votes for Wilson and 28 for Hughes. Democrats were so pleased with the vote that they have been telling it to all comers.

• Enterprise school notes: A hot water tank has been installed in the grade school. The water is piped to the lavatories for the use of the pupils and is also used for cleaning purposes.

• The moving pictures taken last summer of the gathering at the watermelon festival at the foot of the lake will be shown at the People's Theatre, Joseph, next Monday evening. This will be the only opportunity for the many Enterprise people who attended the gathering to see the pictures, as they will not be shown in Enterprise.

70 YEARS AGO Oct. 10, 1946

• While guests at the Chief Joseph hotel in Joseph were sleeping peacefully Monday night a prowler entered several rooms and stole money amounting to $138. The money was taken from three rooms. Several other rooms were entered and ransacked but nothing taken.

• Tragedy struck swiftly at the F. Thomas Hurlburt home in Enterprise Monday when their two-year-old son was instantly killed by a car being backed out by Mrs. Cora Richards from the Richards garage.

• New Ford truck owners are Bill Fleser and Delman Brown. Bill Platzoeder has a new Ford coach. New Ford tractor owners, all veterans, are: Arthur Bay, Keith Searles and Ernest Young.

• Alder Slope news: Bill Heskett, Merl Chenoweth and Louis Jordan entertained 31 of their friends at a bear meat supper at the Johnson home Friday night. The bear was shot by Mr. Johnson when he was mowing hay for Mr. Heskett on the Bob Baker place.

• Bartlett news: There was a REA meeting at Troy Sept. 26 to see how many were interested in having electric service here. Speakers were members of the Clearwater Valley Light & Power association of Lewiston. 59 families signed up for the line.

50 YEARS AGO Oct. 13, 1966

• The Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Enterprise will be dedicated at a special service to be held this Saturday. Work on the new structure has been underway for about three years.

• One of the projects of the local Soroptimist Club has been taking residents of the Wallowa County Nursing Home out for weekly automobile rides during the summer months. Among the drivers serving most often: Gwen Rahn, Rusty Ricker, Marjorie McGraw, Dorothy Wergen, Emily Daggett, Ruth Amoni and Joy Klages.
