

Zollman, Morgan take over laundry

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

Items of interest from the pages of The Chieftain from this week in years past.

100 YEARS AGO Jan. 4, 1917

The presence in town over New Years of the O.A.C. cadet band caused a marked revival of the college spirit. The band appeared twice, at a concert Sunday afternoon and at a dance Monday night, the gross receipts of the two engagements being $315.

Notice to Parents: The curfew ordinance of the city of Enterprise forbids children to be on the streets after 8 p.m. The city marshal is instructed to take action when he finds children on the streets after that hour not accompanied by older persons.

News from Troy: Friday night, December 28, there was a Christmas dance at the Troy hotel, attended by a large number of young people. As is usually the case at such gatherings, everything was moved out of the main room in the hotel to give space for the occasion.

Monday was homecoming day for the school teachers who had been spending the holidays elsewhere and the incoming train was well represented with members of the fair sex who have the task of teaching Enterprise's young Americans.

70 YEARS AGO Jan. 2, 1947

Vernon Hammack of the Enterprise FFA chapter won the third place and a prize of $12.50 in the Farm-Shop contest for the eastern Oregon district.

Mervin Zollman and Earl

Morgan have taken over the Eagle Cap Laundry.

Although the Community Chest drive for funds was officially closed December 31, Wallowa County has failed to meet its quota. County chairman W.J. Ortman has been asked by headquarters to not close the drive, and urge everyone who has not yet made their contribution to this cause to do so at once.

Bessie Halladay has purchased an army 12 liaison plane, for personal use. This makes a total of seven planes permanently on the Joseph municipal airport field.

Mrs. Louise Moore, teacher at the Imnaha school, and her 13 pupils gave a very nice Christmas program at the school house Saturday night. A nice crowd was in attendance.

50 YEARS AGO Jan. 5, 1967

Stephanie Kay Ruder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ruder of Enterprise, is Wallowa County's first baby for 1967.

According to the best available information, it was determined that hunters and anglers annually spend approximately $1,865,235 in Wallowa County. This broken down by category shows elk hunters spending $888,150; deer hunters $440,092; small game hunters $73,933; and anglers $463,060 annually.

Playing at the Vista Theater: Steve McQueen in "The Cincinnati Kid" and "Lady L" starring Sophia Loren and Paul Newman.

First of the newly elected town mayors to take office was Ted Grote who was chosen as the mayor of Joseph in last November's election.

Two new county officials were installed in their offices this week as old terms expired and new terms began. William R. Kirby, newly elected district attorney, and Clifford Johnson, county commissioner, took the oaths of their offices from county judge Stan Farris.

Building permits issued by the city of Enterprise during 1966 seem to indicate that the trend to build or remodel was less popular than during either of the preceding two years. The permits for 1966 total only one-third of those issued during 1965, and one-half of those issued during 1964.

Photo caption: Alyssa Micka, 3-1/2, Joseph, basks in the comfort of the oh-so-soft lap of the huge Grandpa Bear given away by J. S. Economy Drug in Enterprise on Christmas Day. Alyssa, the daughter of Jesse and Melanee Micka, became the envy of hundreds of youngsters in the county when she became the lucky winner of the holiday prize.

Photo caption: Dozens of gifts donated by county businesses were given away in a free last-minute drawing organized by the Wallowa County Sheriff's office December 24. Shown above, Sheriff Roger Decker draws a child's name, while Lee Daggett of KWVR radio broadcasts from the lobby of the courthouse.

The Joseph Merchants Association selected six winners in its annual Christmas lighting contest. Winners of the residential competition are Don Elson – first, Gerald Crawford – second, and Greg Jennings – third. Winners of the commercial contest are Eagle Cap Pack Station – first, Nez Perce Crossing – second, and Racquet Club & Deli – third.
