Runners of all ages come out to be part of the Amy Hafer Race for Awareness each year.

Cancer awareness run set for Saturday

The Wallowa Valley Health Care Foundation is sponsoring the 9th annual Amy Hafer Race for Cancer Awareness at 9 a.m. Saturday.

The event at Wallowa Memorial Hospital, 601 Medical Parkway, Enterprise offers a 1 mile walk/run, a 5k walk/run and a 10k run. and is open to walkers and runners of all abilities.

The race is named in honor of 1989 Wallowa High School graduate Amy Hafer, who lost her battle with breast cancer in 2007 at the age of 38. Hafer's uncle, local artist Tim Norman, donates the trophies for first-place finishes — bronze dragonflies — a tribute to his niece who loved dragonflies.

The purpose of the event is to encourage healthy lifestyle choices, including exercise and eating healthy food and to get regular screenings so that cancer can be caught at its earliest stage.

Money donated by Tough Enough to Wear Pink of Chief Joseph Days Rodeo also helps fund mammograms for local low-income women, and in some cases the follow-up appointment with a physician for a diagnosis. Soroptomist of Wallowa County also contributes.

The Amy Hafer Race is supported by sponsors, including Bank of Eastern Oregon, Viridian Management, Winding Waters Clinic and Wallowa Valley Center for Wellness.

The cost is $30 per person and includes a t-shirt ($20 race only), same day registration 8-8:30 a.m. cost is $30 with shirt; $20 without; under 13 $20 with shirt or $10 race only.

Make check payable to WVHCF and mail to WVHCF, P.O. Box 53, Enterprise, OR 97828 or register online at wvhcf.org.

OBITUARIES

Thornton Grant Warnock
 Nov. 21, 1930 — May 30, 2017

Thornton Grant Warnock was born in Imnaha to Charles and Wilma Warnock Nov. 21, 1930. He attended school in Imnaha and later in Joseph.

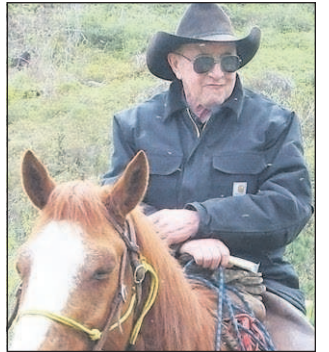

He married Barbara Hockett on April 7, 1961, and they were blessed with three boys. Grant took over the family ranch, but to make ends meet, he rode for the Marr Flat Cattle Association, then partnered with Mike Marks in a packing and guide service.

He later drove truck hauling livestock in the western states. Deciding to stay closer to home, he drove bus for the Joseph School District.

He was a member of the Masons, the Wallowa County Sheriff Posse and an EMT. Grant enjoyed hunting, fishing, writing poems, traveling to Alaska and watching his grandchildren. Grant passed away May 30, 2017, at 87.

A memorial service was held in Imnaha at the church on June 6. The family thanks the community for its support and friendship. The family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Imnaha Memorial Scholarship or the Joseph FFA Alumni Association.

Grant is survived by his wife of 56 years, Barbara Warnock; sons Charlie (Debi) Warnock, Joe (Shari) Warnock, Dan (Cynthia) Warnock and nine grandchildren. He is also survived by siblings Neil Warnock and Charlotte MacManiman. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Vera Talbott.

Calvin Perry Kiesecker

Feb. 15, 1941 — June 7, 2017

Calvin was born Feb. 15, 1941, in Enterprise, Ore. He was the first child born to Lester and Frances DeJean Kiesecker. He was raised on a ranch on the Grande Ronde River and attended elementary school at Troy, Ore.

He graduated from Wallowa High School in 1959. He enlisted in the U.S. Army immediately after graduation and spent two years in Germany where he also played in a band.

Calvin was known for his many talents. He could play any musical instrument even though he had never had a lesson. When he returned from the service, he started another band and played at dances and clubs. He even played with members of CCR and John Fogerty.

He began a woodcarving business at this time as well and specialized in huge signs and murals. One of his first masterpieces is in the Chamber of Commerce building in Enterprise. Various pieces can be seen in Wallowa County.

In 1972, he married Shirley Sickles Brown. The marriage later ended in divorce. He stayed connected with her eight children, whom he loved very much.

In the '90s, he was in a near-fatal car accident, which left him with disabilities. He could no longer do much carving or play many of his musical instruments. He then started playing the harmonica and became one of the very best harmonica players in the country. Calvin was a very kind, sweet, loving, honest soul who would help anyone out. We will all miss him terribly.

Calvin is survived by his son, John (Gwen) and two grandchildren; sister, Sandi Weaver, brother, Gary (Cathy); stepmother, Clarice; half brothers, Troy and Tim (Julie); stepsisters, Cindy Neal (Greg) and Debbie Keefer and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Frances, in 1959; father Lester in 2015; brother, Jerry in 2014; a favorite aunt, Rosalie DeJean Monk; and many uncles.

Online condolences may be made to the family at lovelandfuneralchapel.com.

Mary Jane Whitaker

Sept. 10, 1925 — May 26, 2017

Mary Jane Whitaker passed away May 26, 2017, at Alpine House in Joseph.

She was born Sept. 10, 1925 in Philadelphia to Albert Hodgkinson and Marie Thompson.

Mary married Robert Mansel Whitaker in Yuma, Ariz., in 1946. She had lived in Pomona, Calif., for many years working for General Dynamic prior to retirement. She also resided in Claremont, Calif., and Lincoln City, Ore.

She loved being involved with her family, crocheting and playing bingo.

She is survived by three children: Barbara Moyer of Joseph, Ore.; Wayne Whitaker of California and James Whitaker of Nevada; also four great grandchildren and five great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband and a son, Brian. A celebration of life is 11 a.m. Saturday, June 24, at Joseph Cemetery. Archie Hook is the officiant.

Memorial donations preferred to Alpine House.
