

Four encyclopedia salesmen arrested

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

Items of interest from the pages of The Chieftain from this week in years past.

100 YEARS AGO Jan. 11, 1917

• An increase of 267 children of school age in the county over 1915 is shown by the school census taken Dec. 1, 1916. The census shows a total of 3,585 school-age children in 76 school districts in the county.

• F.D. McCully has started suit in the circuit court against E.W. Rumble, asking for an accounting of the affairs of the Elgin Forwarding Company through all the years the two men operated it as partners. The complaint alleges that about $30,000 is not accounted for.

• A glance at prices of farm products a year ago and today shows the decided advance made during the 12 months. Wheat a year ago was considered strong at 91 cents; now it is around $1.50. Potatoes were worth one cent a pound a year ago and sell now for a cent and a half and up; farm butter sold last year for 65 cents for a 2 pound roll, the price is now five to ten cents higher.

70 YEARS AGO Jan. 9, 1947

• In 1946 the county paid bounties on 15 cougar, 58 bobcats and 1,087 coyotes, totaling $4,002.

Location unknown, year possibly 1951. If you have information about it, call 541-426-4567.

Chieftain archives

• Jay Bowerman of Portland is presenting to the Enterprise public library an 8-volume set "The Nurnberg War Crimes Trial."

• Chas. C. Brown has sent in to The Chieftain an interesting fossil which he found on Temperance creek by the old Wisenor house. The rock resembles the snout of a fish or toad with the outline of what appear to be human teeth along one side.

• A fire broke out shortly after 1 o'clock on the morning of January 3 in the attic of the Pastime Poolhall, causing considerable damage to the interior. The city marshal and the girls at the switchboard at the telephone office were right on the job. For some reason the siren failed to blow.

• An oil heater exploded at the Corner market in Wallowa Friday morning causing considerable damage to the merchandise and building. Due to so much severe cold weather the fire truck refused to run, so they used fire extinguishers.

• Lostine: Last Thursday evening the town was alarmed when the fire siren gave 4 blasts. Since 3 screams indicate that the water is being turned off, and 1 alarm denotes a fire, it took a few minutes to understand its meaning. But in a few minutes the city cart and hose were in operation at the scene of a fire which had begun between the Masonic floor and the Tippets Inn ceiling.

50 YEARS AGO Jan. 12, 1967

• The free throw contest held last Friday at Wallowa was won by Shane Homan of Enterprise, for sinking 17 of 25 shots.

• A proposal for a youth center was presented the Enterprise city council on Monday by "Blondie" Moffit and Gordon Wilkes. The S & W Café would be used for the sandwich and snack bar with an opening into the old Range Rider building where pool tables, ping pong table and pinball machines would be placed.

• Four men were arrested and confined to the county jail last Thursday for violating the Green River Ordinance. The salesmen for Colliers Encyclopedias were arrested by Terry Lamb when several citizens complained to the Police Department about the questions being asked by the men.

• Taking over the reins of the city government of the city of Enterprise this week was Vic Cronin, newly elected mayor. Taking office with Cronin were four councilmen — Irving Nuss, Mel Barber, Jack McClaran and Claire Humphreys.

25 YEARS AGO Jan. 9, 1992

• Wallowa County's first baby of 1992 — John Raymond Jordan — made his appearance to parents John and Ronda Jordan on Friday, Jan. 3.

• After being closed for over a year, Joseph's only commercial lumberyard is back in business under the management of former owner Jim Russell, who has renamed the business 1917 Lumber Company in honor of its 75th anniversary.

• Planners for the first Winter Fishtrap Gathering writers conference at Wallowa Lake hoped to have 35 registrants by the first of the year. By Dec. 18 they had deposits in hand from more than 45 people.

• Labor Commissioner Mary Wendy Roberts reminds Oregon employers that the state's minimum wage is $4.75 and that there are no efforts underway to increase it.
