JANYEL SHARE

Her mother, Judy Lenz, had come from Las Vegas and once Janyel graduated, she went back there to begin her career. She started in computer engineering, managed property and eventually worked into a position where she ran a resort at the Grand Canyon in Flagstaff, Ariz.

A. We came last year for the Joseph Car Show and came back to house hunt. It's quiet, it's peaceful, it's safe, there is

They may be very concerned about what you are doing or have opinions strongly about you but as long as you're good to them, they don't care. As long as you're a good person or a good neighbor or a good friend it doesn't matter. I find that to be across the board here; whether you're a republican, conservative, gay, straight, it doesn't matter, they're going to help. It's a community feeling, all that other rhetoric doesn't matter. I love that about Wallowa County.

Busy summer season is already under way for the boost of activity.

One of the bits of good news is that Wallowa Lake Lodge has been recognized with a 2017 TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence. That award

The Certificate of Excellence accounts for the quality, quantity and interval of reviews submitted by travelers. To qualify, a business must maintain an overall Trip Advisor bubble rating of at

Two other bits of news that we cannot help but observe as we drive through Joseph are the new landscaping projects

The second great asset to Joseph's Main Street is the landscaping work that Bill Gore has done all around the location of his little Baggin's Wagen Mini Donut business. The Wagen is located in the parking area of Mike's Garage, and it is the nature of an automobile repair shop to have vehicles in various stages

"We just got them about two weeks ago," he said.

One last reminder as summer fun begins: Constance Raven's Wallowa Mountain Taxi service is running 24-hours a day. Sometimes she runs a special for delivery and pickup for those who want to imbibe for the evening. Be safe. Call for details.
