

HALLOWEEN SCENES

Rogue Robinson, 7, of Wallowa has got that ghoulish stare down at Trunk or Treat on Halloween Night.

Three guesses what this is and who is under that surrealist costume at the Lostine Tavern "pop up" Halloween Party. (Hint: he's who you think he is, the only guy in Wallowa County with this kind of commitment to silliness — and there's a giant ear on the front of the costume).

Fabulous Mr. Fox and The Joker (Heath Ledger-style) react to an astonishing comment made by a red-haired witch at the Lostine Tavern.

Doggone it! It's Halloween and time for fun!

The Botts family of Enterprise and La Grande was out in force for Trunk or Treat in Enterprise. Here is little flying dragon, 10-month old Otto, son of Tyson Botts of La Grande (who is son of Dennis and Julie Botts of Enterprise).

A spooky-looking cemetery popped up along Logan Street in Enterprise for Halloween.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

This week's athlete of the week is Joseph Charter School senior Haven Johnson. Johnson, a member of the school's volleyball squad had a team-high nine kills Wednesday in a home win over lone in the first round of the state volleyball tournament. In addition to those kills, she also bravely dispatched a fierce-looking wasp that briefly halted play during Wednesday's match in Joseph.

Haven Johnson

Johnson, 17, was also named to the Old Oregon all-league first team along with teammate Ally Cooney last week. She appears regularly on the school's honor roll.
