

NEWS IN BRIEF

Cleanup Day in Joseph is May 6

Joseph will host its annual community cleanup day 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 6.

Items will be accepted at the city parking lot on North Lake Street and some items will be picked up curbside: computers, computer monitors, televisions, vehicle batteries, used motor oil (limit 5 gallons), metal and tires without rims (limit 4). There will also be a dumpster for property debris; however, no household garbage accepted. Info: 541-432-3832 singing roles should bring a piece of music from Oscar and Hammerstein's work to perform. If you are unable to make the audition, appointments are available by contacting Kate Loftus 541-569-2302.

Teens and adults, men and women are needed as well as tech crew members, costumers and others.

Top speller to be chosen on May 4

Three students will compete for the title of best speller in Wallowa County Thursday: Abigail Dundas, a third-grader at Joseph Charter School; Jessica Journigan, a fifth-grader at Wallowa Elementary and Luke Clinchy, a fifth-grader at Enterprise Elementary.

The competition is coordinated by Lori Fischer of Enterprise Schools.

Colony to appear on 'Live Wire'

Lostine sheep breeder June Colony will be a guest on the "Live Wire" show, which airs on Oregon Public Radio 3 p.m. Saturday, May 6. The weekly show hosts an eclectic cadre of artists, musicians, writers, comedians and cultural observers and is hosted Luke Burbank.

The show is normally taped in Portland; however, the May 6 version was recorded at Hamley's Slickfork Saloon in Pendleton. Colony was previously featured in the Chieftain.

OBITUARIES

Eva Havas Slinker
Dec. 9, 1929 — April 22, 2017

Eva Slinker, of Salem, Ore., passed away peacefully on April 22, 2017, at age 87. She was the eldest and last survivor of three siblings born to George and Judith Havas, who emigrated from Budapest, Hungary, to live and raise their children in Oakland, Calif.

Eva attended college in Michigan where she studied music. She later married Don Robinson, with whom she had three children: Linda Marie Robinson, Kenneth Alan Robinson and Teresa (Sam) Luttenberger (Robinson).

She met and married her second husband, Al Slinker, before moving to Enterprise, Ore., where they became ranchers. Eva learned the ways of a ranch wife and partner and helped to create a successful livestock and ranching operation.

Eva became a passionate supporter of and participant in the arts community, shifting from a music focus to the visual arts. She studied at Eastern Oregon University and later received an MFA from Portland State University.

She was a founding member of the Eastern Oregon Regional Arts Council and a member of the Oregon Arts Commission. Eva also gave her energies and focus to being a board member for Wallowa Resources and participating in the Wallowa County Mental Health Advisory Council.

Eva is survived by her children, Linda Robinson, Ken Robinson (Michelle), and Teresa (Sam Robinson) Luttenberger (Mark); her step-sons Randy Slinker (Pam) and David Slinker; her grandchildren James Robinson (Ashley), Lynn (Robinson) Farias (Juan), Jake Slinker and Nathan Slinker (Ashley); and a great-grandchild Kenny.

Funeral services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Oregon Community Foundation, Eva H. Slinker Northeastern Oregon Fund, 1221 SW Yamhill, Suite 100, Portland, OR 97205.

Jeanne Eckley Terry
April 5, 1957 — April 19, 2017

Our Sweet Jeanne went home to heaven after a valiant battle with cancer.

She was born in Tacoma, Wash., and moved with her family to Charleston, S.C. In grade school she moved to Enterprise and graduated from Enterprise High School. Then she attended Eastern Oregon State for a time.

She married her sweetheart Paul Terry and moved to Elgin, Ore., to raise her family. She later moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming, and about a year ago moved to Irrigon, Ore. Jeanne is preceded in death by her father Wayne Eckley and her son Jason Terry. She is survived by her husband Paul Terry of Irrigon, son Clifton Terry and grandson Mason Terry of Cheyenne, mother Patricia Eckley of Burns, Ore., sister Julie (John) Dalton of Ontario, Ore., brother Wayne Eckley Nyssa, Ore. and sister Bonnie Rasmussen of Burns as well as many other family, cousins and friends.

In her younger days, Jeanne and Paul spent time square dancing. She enjoyed fishing trips on their pontoon boat and loved traveling in their motor home. After moving to Irrigon, Jeanne enjoyed Zumba and pickle ball. She worked as a secretary and bookkeeper for the family business. Jeanne will be missed by all who knew her.

Per her wishes, there will be no formal services. A small family gathering and celebration of her life was held April 29.

Donna Mae (Silver) Johnston
Feb. 1, 1939 — April 24, 2017

Donna Mae (Silver) Johnston died April 24, 2017, at the Wallowa Memorial Hospital. A memorial service and potluck were held April 29 at the Wallowa Senior Center.

Donna Mae was born Feb. 1, 1939, with her twin brother Donald, to Ralph and Juanita (Werst) Silver in La Grande, Ore. The twins were so small they both fit in one of their father's shoe boxes. Ralph could take his wedding band and slide it over Donna Mae's foot.

The family lived in Wallowa on a ranch where she spent her entire childhood.

Donna Mae graduated from Wallowa High School in 1957. She was a cheerleader and went by the nickname Daisy Mae. She attended college in Spokane before returning to Wallowa to begin working in the local bank as a teller.

She had three children: Bobbie Lou (Kenny) Baker of Wallowa, Schevelle (Ken) Wortman of Wallowa and Ralph (Loretta) Hewett of Richland, Ore.

On April 14, 1972, she married Perry Melvin Johnston, the love of her life. Together they ranched and farmed, raising sheep and cattle on their ranch in Wallowa. They spent each day together working in the lambing barn, working the fields and enjoying the life they both loved.

She was active in the 4-H programs, rural fire district, tri-county wool pool and numerous other organizations. She enjoyed socializing and having a good time. She loved dancing, horseback riding and four-wheeler trips.

Donna Mae is survived by her husband Perry of 45 years, daughters Bobbie Lou Baker and Schevelle Wortman and son Ralph Hewett. She had eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was known as "mom" to many local kids while her own children were growing up.

Donna Mae was preceded in death by her parents Ralph and Juanita Silver, her twin Donald Silver, her grandson Jeromie Bunch and great-grandson Kaen Wortman.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Wallowa Valley Senior Living, Wallowa County 4-H or charity of choice.

Bollman Funeral Home of Enterprise is in charge of arrangements.

ENTERPRISE SCHOOL BOARD
Hello Wallowa County!
Since I am running for the Enterprise School Board, I thought you should know a little bit about me.

Family: Married for 14 years in June to Amy. We have three kids Gabriella (5), Luke (8) and Allison (11). All three will be in the Enterprise school system next school year.

Occupation: President of Viridian Management, Inc. We have approximately 160 employees in Oregon, Washington and Idaho and manage 93 properties with 3,050 apartments.

Wallowa County Activities: Awana Club Commander at First Baptist Church, Elder at Summit Church, Wallowa County Board Member for the Eastern Oregon Workforce Board and Wallowa Lake Yacht Club Commodore.

Military: I served in the US Marine Corp Reserve and the Oregon Army National Guard. I was deployed to the Sinai, Egypt following 9/11.

Education: I believe in lifelong learning. I have a B.S. in Finance from the University of Wyoming and then completed a fifth year of accounting classes through Southern Oregon University. Currently, I am working on a Master's Degree in Accounting through Liberty University.

Background: I grew up in Afton, Wyoming which is a community very similar to Wallowa County. When I was 15, I moved to Central Point Oregon, where I graduated from high school. After high school I returned to Wyoming to attend college.

Thanks for taking the time to read my information. I would be honored to have your vote.
Thanks again!
