GENERAL FAIR RULES

1. WEIGH-IN: All 4-H/FFA animals are to be on fairgrounds and signed in with the superintendent at the check-in station by 8 PM on Wednesday.
 2. Show equipment, feed and animals must be onsite by 8pm Wednesday. NO vehicles or trailers will be allowed on the grass on weigh-in day. Move in and set-up is 8:00am - noon and after weigh-ins are completed. Assistance will be provided if needed to move in. NO set-up will be allowed on Tuesday.
 3. Stalls & pens will be assigned to all exhibitors and must be left cleaned of manure by Tuesday following the fair. Exhibitors must furnish own hay/grain. Members will provide shavings for bedding. DO NOT USE STRAW! (This rule applies to horses being shown as well) (With the exception of swine barn where no bedding is allowed)
 4. All animals must be free from disease and can be required to leave grounds upon diagnosis of disease.
 5. All animals giving evidence of artificial coloring or remedying physical defects of conformation will be barred from exhibition.
- Use of talcum powders, oils, or other artificial coating materials will not be allowed when fitting/ showing animals in swine classes.
6. All cattle must be double tied (one rope from halter and one from neck) in their stalls. Unruly animals WILL be excused from fair.
 7. Tranquilized animals will not be allowed. (A licensed veterinarian may tranquilize an animal on grounds to prevent property damage or danger to people, however the animal(s) must be promptly removed.) The show reserves right to use appropriate tests to detect these substances.
 8. All breeding ewes, rams and lambs (wethers included) must have an official USDA identification if they are to be shown or sold.
 9. All protests must be in writing and accompanied by deposit of $25. The protest must plainly state cause of complaint and be given to a Fair Board member within 24 hours after cause of the protest. If ruled unjustified, deposit is forfeited.

Animal Welfare Policy

The Wallowa County Fair management supports the humane treatment of all animals. We are committed to:

- Upholding the welfare of animals as a primary consideration in all activities.
- Requiring that animals be treated with kindness, respect and compassion.
- Ensuring that owners, trainers and exhibitors use responsible care in handling, transporting and exhibiting their animals.
